Beyond Memory Diane Neumaier, 2004 Photography possesses a powerful ability to bear witness aid remembrance shape and even alter recollection In Beyond Memory Soviet Nonconformist Photography and Photo Related Works of Art the general editor Diane Neumaier and twenty three contributors offer a rigorous examination of the medium's role in late Soviet unofficial art Focusing on the period between the mid 1950s and the late 1980s they explore artists unusually inventive and resourceful uses of photography within a highly developed Soviet dissident culture During this time lack of high quality photographic materials complimented by tremendous creative impulses prompted artists to explore experimental photo processes such as camera and darkroom manipulations photomontage and hand coloring Photography also took on a provocative array of forms including photo installation artist made samizdat self published books photo realist painting and many other surprising applications of the flexible medium Beyond Memory shows how innovative conceptual moves and approaches to form and content echoes of Soviet society's coded communication and a Russian sense of absurdity were common in the Soviet cultural underground

Collectively the works in this anthology demonstrate how late Soviet artists employed irony and invention to make positive use of difficult circumstances In the process the volume illuminates the multiple characters of photography itself and highlights the leading role that the medium has come to play in the international art world today Beyond Memory stands on its own as a rigorous examination of photography s place in late Soviet unofficial art while also serving as a supplement to the traveling exhibition of the same title

Space, Image, and Reform in Early Modern Art Arthur J. DiFuria,Ian Verstegen,2021-11-08 The essays in Space Image and Reform in Early Modern Art build on Marcia Hall s seminal contributions in several categories crucial for Renaissance studies especially the spatiality of the church interior the altarpiece's facture and affectivity the notion of artistic style and the controversy over images in the era of Counter Reform

Accruing the advantage of critical engagement with a single paradigm this volume better assesses its applicability and range

The book works cumulatively to provide blocks of theoretical and empirical research on issues spanning the function and role of images in their contexts over two centuries

Relating Hall's investigations of Renaissance art to new fields

Space Image and Reform expands the ideas at the center of her work further back in time further afield and deeper into familiar topics thus achieving a cohesion not usually seen in edited volumes honoring a single scholar

The archive is often viewed as a collection of historical documents that records and orders information about people places and events

This view nevertheless obscures a crucial point the archive whilst subject to the vagaries of time and history can also determine the future

This point has gained urgency in modern day North Africa and the Middle East where the archive has come to the fore as a site of social historical theoretical and political contestation Dissonant Archives is the first book to consider the ways in which contemporary artists from the Middle East and North Africa including Emily Jacir Walid Raad Jananne Al Ani Basel Abbas and Ruanne Abou Rahme Mariam Ghani Zineb Sedira and Akram Zaatari are utilizing and disrupting the function of the archive and in so doing highlighting a systemic perhaps irrevocable crisis in institutional and state ordained archiving across the region In exploring and producing archives be they alternative interrogative or fictional these artists are not simply questioning the authenticity authority or authorship of the archive rather they are unlocking its regenerative radical potential The result provides essential insights into the nexus between art and politics in the contemporary Middle East
