Philosophy Of Art Education:

The History and Philosophy of Art Education Stuart Macdonald, 2004 Investigating the study of art and design education in Italy France Britain Germany and the United States this text traces the philosophies of teachers from the age of the guilds and the academies setting them in the context of the general education theories of their times Philosophy of Art Education Edmund Burke Feldman, 1996 The primary aim of the book is to raise the questions and issues which should be of importance to art teachers by relating the practices and concerns of art teaching to some of the main problems of philosophy It integrates both subjects of art education and art teaching presents many of the principle issues regarding art education that are of concern to art teachers and provides future and current teachers of art with a means of reflecting on the reasons and goals for teaching art Art Education, Its Philosophy and Psychology Thomas Munro, 1956 Considering Deweyan Cultural Naturalism as a Philosophy of Art(s) Education Lauri Väkevä, 2023-08-21 This book makes a case for cultural naturalism as a basis for a philosophy of art education It argues for a holistic approach that avoids hard boundaries between artistic disciplines in the educational context applying cultural naturalism to challenges that are topical for the whole art s education field including challenges related to ecology social justice and technological transformation of culture The book is written in the form of a conditional argument that considers the consequences of cultural naturalism for today s philosophical problem solving in art s education It contains a systematic and historical analysis of cultural naturalism that support the philosophical reflection of educators and other scholars operative in this field The result is a late modern reading of Deweyan cultural naturalism that highlights the continuance of key philosophical ideas from the modern to present discourses The key topics discussed are of particular interest to present day art s educators ecological sustainability social justice and technological transformation of culture In addition this book provides an example of pragmatist argumentation suggesting an alternative to analytical and post philosophical approaches What Is Art Education? Jan Jagodzinski, 2016-12-27 This edited book gathers seven established art educators educator artists who address art education from the philosophical position of Deleuze and Guattari This book raises questions as to where the future of art and its education might be heading if the focus on art was to be repositioned along Deleuze and Guattari s philosophy of immanence The chapters are speculative as they query what is thinking in the art process There is an attempt to project other forms of what art can do and the curriculum that can emerge when a student centered problematic is explored along such lines Art, Artists and Pedagogy Christopher Naughton, Gert Biesta, David R. Cole, 2017-10-16 This volume has been brought together to generate new ideas and provoke discussion about what constitutes arts education in the twenty first century both within the institution and beyond Art Artists and Pedagogy is intended for educators who teach the arts from early childhood to tertiary level artists working in the community or those studying arts in education from undergraduate to Masters or PhD level From the outset this book is not only about arts in practice but also about what distinguishes the arts in education Exploring two different philosophies of education the book asks what the purpose of the arts is in education in the twenty first century With specific reference to the work of Gert Biesta questions are asked as to the relation of the arts to the world and what kind of society we may wish to envisage The second philosophical set of ideas comes from Deleuze and Guattari looking in more depth at how we configure art the artist and the role played by the state and global capital in deciding on what art education has become This book provides educators with new ways to engage with arts focusing specifically on art music dance drama and film studies At a time when many teachers are looking for a means to re assert the role of the arts in education this text provides many answers with reference to case studies and in depth arguments from some of the world s leading academics in the arts philosophy and education

A Philosophy of Art Education Gerda H. Williams,1951      Philosophical Questions in Art Education Dorit Barchana-Lorand,2025-08-21 This book examines the rationale of incorporating the arts in the school curriculum from a philosophical rather than pedagogical perspective Educational resources are frequently under scrutiny and education policy makers wish to maximize the use of public funds and children s time at school leaving the arts as a lower priority To understand the logic behind this Lorand revisits milestones in the history of the philosophy of art to address core questions in art education namely what are the challenges of teaching the arts And why teach the arts at all Lorand draws on the work of a broad range of philosophers including Dewey Eisner Greene Hume Plato Kant Langer Read and Schiller The book aims to show how attempts to justify art as a tool for societal and individual improvement fail in advocating art education Ultimately she claims that the arts should be taught because children have the right to receive art education That right stems from the unique nature of art

A Philosophy of the Art School Michael Newall,2018-10-31 Winner of the American Society for Aesthetics 2019 Outstanding Monograph Prize Until now research on art schools has been largely occupied with the facts of particular schools and teachers This book presents a philosophical account of the underlying practices and ideas that have come to shape contemporary art school teaching in the UK US and Europe It analyses two models that hidden beneath the diversity of contemporary artist training have come to dominate art schools The first of these is essentially an old approach a training guided by the artistic values of a single artist teacher The second dates from the 1960s and is based around the group crit in which diverse voices contribute to an artist s development Understanding the underlying principles and possibilities of these two models which sit together in an uneasy tension gives new insights into the character of contemporary art school teaching demonstrating how art schools shape art and artists how they can be a potent engine of creativity in contemporary culture and how they contribute to artistic research A Philosophy of the Art School draws on first hand accounts of art school teaching and is deeply informed by disciplines ranging from art history and art theory to the philosophy of art education and creativity

The Old and New Philosophy of Art Education in the Senior High School Anna J. Hawman,1944      Studies in Philosophical Realism in Art, Design and Education Neil C. M.

Brown,2016-09-13 This book fills a gap in the literature of 21st century international visual arts education by providing a structured approach to understanding the benefits of Philosophical Realism in art education an approach that has received little international attention until now The framework as presented provides a powerful interface between research and practical reconceptualisations of critical issues and practice in the domains of art design and education that involve implications for curriculum in visual arts teaching and learning cognitive development and creativity The book extends understanding of Philosophical Realism in its practical application to teaching practice in visual arts in the way it relates to the fields of art design and education Researchers teacher educators and specialist art teachers are informed about how Philosophical Realism provides insights into art design and education These insights vary from clearer knowledge about art to the examination of beliefs and assumptions about the art object Readers learn how cognitive reflection and social and practical reasoning in the classroom help cultivate students artistic performances and understand how constraints function in students reasoning at different ages stages of education

Art's Teachings, Teaching's Art Tyson Lewis, Megan Laverty, 2015-08-28 This volume examines the interface between the teachings of art and the art of teaching and asserts the centrality of aesthetics for rethinking education Many of the essays in this collection claim a direct connection between critical thinking democratic dissensus and anti racist pedagogy with aesthetic experiences They argue that aesthetics should be reconceptualized less as mere art appreciation or the cultivation of aesthetic judgment of taste and more with the affective disruptions phenomenological experiences and the democratic politics of learning thinking and teaching The first set of essays in the volume examines the unique pedagogies of the various arts including literature poetry film and music The second set addresses questions concerning the art of pedagogy and the relationship between aesthetic experience and teaching and learning Demonstrating the flexibility and diversity of aesthetic expressions and experiences in education the book deals with issues such as the connections between racism and affect curatorship and teaching aesthetic experience and the common and studying and poetics The book explores these topics through a variety of theoretical and philosophical lenses including contemporary post structuralism psychoanalysis phenomenology critical theory and pragmatism
