was attempting to pass. With limited steering input, MacDonald lost control of his car and careened off the inside wall of the track, exploding into a huge fireball and sliding back into oncoming traffic. Closing fast was affable fan favorite Eddie Sachs. The Clown Prince of Racing hit MacDonald's sliding car broadside, setting off a second explosion that killed Sachs instantly. MacDonald pulled from the wreckage, died two hours later. After the track was cleared and the race restarted, it was legend A.J. Foyt who raced to a decisive if hollow victory. Torn between elation and horror, Foyt along with others championed stricter safety regulations, including mandatory pit stops, limiting the amount of fuel a car could carry, and minimum weight standards. In this tight, fast-paced narrative, Art Garner brings to life the bygone era when drivers lived hard, raced hard, and at times died hard. Drawing from interviews, Garner expertly reconstructs the fateful events and decisions leading up to the sport's blackest day and the incriminating aftermath that forever altered the sport. Black Noon remembers the race that changed everything and the men that paved the way for the Golden Age of Indy car racing. Indy Racing Legends Tony Sakakis, 1996 Profile 25 of the greatest drivers and builders in the history of Indy Car racing, including A.J. Foyt, Mario Andretti, and Al Unser.
