Convicts and the Arts Professor Max Howell, Dr Lingyu Xie, 2013-11-01 There are a considerable number of books on the art of the convicts so Convicts Art has been covered reasonably well but art is only once facet of the arts that has been examined to any extent This book concerns itself with Convicts the Arts This book then endeavors to look at the convicts contribution to the arts and demonstrates without doubt that the convicts made a significantly broader contribution to the culture of Australia than previously thought There is a common misconception that all convicts were immediately institutionalised in a cell and convict culture was solely a prison culture It needs reinforcing that when the First Fleet arrived there were no prisons in Australia no cells where they could put the convicts The early governors and principal authorities quite logically endeavoured to use whatever skills the convicts had So artists generally forgers were placed with those who were interested in recording a visual history of this new land Among the convicts were bricklayers house painters jewelers silversmiths goldsmiths and so on and some of them made significant contributions to the emerging society Some of these contributions will be developed herein This work endeavors to examine the convicts contribution to the arts in Australia in areas like the writing of novels poetry autobiographies sculpture theatre music architecture jewelry the press decorative arts and pottery

Celebrating the Traditions Fail, 1995-01 Introduces the reader to some of Australia s foremost quiltmakers synaesthesia by Richard Cytowic Lawrence Marks and V S Ramachandran among others Synaesthetic writing including synaesthetic metaphors has been explored in poetry since the 1920s and more recently in fiction but these studies have been general in nature By narrowing the field of investigation to those novels that specifically employ three types of hand crafted textiles quilt making knitting and embroidery the book isolates how these textiles are used in fiction The combination of synaesthesia memory metaphor and particularly synaesthetic metaphor in fiction with textiles in the text of the case studies selected shows how these are used to create affect in readers enhancing their engagement in the story The work is framed within the context of the history of textile production and the use of textiles in fiction internationally but concentrates on Australian authors who have used textiles in their writing The decision to focus on Australian authors was taken in light of the quality and depth of the writing of textile fiction produced in Australia between 1980 and 2005 in the three categories of hand crafted textiles quilt making knitting and embroidery The texts chosen for intensive study are Kate Grenville s The Idea of Perfection 1999 quilting Marele Day s Lambs of God 1997 knitting and Anne Bartlett s Knitting 2005 knitting Jessica Anderson s Tirra Lirra by the River 1978 embroidery and Marion Halligan s Spider Cup 1990 embroidery
