Love Connection Sally A. Allen,2014-02-18 Mae Warner was a special person She ruled with an iron hand when her daughters Glenna and Jamie were in their formative years She possessed a bright smile and had a lovely sense of humor She was beautiful with flaming auburn hair and a regal face She had prominent cheekbones and full lips that she painted with red lip gloss Mae knew her auburn hair didn t call for red lipstick but she wore it anyway Her figure at five feet two was lush and curvaceous Men of all ages stared at her like there was no one else in the room Jamie was ten years younger than Glenna and resembled her mother with the same auburn hair and snapping brown eyes Glenna took after her deceased father and was a platinum blonde with blue eyes Their friend Cheryl lived down the road from them and the two vied for her attention Even though Cheryl was seventeen years old the same age as Glenna she was seventeen going on twenty six and Mae Warner wasn t sure she was a good influence on her daughters Cheryl s family lived in a sprawling colonial style home and was one of the richest families in town Her father owned a paper mill and most of the people in Plainfield worked for him

Despite the recent turn to affects and emotions in the humanities and despite the unceasing popularity of romantic and erotic love as a motif in fictional works of all genres the subject has received surprisingly little attention in academic studies of contemporary drama Love in Contemporary British Drama reflects the appeal of love as a topic and driving force in dramatic works with in depth analyses of eight pivotal plays from the past three decades Following an interdisciplinary and historical approach the study collects and condenses theories of love from philosophy and sociology to derive persisting discourses and to examine their reoccurrence and transformation in contemporary plays Special emphasis is put on narratives of love's compensatory function and precariousness and on how modifications of these narratives epitomise the peculiarities of emotional life in the social and cultural context of the present Based on the assumption that drama is especially inclined to draw on shared narratives for representations of love the book demonstrates that love is both a window to remnants of the past in the present and a proper subject matter for drama in times in which the suitability of the dramatic form has been questioned Love Inspired November 2023 Box Set - 2 of 2 Pamela Desmond Wright,Betsy St. Amant,Danielle Thorne,2023-10-24 Love Inspired brings you three new titles Enjoy these uplifting contemporary romances of faith forgiveness and hope This box set includes BONDING OVER THE AMISH BABY by Pamela Desmond Wright After a car
