The Photographic News William Crookes, 2023-03-02 Reprint of the original first published in 1859 The publishing house Anatiposi publishes historical books as reprints Due to their age these books may have missing pages or inferior quality Our aim is to preserve these books and make them available to the public so that they do not get lost

The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art, 1863 Reformation and the Visual Arts Sergiusz Michalski, 2013-01-11 Covering a vast geographical and chronological span and bringing new and exciting material to light The Reformation and the Visual Arts provides a unique overview of religious images and iconoclasm starting with the consequences of the Byzantine image controversy and ending with the Eastern Orthodox churches of the nineteenth century. The author argues that the image question played a large role in the divisions within European Protestantism and was intricately connected with the Eucharist controversy. He analyses the positions of the major Protestant reformers Luther, Zwingli, Calvin, and Karlstadt on the legitimacy of religious paintings and investigates iconoclasm both as a form of religious and political protest and as a complex set of mock revolutionary rites and denigration rituals. The book also contains new research on relations between Protestant iconoclasm and the extreme icon worship of the Eastern Orthodox churches and provides a brief discussion of Eastern protestantizing sects especially in Russia.
