Walters, 2005 A crash course in locating information about the Lone Star State Each chapter begins with an engaging little known even quirky story and then shows the reader how to follow the printed and electronic trail to uncover more detail Taming the Land: the Lost Postcard Photographs of the Texas High Plains John Miller Morris, 2009 A postcard craze gripped the nation from 1905 to 1920 as the rise of outdoor photography coincided with a wave of settlement and prosperity in Texas Hundreds of people took up cameras and photographers of note chose some of their best work for duplication as photo postcards sold for a nickel and mailed for a penny to distant friends and relatives These postcards which now enjoy another kind of craze in the collecting world left what author John Miller

Morris calls a significant visual legacy of the history and social geography of Texas For more than a decade Morris has been finding and studying the photographers and methodically gathering their postcards In Taming the Land he shares those finds with readers introducing each photographer and providing interpretive descriptions of the places people or events depicted in the photographs The stories the cards tell in the images captured and the messages carried add an exceptional dimension to our understanding of life in rural Texas a century ago Taming the Land presents postcards from twenty four counties in the booming Texas Panhandle This is the first book in a set called Plains of Light which will collect and document turn of the twentieth century photo postcards from all over West Texas

Pioneer Photographers from the Mississippi to the Continental Divide Peter E. Palmquist, Thomas R. Kailbourn, 2005 This biographical dictionary of some 3 000 photographers and workers in related trades active in a vast area of North America before 1866 is based on extensive research and enhanced by some 240 illustrations most of which are published here for the first time The territory covered extends from central Canada through Mexico and includes the United States from the Mississippi River west to but not including the Rocky Mountain states Together this volume and its predecessor Pioneer Photographers of the Far West A Biographical Dictionary 1840 1865 comprise an exhaustive survey of early photographers in North America and Central America excluding the eastern United States and eastern Canada This work is distinguished by the large number of entries by the appealing narratives that cover both professional and private lives of the subjects and by the painstaking documentation It will be an essential reference work for historians libraries and museums as well as for collectors of and dealers in early American photography In addition to photographers the book includes photographic printers retouchers and colorists and manufacturers and sellers of photographic apparatus and stock Because creators of moving panoramas and optical amusements such as dioramas and magic lantern performances often fashioned their works after photographs the people behind those exhibitions are also discussed

Encyclopedia of Archival Writers, 1515 - 2015 Luciana Duranti, Patricia C. Franks, 2019-04-26 The Encyclopedia of Archival Writers 1515 2015 is a reference work that includes the profiles of authors of literature about records and archives in the Western world who have shaped the records and archives field over a span of 500 years The 144 archival writers from 13 countries who are included in this volume were selected by an international advisory board on the basis of their impact on the records and archives profession and discipline the presence of their publications in educational programs reading lists and the frequency of reference to their work Among the writers included in this volume are Albertino Barisoni of Padua 1587 1667 Sir Hilary Jenkinson of England 1882 1961 Adolf Brenneke of Germany 1875 1946 Theodore R Schellenberg of the United States 1903 1970 Robert Henri Bautier of France 1922 2010 Terry Cook of Canada 1947 2014 Vicenta Cort s Alonso of Spain 1925 Eric Ketelaar of the Netherlands 1944 Aurelio Tanodi of Argentina 1914 2011 Ian Maclean of Australia 1919 2003 and Verne Harris of South Africa 1958

Arranged in alphabetical order each entry includes a biography intellectual contributions and a brief essential bibliography A total of 113 educators professionals and students in the records and archives field 55 of whom are also profiled in this Encyclopedia contributed to this volume There is no other book in any language that focuses on the life and work of authors of records and archives literature In fact there is not easily available information on such writers Thus most entries involved quite a bit of research on dead writers and interviews with the living ones Several living writers supported this work by accepting to author their own entry The Courthouse Square in Texas Robert E. Veselka, 2010-07-05 With its dignified courthouse set among shade trees and lawns dotted with monuments to prominent citizens and fallen veterans the courthouse square remains the civic center in a majority of the county seats of Texas Yet the squares themselves vary in form and layout reflecting the different town planning traditions that settlers brought from Europe Mexico and the United States In fact one way to trace settlement patterns and ethnic dispersion in Texas is by mapping the different types of courthouse squares This book offers the first complete inventory of Texas courthouse squares drawn from extensive archival research and site visits to 139 of the 254 county seats Robert Veselka classifies every existing plan by type and origin including patterns and variants not previously identified He also explores the social and symbolic functions of these plans as he discusses the historical and modern uses of the squares He draws interesting new conclusions about why the courthouse square remains the hub of commercial and civic activity in the smaller county seats when it has lost its prominence in others
