J. J. Menken, 2004 What type of Old Testament text did Matthew use as editor of his Gospel On the one hand the editorially inserted fulfilment quotations with their peculiar textual form may be expected to represent Matthew's biblical text On the other hand the remaining OT quotations are mainly Septuagintal and it is often assumed that Matthew reinforced the Septuagintal character of the quotations which he found in his sources In the first part of this study the fulfilment quotations are examined Their textual form is best explained as a Septuagint text that was revised to make it better agree with the Hebrew and to improve the quality of its Greek the evangelist took these quotations from a continuous text In the second part Matthew's remaining OT quotations are investigated If Matthew borrows quotations from his sources he does not adjust them to the LXX but he simply copies them or edits them in his usual way if he inserts quotations into his sources he makes use of his revised Septuagint On the whole this revised Septuagint seems to have been Matthew s Bible Interpretation Hartin, Petzer, 2019-07-01 Text and Interpretation gives an insight into the many different approaches that more recent South African scholarship has adopted in the interpretation of the New Testament While the number of approaches in New Testament interpretation has proliferated over the past few years all the proposals still fall under one of the three traditional poles sender author text receptor reader Classified according to this division each chapter has a twofold aim Firstly the perspective is situated within a wider framework of interpretation to illustrate the context out of which this approach emerges Secondly each article has selected a particular New Testament text to demonstrate this approach in practice The authors of these chapters the majority of which are South African scholars were chosen because of their expertise in their specific fields By presenting these studies together in one collection the scholarship in these different areas will become more readily accessible to a wider group of scholars Eerdmans Commentary on the Bible: Judges and Ruth P. Broadhead, 2017-07-13 The Gospel of Matthew is an oeuvre mouvante a work in process and the dynamics of this process are essential to its identity and function This understanding of the Gospel of Matthew stands in distinction from the long history of research centered on Matthew the author and his design for the gospel Focused instead on tradition history the history of composition and transmission Edwin K Broadhead s approach keeps open the dialectical engagements and the conflicting voices intrinsic to the Gospel of Matthew As a result the consistently Jewish textures of this gospel are emphasized there is a broader engagement with the landscape of antiquity and serious attention is given to further developments in the history of transmission This focus on the developing tradition thus highlights rather than suppresses the viability and the generative potential of such discourses The Westminster Collection of Christian Quotations Martin H.
