The Future of Civic Education Elizabeth Yeager Washington, Keith C. Barton, 2024-10-01 Speaking to the need to move beyond traditional formulations this textbook presents radical visions for transforming civic education in the United States Drawing on the experience of educators and scholars including those rooted in feminist queer abolitionist global and race conscious perspectives this work offers new practical ideas for civic education reform Responding to recent political crises many scholars educators and public commentators have called for a rebirth of civic education but these all are grounded in the premise that the goal of civic education should be to teach students about the U S Constitutional system and how to operate within it This book argues that the U S governmental system including the Constitution is infused with racist and anti democratic premises and procedures It asks How can we seek a new path one that is more democratic more equitable and more humane A diverse range of leading civic educators who are willing not just to push the boundaries of civic education but to operate outside its assumptions altogether explore what future possibilities for civic education might look like and how these innovative ideas could be implemented in the classroom Combining theory with practice The Future of Civic Education will be important reading for those studying or researching in social studies methods social studies issues citizenship and civic education It will also be beneficial to social studies teachers at elementary and secondary levels as well as policymakers and non governmental organizations NGOs

From Small Wins to Sweeping Change Priya Frank, Theresa Sotto, 2022-07-15 How does a diverse community thrive in spaces that were designed to be exclusionary Museums with histories tied to colonial violence and racist practices and whose survival is largely reliant on the generosity of wealthy donors were not built to be inclusive Yet many museums missions and the people who bring these missions to life have egalitarian aims In recent years museum practitioners across the country have been proactively confronting our histories of colonization and exclusion and advancing equity and inclusion Museums of all types have formed cross departmental teams to critique their internal practices review hiring processes and ultimately foster a more diverse and inclusive environment for both visitors and staff alike But how do such initiatives get off the ground How do individuals build support among all stakeholders and successfully advocate for new positions programs and cross departmental working groups How can colleagues work together across departments to foster more inclusive museum practices This book from the American Alliance of Museums brings together a collection of tools solutions and models from DEAI practitioners who have actively worked together towards institutional change With 60% BIPOC authorship this book will provide hope and inspiration as well as concrete strategies for museum workers all over the country who are achieving small wins and fostering sweeping change in the predominantly white cultural sector through innovation collaboration and courage This is the first book to focus specifically on collaborative and inclusive practices in equity and anti racism work in different types of museums Its case studies demonstrate the importance of relationship building authentic connections and developing foundations together over time providing a much needed resource for museum professionals at every level who are grappling with inequities that are pervasive in museums
