Shakespeare's Roman Worlds Vivian Thomas,2021-03-30 The infinite variety of Shakespeare's Roman plays is reflected in the diversity of critical commentary to which they have given rise Originally published in 1989 the distinguishing feature of this study is that it endeavours to convey a clear idea of the relationship between the characters and events in Shakespeare's plays and the main narrative sources on which the four Roman plays are based while simultaneously undertaking a critical analysis of the plays through the perspective of Shakespeare's Roman worlds particularly the creation and operation of the value system Hence these plays are perceived as political plays histories and tragedies

Anthony Davies,Stanley Wells,1994 Towards the end of the 1980s it looked as if television had displaced cinema as the photographic medium for bringing Shakespeare to the modern audience In recent years there has been a renaissance of Shakespearian cinema including Kenneth Branagh's Henry V and Much Ado About Nothing Franco Zeffirelli's Hamlet Peter Greenaway's Prospero's Books and Christine Edzard's As You Like It In this volume a range of writers study the best known and most entertaining film television and video versions of Shakespeare's plays Particular attention is given to the work of Olivier Zeffirelli and Kurosawa and to the BBC Television series In addition the volume includes a survey of previous scholarship and an invaluable filmography

Shakespearean Criticism Various,2021-06-23 Reissuing works originally published between 1984 and 1995 this set brings back into print early volumes from the Shakespearean Criticism Series originally edited by Joseph Price The books present selections of renowned scholarship on each play touching on performances as well as the dramatic literature The pieces included are a mixture of influential historical criticism more modern interpretations and enlightening reviews most of which were published in wide spread places before these compilations were first made Companions to the plays these books showcase critical opinion and scholarly debate Poel, Granville Barker, Guthrie, Wanamaker Cary M. Mazer,2013-10-24 All four figures in this volume have been canonized as central to stage centred Shakespearean scholarship and stage practice From William Poel's reproductions of early modern stages in the late nineteenth century to Sam Wanamaker's reconstruction of the Globe on London's South Bank they all viewed Shakespeare's plays as being enmeshed in the social and historical dynamics of theatremaking and theatregoing The volume considers how their attempts to recapture early modern performance conditions can be considered progressive

Kolin, 2015-04-10 Originally published in 1995 In three parts introduction criticism and reviews this volume examines the goriest of Shakespeare's works The editor's exhaustive introduction runs through the pattern of changing scholarship and commentary introducing the key interests in the play from its authorship to its language rhetoric and performance Early commentaries focused on arguing about whether the play was truly Shakespeare's A selection of the most important of these are included here followed by later investigations looking at myriad topics and characters revenge violence race Aaron women tragedy and Tamora The large section of reviews of stage performances arranged chronologically ranges from 1857 to 1990 Two final pieces interestingly survey stage history of Titus in Japan and in Germany The Merchant of Venice William Baker, Brian Vickers, 2005-03-01 The Merchant of Venice has always been regarded as one of Shakespeare's most interesting plays Before the nineteenth century critical reaction is relatively fragmentary However between then and the late twentieth century the critical tradition reveals the tremendous vitality of the play to evoke emotion in the theatre and in the study Since the middle of the twentieth century reactions to the drama have been influenced by the Nazi destruction of European Jewry The first volume to document the full tradition of criticism of The Merchant of Venice includes an extensive introduction which charts the reactions to the play up to the beginning of the twenty first century and reflects changing reactions to prejudice in this period Material by a variety of critics appears here for the first time since initial publication Reactions are included from Malone Hazlitt Jameson Heine Knight Lewes Halliwell Phillips Furnivall Irving Ruskin Swinburne Masfield Gollancz and Quiller Couch Shakespearean Readings Carlo Maria Bajetta, Luisa Conti Camaiora, 2014-09-03 This volume contains a series of papers we delivered at the annual Shakespeare conference held at the

Universit Cattolica of Milan over three years During this period our research interests ran on more or less parallel lines moving from Shakespeare s sonnets to the Bard s influence on Keats and Shelley If this was probably due to a similar way of interpreting the conference titles it was just a coincidence that both of us devoted particular attention to King Lear This play we discovered was particularly relevant to the work we were autonomously carrying out Luisa Camaiora being then engaged in writing her book on Keats s Odes and Carlo Bajetta editing Shelley s Peter Bell As a consequence we started mentioning articles discussed recent research and there was much swapping of books which created more than a little confusion in our bookshelves and much irritation in some University librarians When we looked back at these essays we were surprised to note that a fil rouge seemed to run through them From the ambiguities of one of Shakespeare s most famous sonnets number 116 they move on to describe the allusive structure of the sonnet chorus of Romeo and Juliet hence to the complexities of the initial scene of King Lear and the uses to which this play was put by Keats and Shelley they eventually come back to Keats s relationship with the works of the Bard and finally to yet another sonnet which constitutes in many ways an original re reading of Shakespeare Shakespearean Readings alluding to both textual variants critical analysis and a writer s understanding of a literary work seems to be a fitting title to describe this red thread Passage and Traffic in Romeo and Juliet and Textual Madness King Lear s peregrinations were first published in To go or not to go Catching the moving Shakespeare ed L Camaiora Milan I S U Universit Cattolica 2004 John Keats and his Presider Shakespeare and Shakespeare s Sonnet 12 and Keats s When I have fears appeared in a different form in L Analisi Linguistica e Letteraria 7 1 1999 while Shelley s Shakespearean Mockery of Wordsworth which was read at the Shakespeare Days conference in April 2003 both relies on and integrates some sections of the introduction to Peter Bell the 1819 Texts which appeared in December of the same year Mursia Milan Milan June 2004 Luisa Conti Camaiora Carlo M Bajetta Dalla Prfazione degli Autori Shakespeare's Double Helix Henry S. Turner, 2007-12-20 What does it mean to make life This book focuses on one of the key questions for culture and science in both Shakespeare s time and our own Shakespeare wrote A Midsummer Night s Dream during a period when the new science had begun to unsettle the foundations of knowledge about the natural world Through close analysis of the play and reflection on modern genetic engineering Turner examines developments in early modern culture as it sought to come to terms with the new forces of magic astrology alchemy and mechanics fields of knowledge that preoccupied the most adventurous intellects of Shakespeare s period and that promised limitless power over nature Shakespeare s writing sheds light on current developments in science ethics law and religion in contemporary culture This book reveals the richness and peculiarity of early scientific thought in Shakespeare s time and shows how the questions he poses remain fundamental as the nature of life has become one of the most pressing political ethical and philosophical problems for society today The Quarterly Review William Gifford, Sir John Taylor Coleridge, John Gibson Lockhart, Whitwell Elwin, William Macpherson, William Smith, Sir John Murray (IV), Rowland Edmund Prothero (Baron
