Philosophy of Modern Music Theodor W. Adorno, 2003-01-01 A landmark work from the founder of the Frankfurt School A key work in the study of Adorno of interest to students and general readers alike Composing for the Films Theodor W. Adorno, Hanns Eisler, 2005-01-01 This classic account of the nature of film music aesthetics was first published in 1947 Its value comes from a unique combination of talents and experience enjoyed by the book s authors Eisler s time at Hollywood gave him a particular insight on the technical questions which arise for composers when music is used in the production of films while Adorno was able to contribute on wide aesthetic and sociological matters as well as specifically musical questions Above all the authors envisaged the book as a contribution to the study of modern industrialized culture and in this respect it has a particular importance to the whole area of cultural studies With an introduction by Graham McCann Bibliographic Guide to Music New York Public Library. Music Division, 2004 Discourse , 2011 American Book Publishing Record , 2004 British Books in Print , 1971 Bibliography of Philosophy International Institute of Philosophy, 2003

Subject Guide to Books in Print , 1997 Philosophy of New Music Theodor W. Adorno, 2020-06-02 An indispensable key to Adorno s influential oeuvre now in paperback In 1949 Theodor W Adorno s Philosophy of New Music was published coinciding with the prominent philosopher s return to a devastated Europe after his exile in the United States Intensely polemical from its first publication every aspect of this work was met with extreme reactions from stark dismissal to outrage Even Arnold Schoenberg reviled it Despite the controversy Philosophy of New Music became highly regarded and widely read among musicians scholars and social philosophers Marking a major turning point in his musicological philosophy Adorno located a critique of musical reproduction as internal to composition rather than a matter of musical performance Consisting of two distinct essays Schoenberg and Progress and Stravinsky and Reaction Philosophy of New Music poses the musical extremes in which Adorno perceived the struggle for the cultural future of Europe between human emancipation and barbarism between the compositional techniques and achievements of Schoenberg and Stravinsky In this translation which is accompanied by an extensive introduction by distinguished translator Robert Hullot Kentor Philosophy of New Music emerges as an essential guide to the whole of Adorno s oeuvre Bibliografisch Repertorium Van de Wijsbegeerte , 2003 Books in Series , 1979 Whitaker's Books in Print , 1998 Subject Guide to Children's Books in Print 1997 Bowker Editorial Staff, R R Bowker Publishing, 1996-09 Music, Philosophy, and Modernity Andrew Bowie, 2007-09-13 Modern philosophers generally assume that music is a problem to which philosophy ought to offer an answer Andrew Bowie s Music Philosophy and Modernity suggests in contrast that music might offer ways of responding to some central questions in modern philosophy Bowie looks at key philosophical approaches to music ranging from Kant through the German Romantics and Wagner to Wittgenstein Heidegger and Adorno He uses music to re examine many ideas about language subjectivity metaphysics truth and ethics and he suggests that music can show how the predominant images of language communication and meaning in contemporary philosophy may be lacking in essential ways His book will be of interest to philosophers musicologists and all who are interested in the relation between music and philosophy The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1994 Music in Contemporary Philosophy Martin Scherzinger,2016-01-08 This book examines the functional place of music in contemporary European philosophy of the 20th and 21st centuries The chapters explore the musical dimensions of lesser known figures as well as well known philosophical figures in relation to their lesser known musical dimensions Edmund Husserl Martin Heidegger Jean Fran ois Lyotard Jacques Ranci re and Alain Badiou for example are central figures in debates concerning phenomenology postmodernism and political philosophy Their musical writings however have been largely overlooked Of those discussed here whose musical writings have gained some currency Ernst Bloch Theodor W Adorno Jean Luc Nancy Edward Said and Slavoj i ek music mostly constitutes but a partial aspect of their overall philosophical output These chapters attempt to supplement the gap raising more prominently than hitherto the question concerning music in this philosophical milieu The collection represents some of the distinctive recent work of an emerging generation of American based music scholars tackling the relationship between philosophy and music in a qualitatively new way While this intellectual output cannot be easily summarized one detects certain features If what was once called New Musicology in the 1990s can be characterized by a turn to literary theory and philosophy treated as sources of mostly nonjudgmental inspiration we find here instead a new body of work that turns the tables on the relation between music and philosophy Instead of bringing philosophy to musicology this work critically analyzes how music inhabits philosophy itself and then assesses the ethical and political dimensions of these philosophical positions and their relation to lived history This book was originally published as a special issue of Contemporary Music Review Adorno's Philosophy of Modern Music [microform] Christopher J. (Christopher John) Dennis,1992 Rhythmanalysis Henri Lefebvre,2004-04-23 In the analysis of rhythms Lefebvre shows the interrelation of space and time in the understanding of everyday life He discusses music the commodity measurement the media and the city to show how a non linear conception of time and history balanced his theory of the question of space Boulez, Music and Philosophy Edward Campbell,2010-08-19 In this book Campbell explores the relationships of music philosophy and intellectual culture in the work of Pierre Boulez Contemporary Music Mr Max Paddison,Ms Irène Deliège,2013-01-28 This collection of essays and interviews addresses important theoretical philosophical and creative issues in Western art music at the end of the twentieth and the beginning of the twenty first centuries Edited by Max Paddison and Irène Deliège the book offers a wide range of international perspectives from prominent musicologists philosophers and composers including C lestin Deliège Pascal Decroupet Richard Toop Rudolf Frisius Alastair Williams Herman Sabbe Fran ois Nicolas Marc Jimenez Anne Boissi re Max Paddison Hugues Dufourt Jonathan Harvey and new interviews with Pierre Boulez Brian Ferneyhough Helmut Lachenmann and Wolfgang Rihm Part I is mainly theoretical in emphasis Issues addressed include the historical rationalization of music and technology new approaches to the theorization of atonal harmony in the wake of Spectralism debates on the new complexity the heterogeneity pluralism and stylistic omnivorousness that characterizes music in our time and the characterization of twentieth century and contemporary music as a search for lost harmony The orientation of Part II is mainly philosophical examining concepts of totality and inclusivity in new music raising questions as to what might be expected from an autonomous contemporary musical logic and considering the problem of the survival of the avant garde in the context of postmodernist relativism As well as analytic philosophy and cognitive psychology critical theory features prominently with theories of social mediation in music new perspectives on the concept of musical material in Adorno's late aesthetic theory and a call for an aesthetics of risk in contemporary art as a means to reassert the essential role of criticism of judgment and of evaluation as necessary conditions to bring about a real public debate on the art of today Part III offers creative perspectives with new essays and interviews from important contemporary composers who have made highly significant interventions in the debates around music today both through their compositions and through their writings on music The contributions from Pierre Boulez Brian Ferneyhough Helmut Lachenmann Wolfgang Rihm and Jonathan Harvey and also the opening essay of the volume by the French spectralist composer and philosopher Hugues Dufourt address issues of chance control freedom intuition ambiguity technology time and meaning in contemporary music A concluding essay by Alastair Williams on advanced contemporary music and the Austro German tradition post 1968 provides a postlude to the book while the whole collection is prefaced by an extended introductory chapter by Max Paddison which provides a context of ideas and traces many of the issues discussed back to Adorno's seminal notion of une musique informelle
