With Robicheaux as her guide McCutchan embarks on a musical visual literary and historical tour of the Atchafalaya where bayous swamps marshes and river delta country have long sustained nature and culture even as industry has changed both the landscape and the people. Along the way she and Robicheaux pay homage to distinctive voices of the region's singular soundscape including Acadian and Native American elders birds frogs alligators wind water and weather which Robicheaux chronicles in archival recordings and musical compositions for museum exhibits radio programs and repositories such as the Cornell Lab of Ornithology. A CD of Robicheaux's soundscapes is included with the book. In counterpoint McCutchan recounts Robicheaux's remarkable struggles as a jazz and classical artist Katrina victim cancer survivor and steadfast son of the Basin devoted to remembering preserving and sounding out the ecological and cultural riches of his home. An original blend of nature writing music history biography journalism and memoir River Music An Atchafalaya Story eloquently celebrates the one and half million watery acres that have shaped the lives of the people there and been transformed by them in return.
