Lang,2020-03-26 How does Britain get its food Why is our current system at breaking point How can we fix it before it is too late British food has changed remarkably in the last half century As we have become wealthier and more discerning our food has Europeanized pizza is children s favourite food and internationalized we eat the world s cuisines yet our food culture remains fragmented a mix of mass ultra processed substances alongside food as varied and good as anywhere else on the planet This book takes stock of the UK food system where it comes from what we eat its impact fragilities and strengths It is a book on the politics of food It argues that the Brexit vote will force us to review our food system Such an opportunity is sorely needed After a brief frenzy of concern following the financial shock of 2008 the UK government has slumped once more into a vague hope that the food system will keep going on as before Food they said just required a burst of agri technology and more exports to pay for our massive imports Feeding Britain argues that this and other approaches are short sighted against the public interest and possibly even strategic folly Setting a new course for UK food is no easy task but it is a process this book urges that needs to begin now Tim Lang has performed a public service Simon Jenkins Sunday Times

Mrs Anne Main Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Committee on Standards and Privileges,2010-02-04 The complaint against Mrs Anne Main the Member for St Albans concerned costs associated with her use as a second home of a flat in St Albans 1 her main home was in Beaconsfield only 20 miles from her constituency boundary so she should not have claimed for a second home in St Albans 2 her adult daughter breached the rules by living rent free in the second home Mrs Main claimed a second home discount on the Council Tax she paid in respect of the St Albans property although it was her daughter s main home 4 her claims for food were excessive The Parliamentary Commissioner for Standards whose report appears as an appendix found that Mrs Main was entitled to claim for a second home that her daughter had not benefited though Mrs Main did derive emotional benefit as a parent from being able to see her daughter Mrs Main breached the rules by claiming for the cost of meals taken while she was away from both her main home and her constituency home The Committee recommends she repay 2 100 in respect of sums wrongly claimed for food in the period 2005 to 2008 and an additional 5 000 which is one seventh of the sums claimed by her against Additional Costs Allowance minus food costs in respect of the period when her adult daughter supported her by staying in her second home reduced by 1 500 to reflect the evidence that Mrs Main acted in accordance with advice she received from the Fees Office Rac Road Atlas Britain A3
