Philosophy And Ethics In Islam:

Philosophy and Ethics in Islam Sita Ram Sharma, 2001 Reason and Tradition in Islamic Ethics George F. Hourani, 2007-04-18 Preface Foreword Michael Marmura Conventions Titles and locations of the original articles Introduction 1 Islamic theology and Muslim philosophy 2 Ethics in classical Islam a conspectus 3 Ethical presuppositions of the Qur'an 4 Injuring oneself in the Qur'an in the light of Aristotle 5 Two theories of value in early Islam 6 Islamic and non Islamic origin of Mu'tazilite ethical rationalism 7 The rationalist ethics of Abd al Jabbar 8 Deliberation in Aristotle and Abd al Jabbar 9 Ash'ari 10 Juwayni's criticisms of Mu'tazilite ethics 11 Ghazali on the ethics of action 12 Reason and revolt in Ibn Hazm's ethical thought 13 The basis of authority of consensus in Sunni Islam 14 Ibn Sina's Essay on the secret of destiny 15 Averroes on good and evil 16 Combinations of reason and tradition in Islamic ethics Select bibliography Index Islam and Morality Oliver Leaman, 2019-09-05 Islam and Morality considers how Islam the Qur'an and other Islamic texts have approached the ethics of a variety of contemporary and historical issues Oliver Leaman provides a varied balanced and thought provoking account of how Islamic thinkers discussed medical ethics wealth poverty the environment and law He explores the work of a range of Islamic thinkers including Rumi Ibn al Arabi al Ghazali Mutaḥhari and Barlas while taking into consideration the different branches of Islam and Islamic theology and law The book also considers how Islam understands the concept of free will the relationship between good and evil and far less abstract topics like what we should eat and drink Aimed at upper level undergraduates postgraduates and researchers working in Islamic Studies and ethics this is one of the first books to provide a sustained reading of the importance of ethics within Islam Ethical Theories in Islam Maḡīd Fahrī, 1991-01-01 This work provides a typology of Islamic ethics without overlooking the chronological development Four types of ethical theory are isolated the scriptural the theological the philosophical and the religious This edition contains extra material from Ibn Sina's writings translated into English The book should interest Islamic scholars philosophers and historians of ethics Islam Ratana Simha, 2011 Islamic Philosophy and the Ethics of Belief Anthony Robert Booth, 2016-08-04 In this book the author argues that the Falasifa the Philosophers of the Islamic Golden Age are usefully interpreted through the prism of the contemporary western ethics of belief He contends that their position amounts to what he calls Moderate Evidentialism that only for the epistemic elite what one ought to believe is determined by one's evidence The author makes the case that the Falasifa's position is well argued ingeniously circumvents issues in the epistemology of testimony and is well worth taking seriously in the contemporary debate He reasons that this is especially the case since the position has salutary consequences for how to respond to the sceptic and for how we are to conceive of extremist belief Ethics in Islam Richard G. Hovannisian, 1985 Miskawayh's Tahdīb al-aḥlāq Ufuk Topkara, 2022-06-14 This book engages with the work of Miskawayh a formative Islamic Philosopher in the 11th century who is acknowledged as the founder of Islamic Moral Philosophy Miskawayh's The Refinement of Character Tahdīb al-Aḥlāq draws from both ancient Greek philosophical tradition and Islamic thought highlighting the concepts he integrated into what he argued to be the moral core of Islam This book pursues a comparative study by analyzing and outlining the inherent philosophical concerns of the Aristotelian concepts of Happiness Justice and Friendship which are then brought into conversation with Miskawayh's own conceptualizations of them While Tah b al A l q is deeply influenced by Aristotle's ethics Miskawayh employs not only a Platonizing interpretation of Aristotelian philosophy but also incorporates traditions of Islamic thought The study therefore concludes that Miskawayh is merely a transmitter of ancient Greek philosophy as shown by both his critical survey of the material available to him and his own critical contributions Essentially Miskawayh attempted to harmonize philosophical and religious concepts of knowledge demonstrating the interlinking of what are perceived as at times detrimentally incompatible positions Ufuk Topkara illustrates how Aristotle's Ethics are integrated modified and at times adjusted to the broader narrative of Islamic thought and how Miskawayh's discourse albeit philosophical in nature remains religious in its outlook Providing clear insight into Miskawayh's work this book is ideal for students and scholars of Islamic Philosophy and Muslim Theology

Traditional Islamic Ethics: The Concept of Virtue and its Implications for Contemporary Human Rights Irfaan Jaffer, 2021-09-07

Traditional Islamic Ethics The Concept of Virtue and its Implications for Human Rights concentrates on the subject of Islam and modernity and Islam and human rights a topic that has become popular and relevant with the rise of globalization and the interest in Islamic extremism and human rights This book distinguishes itself by operating within the framework of the traditional school of thought or Islamic Traditionalism In doing so it draws on Islam's 1400 year old spiritual and intellectual tradition and its understanding of ethics and virtue along with truth justice freedom and equality This book argues that Islam's pre modern approach is indispensable in creating an organic and integral human rights model for Muslims The first section argues that the current understanding and implementation of international human rights needs to be more flexible and inclusive if it truly aims to be universal in scope this is because The Universal Declaration and its offshoots are still underpinned by secular liberal principles and therefore are at odds with other cultural traditions To this end this section critically explores popular human rights histories and contemporary ethical theories that attempt to justify human rights The second section of this book provides a general overview on the subject of Islam and Human Rights After explaining some of the main problems this section examines various solutions offered by Muslim academics and scholars focusing on four different types of Muslim responses to modernity and human rights liberal progressive traditional and fundamentalist It concludes that there are spaces of convergence between modern liberal ethics and traditional Islamic virtue ethics while maintaining that there are also fundamental differences and that these differences should be welcomed by human rights theorists and advocates The book's intended audience is primarily post graduate students and professional academics in the fields of Human Rights Ethical Philosophy and Islamic Studies modern Islamic thought Sufism Islamic theology Islamic Philosophy and Traditionalism It will also appeal to anyone interested in the subject of Islam and modernity in general and Islam and human rights in particular Ethics in Islam Nuha Al-Shaar,2014-12-05 Offering a new reading of Islamic ethical and political thought in the B yid period 334 440 946 1048 this book focuses particularly on the philosopher Ab Hayy n al Tawh d who lived in Baghdad and what is now western Iran Ethics in Islam provides the first major treatment of al Tawh d s ethics political thought and social idealism investigating the complex influences that shaped this thought and especially his concept of friendship which is analysed in the unique context of B yid society Al Tawh d revives the value of friendship in politics He introduces it as the best way to reform social and political order and as a means to the good life to restrain passion and self interest to bring about cooperation and promote reason and for action in opposition to religious zeal Instead of seeing him as alienated from society supposedly rejecting traditional Muslim beliefs this book places him in his historical and intellectual contexts and shows that while he was original in many ways his outlook was firmly rooted in the Islamic culture in which he was educated Contributing to modern discussions of Islam and political ethics this book is of interest to scholars and researchers of political philosophy comparative ethical thought and Islamic studies Gendered Morality Zahra M. S. Ayubi,2019-07-30 Islamic scriptural sources offer potentially radical notions of equality Yet medieval Islamic philosophers chose to establish a hierarchical male centered virtue ethics In Gendered Morality Zahra Ayubi rethinks the tradition of Islamic philosophical ethics from a feminist critical perspective She calls for a philosophical turn in the study of gender in Islam based on resources for gender equality that are unlocked by feminist engagement with the Islamic ethical tradition Developing a lens for a feminist philosophy of Islam Ayubi analyzes constructions of masculinity femininity and gender relations in classic works of philosophical ethics In close readings of foundational texts by Abu Hamid Muhammad al Ghazali Nasir ad Din Tusi and Jalal ad Din Davani she interrogates how these thinkers conceive of the ethical human being as an elite male within a hierarchical cosmology built on the exclusion of women and nonelites Yet in the course of prescribing ethical behavior the ethicists speak of complex gendered and human relations that contradict their hierarchies Their metaphysical premises about the nature of the divine humanity and moral responsibility indicate a potential egalitarian core Gendered Morality offers a vital and disruptive new perspective on patriarchal Islamic ethics and metaphysics showing the ways in which the philosophical tradition can support the aims of gender justice and human flourishing Traditional Islamic Ethics Irfaan Jaffer,2021-05-17 Traditional Islamic Ethics The Concept of Virtue and its Implications for Human Rights concentrates on the subject of Islam and modernity and Islam and human rights a topic that has become popular and relevant with the rise of globalization and the interest in Islamic extremism and human rights This book distinguishes itself by operating within the framework of the traditional school of thought or Islamic Traditionalism In doing so it draws on Islam s 1400 year old spiritual and intellectual tradition and its understanding of ethics and virtue along with truth justice freedom and equality This book argues that Islam s pre modern approach is indispensable in creating an organic and integral human rights model for Muslims The first section argues that the current understanding and implementation of international human rights needs to be more flexible and inclusive if it truly aims to be universal in scope this is because The Universal Declaration and its offshoots are still underpinned by secular liberal principles and therefore are at odds with other cultural traditions To this end this section critically explores popular human rights histories and contemporary ethical theories that attempt to justify human rights The second section of this book provides a general overview on the subject of Islam and Human Rights After explaining some of the main problems this section examines various solutions offered by Muslim academics and scholars focusing on four different types of Muslim responses to modernity and human rights liberal progressive traditional and fundamentalist It concludes that there are spaces of convergence between modern liberal ethics and traditional Islamic virtue ethics while maintaining that there are also fundamental differences and that these differences should be welcomed by human rights theorists and advocates The book s intended audience is primarily post graduate students and professional academics in the fields of Human Rights Ethical Philosophy and Islamic Studies modern Islamic thought Sufism Islamic theology Islamic Philosophy and Traditionalism It will also appeal to anyone interested in the subject of Islam and modernity in general and Islam and human rights in particular

Islamic Ethics Mariam al-Attar, 2010-04-05 This book explores philosophical ethics in Arabo Islamic thought Examining the meaning origin and development of Divine Command Theory it underscores the philosophical bases of religious fundamentalism that hinder social development and hamper dialogue between different cultures and nations Challenging traditional stereotypes of Islam the book refutes contemporary claims that Islam is a defining case of ethical voluntarism and that the prominent theory in Islamic ethical thought is Divine Command Theory The author argues that in fact early Arab Islamic scholars articulated moral theories theories of value and theories of obligation She traces the development of Arabo Islamic ethics from the early Islamic theological and political debates between the Kharijites and the Murji ites shedding new light on the moral theory of Abd al Jabbar al Mu tazili and the effects of this moral theory on post Mu tazilite ethical thought Highlighting important aspects in the development of Islamic thought this book will appeal to students and scholars of Islamic moral thought and ethics Islamic law and religious fundamentalism

Al-Ghazālī and the Idea of Moral Beauty Sophia Vasalou, 2021-09-23 Al Ghaz l and the Idea of Moral Beauty rethinks the relationship between the good and the beautiful by considering the work of eleventh century Muslim theologian Ab mid al Ghaz l d 1111 A giant of Islamic intellectual history al Ghaz l is celebrated for his achievements in a wide range of disciplines One of his greatest intellectual contributions lies in the sphere of ethics where he presided over an ambitious attempt to integrate philosophical and scriptural ideas into a seamless ethical vision The connection between ethics and aesthetics turns out to be a signature feature of this account Virtue is one of the forms of beauty and human beings are naturally disposed to respond to it with love The universal human response to beauty in turn provides the central paradigm for thinking about the love commanded by God While al Ghaz l s account of divine love has received ample attention his special way of drawing the good into relation with the beautiful has oddly escaped remark In this book Sophia Vasalou addresses this gap by offering a philosophical and contextual study of this aspect of al Ghazal's ethics and of the conception of moral beauty that emerges from it This book will be of interest to scholars and students in Islamic ethics Islamic intellectual history and the history of ethics Pluralism in Islamic Contexts - Ethics, Politics and Modern Challenges Mohammed Hashas, 2021-03-12 This book brings together international scholars of Islamic philosophy theology and politics to examine these current major questions What is the place of pluralism in the Islamic founding texts How have sacred and prophetic texts been interpreted throughout major Islamic intellectual history by the Sunnis and Shi'a How does contemporary Islamic thought treat religious and political diversity in modern nation states and in societies in transition How is pluralism dealt with in modern major and minor Islamic contexts How does modern political Islam deal with pluralism in the public sphere And what are the major internal and external challenges to pluralism in Islamic contexts These questions that have become of paramount relevance in religious studies especially during the last three four decades are answered as critically highlighted in Islamic founding sources the formative classical sources and how it has been lived and practiced in past and present Islamic majority societies and communities around the world Case studies cover Egypt Turkey Indonesia and Thailand besides various internal references to other contexts The Ethical Philosophy of Al-Ghazzali M. Umaruddin, 1962 Islamic Philosophy Oliver Leaman, 2013-05-03 Although Islamic philosophy represents one of the leading philosophical traditions in the world it has only recently begun to receive the attention it deserves in the non Islamic world This important text provides a concise and accessible introduction to the major movements thinkers and concepts within that tradition from the foundation of Islam to the present day Ever since the growth of Islam as a religious and political movement Muslim thinkers have sought to understand the theoretical aspects of their faith by using philosophical concepts Leaman outlines this history and demonstrates that although the development of Islamic philosophy is closely linked with Islam itself its form is not essentially connected to any particular religion and its leading ideas and arguments are of general philosophical significance The author illustrates the importance of Islamic thought within philosophy through the use of many modern examples He describes and contrasts the three main movements in Islamic philosophy Peripatetic Sufi and Illuminationist and examines the Persian as well as the Arabic traditions Wide coverage is given to key aspects of Islamic philosophy including epistemology ontology politics ethics and philosophy of language providing readers with a balanced view of the discipline The second edition has been thoroughly revised and updated throughout including the addition of two new chapters on recent debates surrounding Islam's need for an enlightenment and on the future of Islamic philosophy The new edition of Islamic Philosophy will continue to be essential reading for students and scholars of the subject as well as anyone wanting to learn more about one of the most significant and influential philosophical traditions in the world today Islamic Theology and Extraterrestrial Life Jörg Matthias Determann, Shoaib Ahmed Malik, 2024-02-22 Over the last thirty years humanity has discovered thousands of planets outside of our solar system The discovery of extraterrestrial life could be imminent This book explains how such a discovery might impact Islamic theology It is the foundational reference on the subject comprising a variety of different insights from both Sunni and Shi i positions from different Muslim contexts and with chapters that compare and contrast Islamic perspectives with Christianity Together they address some of our biggest questions through an Islamic lens What makes humans unique in the cosmos What are the ethics of dealing with other sentient beings And how universal is salvation Given the accelerating advances in exoplanet research and astrobiology the book is at the frontier of science and Islamic thought Contributors include a range of leading experts from Muslim theologians scholars of comparative religion and philosophers to historians social scientists and natural scientists

American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences Paul Shore, Hossein Nazari, Farhan Mujahid Chak, Tauseef Ahmad Parray, Aaron W. Hughes, Keilani Abdullah, Christopher Anzalone, Imranali Panjwani, Mehnaz M. Afridi, Enes Karic, Ashraf Adeel, Brian Wright, Aysenur Sonmez Kara, 2017-01-01 The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences AJISS established in 1984 is a quarterly double blind peer reviewed and interdisciplinary journal published by the International Institute of Islamic Thought IIIT and distributed worldwide The journal showcases a wide variety of scholarly research on all facets of Islam and the Muslim world including subjects such as anthropology history philosophy and metaphysics politics psychology religious law and traditional Islam

Classic Issues in Islamic Philosophy and Theology Today Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, Nazif Muhtaroglu, 2009-11-25 With some exceptions there is not a real interest in Islamic philosophy and theology in Western institutions today This largely ignored area has the potential to present enlightening insights into the development of the Western thought and to contribute to contemporary discussions in philosophy and theology in general Scholars working in Islamic thought usually focus on its medieval background and consider it to be mainly of a historical interest and far away from the intellectual world of today Showing its contemporary relevance is an important task by which the status of Islamic philosophy can be elevated to its proper station By considering these points in mind the University of Kentucky organized an international graduate student conference on Islamic philosophy and theology with an emphasis on its contemporary relevance which was held between the 28th and 30th September 2007 This book emerged out of the conference by adding more chapters relevant to the main theme of the book This book presents analyses and discussions of different topics in Islamic philosophy and theology by relating them to contemporary debates and ideas in four main areas epistemology metaphysics philosophy of religion and value theory There are ten chapters in sum Some of the chapters are written by graduate students and some of them by experienced scholars Each chapter presents considerable insight into its relevant topic but does not represent the opinion of anybody except the author
