Philosophy of Existence Karl Jaspers, 1971 The Philosophy of Existentialism Jean-Paul Sartre, 1965 Essays
Bibliography p 423 431 Franz Rosenzweig's Philosophy of Existence E.R. Freund, 2013-04-17 The Star of Redemption which presents Franz Rosenzweig's system of philosophy begins with the sentence from death vom Tode from the fear of death originates all cognition of the All and concludes with the words into life This beginning and this conclusion of the book signify more than the first and last words of philosophical books usually do Taken together from death into life they comprise the entire meaning of Rosenzweig's philosophy The leitmotif of this philosophy is the life and death of the human being and not the I of philosophical idealism where man ultimately signifies for ethics no more than a point to which it ethics relates its problems as for science also he man is only a particular case of its general laws I Rosenzweig deals with the individual's actual existence that which is terminated by death he speaks of the individual's hic et nunc of his actions and decisions in the realm of concrete reality This philosophy is not an exposition of theoretical principles It is not concerned with man in general in abstract time but rather with the individual human being designated by a proper name living in his particular time Human existence in its finiteness and temporalness forms the focus in which Rosenzweig's motif can be gathered together

An Essay on the Philosophy of Existence Rama Chandra Sen, 2015-06-16 Excerpt from An Essay on the Philosophy of Existence This Philosophy of Existence is only the Philosophy of living Evolution and of living Involution based upon Monadology and upon Mononology It pretends to give the genesis of Unconditioned and of conditioned existence to show how every form of evolved existence is more or less imperfect and to infer how all perfect existence cannot be the final consummation of Evolution It ventures inferentially to apprehend as far as possible the mysterious nature and the infinite Attributes of the All Absolute and it attempts to explain what Man by nature is what by right Self effort he can become without any belief in Moral Responsibility in Sin or Death in Hell or Heaven and in what relation he stands to the All Absolute This Philosophy of Existence gives the law of Self development of Self Control of Self restraint of Self renunciation of Self prolongation and in this law it implicitly gives the law of all true Reform Individual or educational Domestic or moral Social or political Kosmic or religious That this Constructive Philosophy in so concise a form should be free from fault is very far from probable But it is given out as it is with a view to invite fair Reflective Criticism and to elicit higher Super Reflective thought About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Existence, Existenz, and Transcendence Oswald O. Principle Q.B. Gibson,1998-07-31 When we ask whether something exists we expect a yes or no answer not a further query about what kind of existence how much of it whether we mean existence for you or existence for me or whether we are asking about some property which it might have In this book this simple requirement is defended and pursued into its various and sometimes surprising implications In the course of this pursuit such questions arise as Do appearances exist Do unknowable things exist Do past and future exist Does God necessarily exist This novel and non technical approach to important philosophical questions will be of interest to senior students of philosophy and indeed to all general readers with philosophical interests Franz Rosenzweig's Philosophy of Existence P.
