Paragraph annotation: Author's thesis (what author is trying to prove), main points of the argument. (100-200 words)

The resource has a heavy emphasis on the Treaty of Versailles and those who were involved in its construction and execution after the First World War. It includes the different nations involved as well as their intended aspirations. The source covers why the treaty was made and what the treaty consisted of. It sums up the different interpretations of the Paris Peace Conference and covers general essay questions regarding the matter.

The following questions are separate from the annotation:

Why do you consider this article to be scholarly? Be sure to identify the source of their authority within your explanation. (100-200 words)

This seemed like a good source for my research paper because it covers the Treaty of Versailles in great length. The Treaty of Versailles is frequently noted as one major contributor to the beginning of the Second World War. This resource was located in the Grand Canyon University Library, which has a vast number of reliable sources.

How did you find the sources? For example, what key words did you use in your library search? How did you narrow your results, etc. (50-100 words)?

I found this source in the Grand Canyon University Library. I searched "Causes of WWII", "What caused WWII", "Treaty of Versailles", and "The Treaty of Versailles impact on WWII". I
