Race Social Revolution:

Revolutionaries to Race Leaders Cedric Johnson, The Black Power movement represented a key turning point in American politics Disenchanted by the hollow progress of federal desegregation during the 1960s many black citizens and leaders across the United States demanded meaningful self determination The popular movement they created was marked by a vigorous artistic renaissance militant political action and fierce ideological debate Exploring the major political and intellectual currents from the Black Power era to the present Cedric Johnson reveals how black political life gradually conformed to liberal democratic capitalism and how the movement s most radical aims the rejection of white aesthetic standards redefinition of black identity solidarity with the Third World and anticapitalist revolution were gradually eclipsed by more moderate aspirations Although Black Power activists transformed the face of American government Johnson contends that the evolution of the movement as a form of ethnic politics restricted the struggle for social justice to the world of formal politics Johnson offers a compelling and theoretically sophisticated critique of the rhetoric and strategies that emerged in this period Drawing on extensive archival research he reinterprets the place of key intellectual figures such as Harold Cruse and Amiri Baraka and influential organizations including the African Liberation Support Committee the National Black Political Assembly and the National Black Independent Political Party in postsegregation black politics while at the same time identifying the contradictions of Black Power radicalism itself Documenting the historical retreat from radical democratic struggle Revolutionaries to Race Leaders ultimately calls for the renewal of popular struggle and class conscious politics Cedric Johnson is assistant professor of political science at Hobart and William Smith Colleges

Race, Revolution, and the Struggle for Human Rights in Zanzibar G. Thomas Burgess, Ali Sultan Issa, Seif Sharif Hamad, 2009 Zanzibar has had the most turbulent postcolonial history of any part of the United Republic of Tanzania yet few sources explain the reasons why The current political impasse in the islands is a contest over the question of whether to revere and sustain the Zanzibari Revolution of 1964 in which thousands of islanders mostly Arab lost their lives It is also about whether Zanzibar s union with the Tanzanian mainland cemented only a few months after the revolution should be strengthened reformed or dissolved Defenders of the revolution claim it was necessary to right a century of wrongs They speak the language of African nationalism and aspire to unify the majority of Zanzibaris through the politics of race Their opponents instead deplore the violence of the revolution espouse the language of human rights and claim the revolution reversed a century of social and economic development They reject the politics of race regarding Islam as a more worthy basis for cultural and political unity From a series of personal interviews conducted over several years Thomas Burgess has produced two highly readable first person narratives in which two nationalists in Africa describe their conflicts achievements failures and tragedies Their life stories represent two opposing arguments for and against the revolution Ali Sultan Issa traveled widely in the 1950s and helped introduce socialism into the islands As a minister in the first revolutionary government he became one of Zanzibar s most controversial figures responsible for some of the government s most radical policies After years of imprisonment he reemerged in the 1990s as one of Zanzibar s most successful hotel entrepreneurs Seif Sharif Hamad came of age during the revolution and became disenchanted with its broken promises and excesses In the 1980s he emerged as a reformist minister seeking to roll back socialism and authoritarian rule After his imprisonment he has ever since served as a leading figure in what has become Tanzania s largest opposition party As Burgess demonstrates in his introduction both memoirs trace Zanzibar s postindependence trajectory and reveal how Zanzibaris continue to dispute their revolutionary heritage and remain divided over issues of memory identity and whether to remain a part of Tanzania The memoirs explain how conflicts in the islands have become issues of national importance in Tanzania testing that state s commitment to democratic pluralism They engage our most basic assumptions about social justice and human rights and shed light on a host of themes key to understanding Zanzibari history that are also of universal relevance including the legacies of slavery and colonialism and the origins of racial violence poverty and underdevelopment They also show how a cosmopolitan island society negotiates cultural influences from Africa the Middle East Asia and Europe French Literary Fascism David Carroll,2021-01-12 This is the first book to provide a sustained critical analysis of the literary aesthetic dimension of French fascism the peculiarly French form of what Walter Benjamin called the fascist aestheticizing of politics Focusing first on three important extremist nationalist writers at the turn of the century and then on five of the most visible fascist intellectuals in France in the 1930s David Carroll shows how both traditional and modern concepts of art figure in the elaboration of fascist ideology and in the presentation of fascism as an art of the political Carroll is concerned with the internal relations of fascism and literature how literary fascists conceived of politics as a technique for fashioning a unified people and transforming the disparate elements of society into an organic totalized work of art He explores the logic of such aestheticizing as well as the assumptions about art literature and culture at the basis of both the aesthetics and politics of French literary fascists His book reveals how not only classical humanism but also modern aesthetics that defend the autonomy and integrity of literature became models for xenophobic forms of nationalism and extreme cultural forms of anti-Semitism A cogent analysis of the ideological function of literature and culture in fascism this work helps us see the ramifications of thinking of literature or art as the truth or essence of politics The Inner Life of Race Leerom Medovoi,2024-08-09 Leerom Medovoi traces the genealogy of contemporary forms of populist racism to offer a global account of how religion and racism are used to govern and police populations How to Talk to Your Boss About Race Y-Vonne Hutchinson,2022-02-01 An indispensable practical toolkit for dismantling racism in the workplace without fear Reporting and personal testimonials have exposed racism in every institution in this country But knowing that racism exists isn t nearly enough Social media posts about BlackLivesMatter are nice but how do you push leadership towards real anti racist action Diversity and inclusion strategist Y Vonne Hutchinson helps tech giants political leaders and Fortune 500 companies speak more productively about racism and bias and turn talk into action In this clear and accessible guide Hutchinson equips employees with a framework to think about race at work prepares them to have frank and effective conversations with more powerful leaders helps them center marginalized perspectives and explains how to leverage power dynamics to get results while navigating backlash and gaslighting How to Talk To Your Boss About Race is a crucial handbook to moving beyond fear to push for change No matter how much formal power you have you can create antiracist change at work Class, Race, and Gender Michael Zweig, 2023-11-28 Class Race and Gender Challenging the Injuries and Divisions of Capitalism is for those who want to understand the underlying connections among today's social justice movements Bringing forth the basic operations of capitalist economies it reveals what is driving many of today's most urgent and vexing problems the common origins of the inequalities of income wealth and power environmental devastation militarism racism and white supremacy patriarchy and male chauvinism periodic economic crises and the cultural conflicts that are tearing at US life Michael Zweig illuminates all propositions with specific examples from US history from the first settlement of the New World to current life including his own lived experiences as an activist educator and organizer over the past six decades As such the book is an urgently needed resource for activists and organizers seeking structural and moral transformation of life in the US Building on his analysis Zweig also presents strategies for political action in electoral and movement building work Social Theory: Volume II Roberta Garner, Black Hawk Hancock, 2014-05-29 The organization of this popular social theory reader which pairs classical articles with contemporary theoretical and empirical studies highlights the historical flow of social theory and demonstrates how disagreements and confrontations shape theory over time Written in clear down to earth language the introductions to each selection link theorists to one another illustrating how theoretical traditions are not rigidly separate but are always in conversation addressing and challenging each other Volume II From Modern To Contemporary Theory uses key transitional theorists to illustrate how contemporary theory emerged from the past New chapters on race on culture and on media as well as a significantly reworked gender chapter deepen coverage As well new contextual and biographical materials surround each reading and each chapter includes a study guide with key terms and innovative discussion questions and classroom exercises The result is a volume of readings that offers instructors flexibility in how they approach teaching and students an affordable and accessible introduction to the most important contemporary social theorists Social Theory: Continuity and Confrontation Roberta Garner, Black Hawk Hancock, 2014-04-29 The third edition of this popular reader reflects considerable changes With over seventy readings representing a wide diversity of theorists it offers a breadth of coverage not available in other collections The framework for understanding theory as a set of conversations over time is maintained and deepened with a focus on key transitional theorists who helped pave the way from classical to contemporary theory New contextual and biographical materials surround the primary readings and each chapter includes a study guide with key terms discussion questions and innovative classroom exercises The result is a fresh and expansive take on social theory that foregrounds a plurality of perspectives and defines contemporary trends in the field while being both an accessible and manageable teaching tool How Capitalism Underdeveloped Black America: Problems in Race, Political Economy and Society Manning Marable, 2000-04 An updated edition of Manning Marable's classic considered one of the best studies of race and class Critical Race Theory and Education M. Cole, 2009-03-30 Critical Race Theory CRT in the realm of Education has a long history in the US and is now a burgeoning field of enquiry in the UK Critical Race Theory and Education is the first book length response to CRT from a Marxist perspective It looks at CRT's origins in Critical Legal Studies critiques the work of major US and UK Critical Race Theorists and also looks at some of CRT's strengths CRT and Marxism are contextualized with respect to both neo liberal global capitalism and imperialism and to antiracist socialist developments in South America The book concludes with some suggestions for classroom practice Race and Identity in Hispanic America Patricia Reid-Merritt, Michael S. Rodriguez, 2020-04-03 This book offers a historical and comparative overview of the evolution of racial classifications in the United States Latin America and the Caribbean The Hispanicization of America is precipitating a paradigm shift in racial thinking in which race is no longer defined by distinct characteristics but rather is becoming synonymous with ethnic cultural identity Traditionally assimilation has been conceived of as a unidirectional and racialized phenomenon Newly arrived immigrant groups or longstanding minority indigenous populations were Americanized in confining their racial and ethnic natures to the private sphere and adopting in the public sphere the cultural mores norms and values of the dominant cultural racial group In contrast the Hispanicization of America entails the horizontal assimilation of various groups from Spanish speaking countries throughout the Western Hemisphere and Caribbean into a pan ethnic Hispanic Latino identity that also challenges the privileged position of whiteness as the primary and exclusive referent for American identity Instead of focusing on one Hispanic group ethnic identity or region this book chronicles the development of racial identity across the largest Hispanic groups throughout the United States Race in Cuba Esteban Morales Domínguez, 2013 As a young militant in the 26th of July Movement Esteban Morales Domínguez participated in the overthrow of the Batista regime and the triumph of the Cuban Revolution The revolutionaries he understood sought to establish a more just and egalitarian society But Morales Domínguez an Afro Cuban knew that the complicated question of race could not be ignored or simply willed away in a post revolutionary context Today he is one of Cuba's most prominent Afro Cuban intellectuals and its leading authority on the race question Available for the first time in English the essays collected here describe the problem of racial inequality in Cuba provide evidence of its existence constructively criticize efforts by the Cuban political leadership to end discrimination and point to a possible way forward Morales Domínguez surveys the major advancements in race relations that occurred as a result of the revolution but does not ignore continuing signs of inequality and discrimination Instead he argues that the revolution must be an ongoing process and that to truly transform society it must continue to confront the question of race in Cuba Guyana: Race and Politics among Africans and East Indians R.A. Glasgow,2012-12-06 Race and Authority in Urban Politics David Greenstone,Paul E. Peterson,1976-08 In this penetrating book the authors provide a systematic empirical analysis of an important public policy issue citizen participation in the Community Action Program of the Johnson administration s War on Poverty This Phoenix edition includes a new introduction in which the authors explicate the most important themes in their analysis In a series of lively chapters Greenstone and Peterson show how the coalitions that formed around the community action question developed not out of electoral or organizational interests alone but were strongly influenced by prevailing conceptions of the nature of authority in America The book stresses the way in which both machine and reform structures affected the ability of minority groups to organize effectively and to form alliances in urban politics It considers the wide ranging critiques made of the Community Action Program by conservative liberal and radical analysts and finds that all of them fail to appreciate the significance and intensity of the racial cleavage in American politics
