Warring Visions Thy Phu, 2021-10-18 In Warring Visions Thy Phu explores photography from dispersed communities throughout Vietnam and the Vietnamese diaspora both during and after the Vietnam War to complicate narratives of conflict and memory. While the visual history of the Vietnam War has been dominated by American documentaries and war photography, Phu turns to photographs circulated by the Vietnamese themselves, capturing a range of subjects, occasions, and perspectives. Phu's concept of warring visions refers to contrasts in the use of war photos in North Vietnam, which highlighted national liberation and aligned themselves with an international audience, and those in South Vietnam, which focused on family and everyday survival. Phu also uses warring visions to enlarge the category of war photography, a genre that usually consists of images illustrating the immediacy of combat and the spectacle of violence, pain, and wounded bodies. She pushes this genre beyond such definitions by analyzing pictures of family life, weddings, and other quotidian scenes of life during the war. Phu thus expands our understanding of how war is waged, experienced, and resolved.

History of the Pulitzer Prizes in Journalism

1917-2000 Heinz-Dietrich Fischer, 2022-01-03 This volume describes the fascinating and sometimes amazing story of the prestigious Pulitzer Prizes in all journalistic award categories. On the basis of the confidential and unpublished jury reports, it was made possible to reconstruct the decision-making discussions within the committees to confirm or prevent prize winners by majority voting. The book also makes clear that Pulitzer awards during more than eight decades went to a broad spectrum of American newspapers. Heinz Dietrich Fischer, EdD, PhD, is Professor Emeritus at the Ruhr University of Bochum, Germany.

Picture Coverage of the World Heinz Dietrich Fischer, 2011 The Pulitzer Prizes for Press Photography are latecomers within the prestigious award system. Established in 1942 during World War II, they started with a general category called Photography covering all kinds of photographs. After about a quarter century, in 1968, this award category was divided into two separate prize groups entitled Spot News Photography and Feature Photography. This book presents the decision-making processes that lead to the annual Pulitzer Prize winners. Additionally, in each decision-making case, one award-winning photo is reproduced to give an idea about the broad spectrum of aspects and themes declared prize-worthy by the jurors. Series
