Race No Peace Without Justice Churches Confront The Mounting Racism Of The 1980s:

Racism Albert J. Wheeler, 2000 Of all mankind's vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn. Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul. This bibliography brings together the literature providing access by subject groupings as well as author and subject indexes. Contents: Racial Attitudes, Racism and Poverty, Hate Groups, Racial Justice, Racism and Politics, Race Discrimination, Racial Identity, Racism Around the World. A History of the Ecumenical Movement, Volume 2 Harold C. Fey, 2009-12-01. Volume 2, 1948-1968, first appeared in 1970. It covers the history of the World Council of Churches from its first assembly at Amsterdam to its fourth assembly at Uppsala, Sweden, analyzes the development of regional ecumenical organizations and recounts the impact of the Second Vatican Council on the ecumenical witness of the Roman Catholic Church. Historical Dictionary of Ecumenical Christianity Ans Joachim van der Bent, 1994-12-01. This historical dictionary covers the major trends in the 20th century ecumenical movement until today. It deals with developments in the realms of church unity, mission and evangelism, laity, women in church and society and many other ecumenical subjects. It also covers many programs and activities of the World Council of Churches since its inception in 1948. The longer articles survey important theological themes while short articles provide quick reference on a precise question. The bibliography is not exhaustive; some 50,000 titles have been published since the beginning of this century but very helpful for major bibliographical information. The dictionary is particularly strong in American subjects and includes a great number of ecumenical personalities which cannot be found in other reference works. This publication is not only an indispensable tool of research for university and seminary libraries but also for individual persons belonging to whatever Christian church who are interested in knowing more about reflections, relations and activities in the several regions of the ecumenical world. A helpful description of the most important ecumenical assemblies and conferences is provided. To take stock of the past to interpret the present and to look forward into the third millennium of Christian existence are exciting and challenging enterprises. Race Barbara Rogers, 1980. Racism in church structures: theological considerations, economic aspects, land rights. A History of the Ecumenical Movement Ruth Rouse, Stephen Neill, Harold Edward Fey, 1986. A History of the Ecumenical Movement, 1517-1948 Ruth Rouse, Stephen Neill, Harold Edward Fey, 1993. Challenging the State Tristan Anne Borer, 1998. This study explores the roles played by two religious groups in the anti-apartheid movement: the South African Council of Churches and the South African Catholic Bishops' Conference. It shows how they adopted new self-identities which resulted in an expansion of their activities. Journal of Feminist Studies in Religion, 2004. Nairobi to Vancouver, 1975-1983 World Council of Churches. Central Committee, World Council of Churches. Hofmeyr,Kathleen Edith Cross,1986      A Place in the Sun Theo Witvliet,1985      RIC. ,1980      Liberation and Orthodoxy Yacob Tesfai,1996 This hard hitting volume probes the way in which the members of the World Council of Churches and other Christian world communions have carried on dialogue with member and non member churches and questions whether the canons of doctrinal orthodoxy that have prevailed are adequate How do these criteria for judging ecclesial authenticity stand up to third world churches canons of orthopraxy As the world church becomes increasingly the church of the Third World what is the future of the ecumenical movement According to Tesfai third world Christians demand that ecumenism be judged by its contribution to the struggle for liberation in a hostile world He shows convincingly that the weight given to canons of theological orthodoxy makes much of the ecumenical dialogue of the past fifty years unappealing to Christians in the Third World Here the criterion becomes how dialogue and ecclesial life direct the followers of Christ to open up to a broader ecumenism that seeks to overcome injustice and to realize the full freedom promised in the gospel      Joint Acquisitions
