Education and Social Change John L. Rury, 2015-07-24 This brief interpretive history of American schooling focuses on the evolving relationship between education and social change Like its predecessors this new edition adopts a thematic approach investigating the impact of social forces such as industrialization urbanization immigration globalization and cultural conflict on the development of schools and other educational institutions It also examines the various ways that schools have contributed to social change particularly in enhancing the status and accomplishments of certain social groups and not others Detailed accounts of the experiences of women and minority groups in American history consider how their lives have been affected by education while Focal Point sections within each chapter allow the reader to hone in on key moments in history and their relevance within the broader scope of American schooling from the colonial era to the present This new edition has been comprehensively updated and edited for greater readability and clarity It offers a revised final chapter updated to include recent change in education politics and policy in particular the decline of No Child Left Behind and the impact of the Common Core and movements against it Further additions include enhanced coverage of colonial and early post colonial American schooling added materials on persistent issues such as race in education an updated discussion of the GED program and a closer look at the role of technology in schools With its nuanced treatment of both historical and contemporary factors influencing the modern school system this book remains an excellent resource for investigating and critiquing the social economic and cultural development of American education Proceedings of the Annual Meeting - National Education Association of the United States National Education Association of the United States, 1900 If

Science is to Save Us Martin Rees,2022-09-07 There has never been a time when following the science has been more important for humanity At no other point in history have we had such advanced knowledge and technology at our fingertips nor had such astonishing capacity to determine the future of our planet But the decisions we must make on how science is applied belong outside the lab and should be the outcome of wide public debate For that to happen science needs to become part of our common culture Science is not just for scientists if it were it could never save us from the multiple crises we face For science can save us if its innovations mesh carefully into society and its applications are channelled for the common good As Martin Rees argues in this expert and personal analysis of the scientific endeavour on which we all depend we need to think globally we need to think rationally and we need to think long term empowered by twenty first century technology but guided by values that science alone cannot provide Also available as an audiobook

Saving Europe Tammy M. Proctor,2025 Saving Europe offers a transnational and intersectional history of American intervention in Europe between 1914 and 1924 a period when the United States simultaneously tightened its borders and expanded its reach I argue that in the crucial decade following the outbreak of World War I Americans saw themselves in a novel role abroad as protectors of European cultural heritage and as rescuers of vulnerable populations This experience had important long term implications for later US and United Nations humanitarian aid programs Soviet Propaganda as a Foreign Policy Tool Marian Leighton,1991-01-29 With extensive documentation and illustrative examples Leighton makes clear one of the great political success stories of modern history the Soviet Union s use of propaganda to influence Western and public opinion Behind the successes and failures of Soviet policy is the constant flow of propaganda overt and covert subtle and direct Marian Leighton shows what the Soviets have planned and how they operate After a brief glance at the Russian tradition of propaganda the text focuses specifically on Soviet propaganda directed against the United States Beginning at the time of the establishment of diplomatic relations between the United States and the U S S R the author brings her examination into the Gorbachev era Higher Education and Disaster Capitalism in the Age of COVID-19 Marina Vujnovic,Johanna E. Foster,2022-11-09 This book reveals the layered effects of the corporatization of higher education situated within the phenomenon of disaster capitalism The authors argue that higher education administrators have seized on the Covid 19 pandemic as an opportunity to advance a corporate higher education agenda consistent with the principles of disaster capitalism This crisis deeply impacts what and how students in the United States learn who gets to learn and the very mission of the academy Chapters also address neoliberalism as a policy statement that has reshaped and continues to shape higher education in the United States and in much of Western societies Transactions and Proceedings National Association of State Universities,1923 No 1 includes proceedings of the 6th 7th meetings held 1901 and 1903 no 2 contains proceedings of the 8th meetings held 1904
