Race Change Urban Society Urban Affairs Annual Reviews:

The Community in Urban Society Larry Lyon, Robyn Driskell, 2011-12-16 The community is more than an abstract object of theoretical inquiry It is also a place where people live It is difficult to determine where community research and theory merge because the community is a unique place where theory and the real world come together Local conditions change and new research techniques emerge In the second edition of The Community in Urban Society the authors solve this problem by distilling the historic and foundational theories of community applying traditional approaches typology ecology systems theory and conflict theory to current conditions and exploring new and relevant theories that impact today's communities The latest edition also examines recent and emerging technologies that facilitate examination and evaluation of the modern community condition Updated coverage includes topics such as New Urbanism modern network analysis methods the urban political economy approach to community the growth machine approach GIS mapping recent holistic studies cyberspace communities and up to date discussions of community indicator studies quality of life community power and regime politics

Metropolitan Desegregation Robert Green, 2013-11-11 Most of the findings in this book are based on the work of a team of researchers from Urban Affairs Programs at Michigan State University From 1976 to 1981 the team observed the progress of school desegregation in metropolitan Wilmington Delaware which encompasses New Castle County The project was made possible by a grant from the Rockefeller Foundation Division of Social Sciences Metropolitan desegregation is a strategy deserving of national attention because this country's black population has become increasingly concentrated within central cities Desegregation solutions must be found that encompass America's white suburbs as well as its urban areas In a 1977 statement the U S Commission on Civil Rights called metropolitan school desegregation the last frontier to be crossed in the long judicial effort to make equal educational opportunity a living reality Moreover the National Task Force on Desegregation Strategies concluded in 1979 The simple demographic fact is that many large city school districts cannot desegregate by themselves For children in such districts the best hope for attending a desegregated school lies in the implementation of metropolitan desegregation strategies i e desegregation plans which do not stop at the city line but rather encompass at least some of the surrounding suburban areas p 1 The Michigan State University research team began its investigation in New Castle County Delaware after a three judge federal district court ruled that area schools were illegally segregated between districts

Methods of Social Research, 4th Edition Kenneth Bailey, 2008-06-30 An introduction for undergraduates to every stage of sociological research showing how to deal effectively with typical problems they might encounter The book is fully updated to include examples from the LA riots and the 1992 presidential elections

Blockbusting in Baltimore W. Edward Orser, 2014-07-11 This innovative study of racial upheaval and urban transformation in Baltimore Maryland investigates the impact of blockbusting a practice in which real estate agents would sell a house on an all white block to an African American family with the aim of igniting a panic among the other residents These homeowners would often sell at a loss to move away and the real estate agents would promote the properties at a drastic markup to African American buyers In this groundbreaking book W Edward Orser examines Edmondson Village a west Baltimore rowhouse community where an especially acute instance of blockbusting triggered white flight and racial change on a dramatic scale Between 1955 and 1965 nearly twenty thousand white residents who saw their secure world changing drastically were replaced by blacks in search of the American dream By buying low and selling high playing on the fears of whites and the needs of African Americans blockbusters set off a series of events that Orser calls a collective trauma whose significance for recent American social and cultural history is still insufficiently appreciated and understood Blockbusting in Baltimore describes a widely experienced but little analyzed phenomenon of recent social history Orser makes an important contribution to community and urban studies race relations and records of the African American experience Subject Catalog of the Institute of Governmental Studies Library, University of California, Berkeley

University of California, Berkeley. Institute of Governmental Studies. Library,1978 South African Transitions Christopher J. Lee,Andrew Offenburger,2025-01-08 This book addresses the multiple repercussions of South Africa s democratic transition beginning in 1994 by examining a number of themes with local national regional and global relevance the politics of nation building public memory residential segregation higher education media racism trade unionism women s rights and global climate change to name only a few Drawing from the rich archive of previously published articles from the journal Safundi South African Transitions documents both the country s and the journal s mutual history over the past quarter century Divided into five sections the first part of the book explores the broad theme of South Africa s transition to non racial democracy by foregrounding issues of nationalism diplomacy rural change social trauma historical commemoration and political feeling at local national and international levels The second section focuses on the question of civil society including essays on media racism histories of segregation legacies of criminal violence and comparative patterns of incarceration underscoring the endurance of certain long term problems and the emergence of new ones Part three surveys the role of education in transforming South Africa while part four situates South Africa s opportunities and challenges within regional and global contexts to better understand the South African situation and its relationship to conditions around the world The penultimate section has contributions that confront the present by identifying the struggles and crises of South Africa s current political moment including labor movements the matter of land restitution feminist activism LGBTQI rights and the Marikana Massacre of 2012 The book ends with an essay on the fire at Jagger Library at the University of Cape Town by historian Bill Nasson a moment of contingent destruction that speaks of the Covid 19 pandemic and the burgeoning climate crisis at present Traversing across time and place South African Transitions will be an indispensable resource for scholars researchers activists and policymakers as well as those readers who are generally interested in understanding South Africa s social political and intellectual transformations over the past several decades Catalog of Copyright Entries.
