Thurston,2021-12-30 Focusing on the body in every chapter this book examines the changing meanings and profound significance of the physical form among the Anglo Saxons from 1880 to 1920 They formed an imaginary but in many ways quite real community that ruled much of the world Among them racism became more virulent To probe the importance of the body this book brings together for the first time the many areas in which the physical form was newly or more extensively featured from photography through literature frontier wars violent sports and the global circus Sex sexuality concepts of gender including women s possibilities in all areas of life and the meanings of race and of civilization figured regularly in Anglo discussions Black people challenged racism by presenting their own photos of respectable folk As all this unfolded Anglo men and women faced the problem of maintaining civilized control vs the need to express uninhibited feeling With these issues in mind it is evident that the origins of today s debates about race and gender lie in the late nineteenth century

Photo-era ,1920 Race and Vision in the Nineteenth-Century United States Shirley Samuels,2019-11-08 Race and Vision in the Nineteenth Century United States is a collection of twelve essays by cultural critics that exposes how fraught relations of identity and race appear through imaging technologies in architecture scientific discourse sculpture photography painting music theater and finally the twenty first century visual commentary of Kara Walker Throughout these essays the racial practices of the nineteenth century are juxtaposed with literary practices involving some of the most prominent writers about race and identity such as Herman Melville and Harriet Beecher Stowe as well as the technologies of performance including theater and music Recent work in critical theories of vision technology and the production of ideas about racial discourse has emphasized the inextricability of photography with notions of race and American identity The collected essays provide a vivid sense of how imagery about race appears in the formative period of the nineteenth century United States

Encountering Choran Community Emily Hinnov,2009-07 Through a transnational perspective Emily M Hinnov s Encountering Choran Community Literary Modernism Visual Culture and Political Aesthetics in the Interwar Years identifies and describes modernist choran community as a previously understudied key counter narrative to Modernism s engagement with early twentieth century master narratives Hinnov uses the term choran community in order to emphasize the almost sacred nature of the experience represented in common by select modernist texts photographs and photo texts produced in the interwar period As Hinnov describes choran community comes about as a result of the choran moment or textual instant when characters and or readers re cognize their connection with a larger inherently unified whole Whether in a visual verbal or hybrid text the stasis of the choran moment contains the potent possibility of communal awareness or choran community in the future as well as the present The textual choran communities presented here consequently offset the sexist racist and classist solipsism of imperialist or fascist master narrative Emily N Hinnov is Assistant Professor of English at Bowling Green State University Firelands College The Unfinished Revolution Karen Salt,2019 In The Unfinished Revolution Salt examines post revolutionary and contemporary sovereignty in Haiti noting the many international responses to the arrival of a nation born from blood fire and revolution Using blackness as a lens Salt charts the impact of Haiti s sovereignty and its blackness in the Atlantic world Visualizing Blackness and the Creation of the African American Literary

Photographic Returns Shawn Michelle Smith, 2020-01-03 In Photographic Returns Shawn Michelle Smith traces how historical moments of racial crisis come to be known photographically and how the past continues to inhabit punctuate and transform the present through the photographic medium in contemporary art Smith engages photographs by Rashid Johnson Sally Mann Deborah Luster Lorna Simpson Jason Lazarus Carrie Mae Weems Taryn Simon and Dawoud Bey among others Each of these artists turns to the past whether by using nineteenth century techniques to produce images or by re-creating iconic historic photographs as a way to use history to negotiate the present and to call attention to the unfinished political project of racial justice in the United States By interrogating their use of photography to recall revise and amplify the relationship between racial politics of the past and present Smith locates a temporal recursivity that is intrinsic to photography in which images return to haunt the viewer and prompt reflection on the present and an imagination of a more just future

Deadpan Tina Post, 2023-01-10 Winner of the 2023 National Book Critics Circle Award for Criticism Winner of the 2023 ASAP Book Prize given by the Association for the Study of the Arts of the Present Explores expressionlessness inscrutability and emotional withholding in Black cultural production Arguing that inexpression is a gesture that acquires distinctive meanings in concert with blackness Deadpan tracks instances and meanings of deadpan a vaudeville term meaning dead face across literature theater visual and performance art and the performance of self in everyday life Tina Post reveals that the performance of purposeful withholding is a critical tool in the work of black culture makers intervening in the persistent framing of African American aesthetics as colorful loud humorous and excessive Beginning with the expressionless faces of mid twentieth century documentary photography and proceeding to early twenty first century drama this project examines performances of blackness s deadpan aesthetic within and beyond black embodiments including Young Jean Lee s The Shipment and Branden Jacobs Jenkins s Neighbors as well as Buster Keaton s signature character and Steve McQueen s restitution of the former s legacy within the continuum of Black cultural production Through this varied archive Post reveals how deadpan aesthetics function in and between opacity and fugitivity minimalism and saturation excess and insensibility
