Going Against the Flow Alan M. Laibelman,2004 Most contemporary efforts in philosophy treat metaphysics and ethics as isolated arenas of thought Critical analytical exploration of a multitude of ethical theories emanating from historically diverse philosophical and theological traditions demonstrates that a consistent and comprehensive ethic depends upon a solid metaphysical foundation Building upon a metaphysical scheme first explicated in The Other Perennial Philosophy A Metaphysical Dialectic Alan M Laibelman elaborates on a syncretistic ethical system incorporating elements from many cross cultural sources and also develops an extensive theory of consciousness inclusive of both transcendental and existential components

Knowing without Thinking Z. Radman, 2012-02-14 A volume devoted explicitly to the subtle and multidimensional phenomenon of background knowing that has to be recognized as an important element of the triad mind-body-world The essays are inspired by seminal works on the topic by Searle and Dreyfus but also make significant contribution in bringing the discussion beyond the classical confines

Ethics without Self, Dharma without Atman Gordon F. Davis, 2018-07-18 This volume of essays offers direct comparisons of historic Western and Buddhist perspectives on ethics and metaphysics tracing parallels and contrasts all the way from Plato to the Stoics Spinoza to Hume and Schopenhauer through to contemporary ethicists such as Arne Naess Charles Taylor and Derek Parfit It compares and contrasts each Western philosopher with a particular strand in the Buddhist tradition in some chapters represented by individual writers such as Nagarjuna Vasubandhu Santideva or Tsong Khapa It does so in light of both analytic concerns and themes from the existentialist and phenomenological traditions and often in an ecumenical spirit that bridges both analytic and continentalist approaches Some of the deepest questions in ethics dealing with the scope of agency value-laden notions of personhood and the nature of value in general are intertwined with questions in metaphysics One set of questions addresses how varying conceptions of selfhood relate to moral values e.g. the concern of self or selves for the well-being of others another set of questions addresses how a conception of oneself or one's selves should or should not affect how one thinks of happiness or eudaimonia or in classical Indian terms artha sukha or nirvana Western philosophy has featured discussion of both but some would argue that certain traditions of Asian philosophy have offered a more sustained and even treatment of both sets of questions The Buddhist tradition in particular has not only featured much discussion on both fronts but has attracted many contemporary philosophers to its distinctive spectrum of approaches and to what is from many Western points of view a

Lhamon, 2002 Ingenious Lhamon's brief analysis of mid fifties rock n roll is one of the best in print New England Quarterly The oxymoron deliberate speed is a fitting title for this superb book about America in transition P I Rose Choice Ignorance and Moral Responsibility Michael J. Zimmerman, 2022 Michael J Zimmerman investigates the relation between ignorance and moral responsibility He examines and refines the Argument from Ignorance which concludes that to be blameworthy for one's behaviour and its consequences one must at some time in the history of that behaviour have known that one was engaged in wrongdoing Risen Sons John F. Desmond, 1987 Though stressing that Flannery O'Connor was first and foremost a writer of fiction John Desmond maintains in Risen Sons that her orthodox Catholic theology stands at the center of her vision providing the metaphysical base from which the fiction evolved Given this religious context Desmond contends that O'Connor's stated view of fiction writing as an incarnational act suggests a direct connection between the practice of fiction writing and the Incarnation of Christ the pivotal historic event which her fiction seeks to imitate and through which her vision is revealed O'Connor's attempts to create images that would connect the Incarnation with fictional incarnation Mystery with mystery were not immediately realized in her early works It was only with Wise Blood that she came to recognize Christian historical vision as her particular fictional subject and the analogical method as the appropriate fictional strategy This discovery made possible the convergence of her metaphysics historical vision and artistic technique providing the thematic and structural basis for the quality of unique wholeness that distinguishes all her works Desmond suggests that O'Connor achieved the fullest development of her analogical vision and most complete identification of thought and technique in her novel The Violent Bear It Away Her dramatic rendering of the route Tarwater takes before he can comprehend the transcendent mysterious source of personality and the meaning of personhood in history parallels the actions of Christ embodying O'Connor's complex and dramatic vision of the mind's engagement with history in all its ultimate extensions of meaning Definitions and Definability: Philosophical Perspectives J.H.
