American Silent Film , A Dictionary of Cinema Quotations from Filmmakers and Critics Stephen M.

Ringler,2008-05-03 The cinema isn t a slice of life it s a slice of cake Alfred Hitchcock If you make a popular movie you start to think where have I failed Woody Allen A film is the world in an hour and a half Jean Luc Godard I think you have to be slightly psychopathic to make movies David Cronenberg This compendium contains more than 3 400 quotations from filmmakers and critics discussing their craft About 1 850 film people are included Bunuel Capra Chaplin Disney Fellini Fitzgerald Griffith Kael Kurasawa Pathe Sarris Schwarzenegger Spielberg Waters and Welles among them The quotations are arranged under 31 topics such as acting animation audience budget casting critics costume design directing locations reviews screenwriting special effects and stardom Indexing by filmmakers or critics by film titles and by narrow subjects provides a rich array of points of access Script Culture and the American Screenplay Kevin Alexander Boon,2008-01-10

By considering the screenplay as a literary object worthy of critical inquiry this volume breaks new ground in film studies Though the history of the screenplay is as long and rich as the history of film itself critics and scholars have neglected it as a topic of serious research Script Culture and the American Screenplay treats the screenplay as a literary work in its own right presenting analyses of screenplays from a variety of frameworks including feminism Marxism structuralism philosophy and psychology In distancing the text of screenplays from the on screen performance typically associated with them Kevin Alexander Boon expands the scope of film studies into exciting new territory with this volume Script Culture and the American Screenplay is divided into two parts Part 1 provides a general background for screenplay studies tracing the evolution of the screenplay from the early shot lists and continuities of George M li s and Thomas Harper Ince to the more detailed narratives of contemporary works Part 2 offers specific primarily thematic critical examinations of screenplays along with discussions of the original screenplay and the screenplay adaptation In all Boon explains that screenplay criticism distinguishes itself from traditional film studies in three major ways The primary focus of screenplay criticism is on the screenplay rather than the film the focus of screenplay studies is on the screenwriter rather than the director and screenplay criticism like literary criticism is written to illuminate a reader s understanding of the text Boon demonstrates that whether we are concerned with aesthetics and identifying rules for distinguishing the literary from the non literary or whether we align ourselves with more contemporary theories which recognize texts as distinguishable in their inter relationships and marked difference screenplays constitute a rich cache of works worthy of critical examination Film scholars as well as students of film creative writing and literary studies will appreciate this singular volume Movies and Mass Culture John Belton, 1996 On how American identity is shaped by motion pictures Evelyn Brent Lynn Kear, James King, 2009-10-21

Evelyn Brent's life and career were going quite well in 1928. She was happily living with writer Dorothy Herzog following her divorce from producer Bernard Fineman and the tiny brunette had wowed fans and critics in the silent films The Underworld and The Last Command. She'd also been a sensation in Paramount's first dialogue film Interference. But by the end of that year Brent was headed for a quick downward spiral ending in bankruptcy and occasional work as an extra. What happened is a complicated story laced with bad luck, poor decisions and treachery detailed in this first and only full length biography

Photoplay Movies & Video, 1983

The Classical Hollywood Cinema David Bordwell, Janet Staiger, Kristin Thompson, 2003-09-02 Acclaimed for its breakthrough approach and its combination of theoretical analysis and empirical evidence this is the standard work on the classical Hollywood cinema style of film making from the silent era to the 1960s

Silent Film Sound Rick Altman, 2004 Based on extensive original research and filled with gorgeous illustrations Silent Film Sound reconsiders all aspects of sound practices during the silent film period in America. Beginning with sound accompaniment and continuing through to the more familiar sound practices of the 1920s renowned film historian Rick Altman discusses the variety of sound strategies cinema exhibitors used to differentiate their products. During the nickelodeon period prior to 1910 this variety reached its zenith with carnival like music, automatic pianos, small orchestras, lecturers, synchronized sound systems and voices behind the screen. In the 1910s musical accompaniment began to support a film's narrative and emotional content with large theaters and blockbuster productions driving the development of new instruments, new music publication projects and a new style of film music. A monumental achievement Silent Film Sound challenges common assumptions about this period and reveals the complex and swiftly changing nature of silent American cinema.

Reappraising Cult Horror Films Lee Broughton, 2024-05-16 Identifies key and in some cases previously overlooked cult horror films from around the world and reappraises them by approaching and interrogating them in new ways. New productions in the horror genre occupy a prominent space within the cinematic landscape of the 21st century but the genre's back catalogue of older films refuses to be consigned to the motion picture graveyard just yet. Interest in older horror films remains high and an ever increasing number of these films have enjoyed an afterlife as cult movies thanks to regular film festival screenings, television broadcasts and home video releases. Similarly academic interest in the horror genre has remained high. The frameworks applied by contributors to the collection include genre studies, narrative theory, socio-political readings, aspects of cultural studies, gendered readings, archival research, fan culture, work interviews with filmmakers, aspects of film historiography, spatial theory and cult film theory. Covering a corpus of films that ranges from recognised cult horror classics such as The Wicker Man, The Shining and Candyman to more obscure films like Daughters of Darkness, The Legend of the 7 Golden Vampires, Shivers, Howling III, The Marsupials and Inside, Broughton has curated an international selection of case studies that show the diverse nature of the cult horror subgenre Be they star laden stylish violent bizarre or simply little heard of obscurities this book offers a multitude of new critical insights into a truly eclectic selection of cult horror films John Huston Allen Cohen, Harry Lawton, 1997 This reference work provides a biography of John Huston a critical survey of his oeuvre a chronology of his life a filmography with synopses of the films he directed wrote for or appeared in an annotated bibliography of writings on Huston a list of articles and reviews of particular films and information concerning screenplays awards and honors archival resources and related matters Largely follows the organizational pattern of A Reference Publication in Film series Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
