Racing Around Britain:

From Aintree to York Stephen Cartmell, 2011-05-31 Writer and psychologist Stephen Cartmell set off to explore Britain using the cultural melting pot of the UK's 60 racecourses as his staging posts. During his travels the author observed the frequent absurdity of the British the peculiarities of their institutions and developed a satirical critique of one of the country's favourite pastimes. With his acute eye for observation an appreciation of the ridiculous and the ability to find humour even in the face of petty officialdom this acclaimed book is not simply a travelogue of racing but a key to understanding Britain and its curiously comical inhabitants. Racegoer traveller or first time visitor Stephen Cartmell's colourful stories are sure to entertain. Encyclopedia of British Horse Racing Dr Joyce Kay, Professor Wray Vamplew, 2012-10-02 The Encyclopedia of British Horse Racing offers an innovative approach to one of Britain's oldest sports. These include the breeding and use of around 50 billion mammals and birds for food production annually the breeding of pedigree dogs cats racing dogs and horses specialized laboratory animal strains and the use of reproductive science to breed endangered species in zoos and to attempt to limit unwanted populations of pests and non native species. This book discusses the methods the motivations and the consequences of human intervention in animal breeding in terms of what we know about animal behavior and well being. It sets out to challenge both our practice and our assumptions those of society as a whole and the many professionals involved in the worldwide animal reproduction business. It explores where we are now and proposes a future where we have more respect for animals as sentient beings and have loosened the reins of reproductive control. Sports around the World John Nauright, 2012-04-06 This multivolume set is much more than a collection of essays on sports and sporting cultures from around the world.
