A Sparrowhawk's Lament David Cobham,2014-07-06 Britain is home to fifteen species of breeding birds of prey from the hedgerow hopping Sparrowhawk to the breathtaking White tailed Eagle In this handsomely illustrated book acclaimed British filmmaker and naturalist David Cobham offers unique and deeply personal insights into Britain s birds of prey and how they are faring today He delves into the history of these magnificent birds and talks in depth with the scientists and conservationists who are striving to safeguard them In doing so he profiles the writers poets and filmmakers who have done so much to change the public's perception of birds of prey. There are success stories: five birds of prey that were extinct have become reestablished with viable populations, but persecution is still rife. Featuring drawings by famed wildlife artist Bruce Pearson, this book reveals why we must cherish and celebrate our birds of prey and why we neglect them at our peril.

Field & Stream, 1989-05. FIELD STREAM, America's largest outdoor sports magazine, celebrates the outdoor experience with great stories, compelling photography, and sound advice while honoring the traditions hunters and fishermen have passed down for generations.

Rapala: Legendary Fishing Lures John E. Mitchell, Rapala, the very name evokes quiet mornings on a mist-shrouded lake, family expeditions in a well-worn rowboat, and best of all, the thrilling moment when a fish explodes out of the water. This richly illustrated book tells the story of a remarkable company and the iconic angling products they produce. Rapala lures are now sold in 140 countries and are more world-record fish than any other lure. It is the dominant company in a hugely popular sport enjoyed by 44 million recreation anglers in the U.S. alone—more people than play golf or tennis combined.

From Near and Far John Sivell, 1992. This is a reproducible intermediate-level ESL reader for high school and adult students. The book features sixteen original illustrated stories set in cultural and geographical contexts from around the world. This revised and enlarged edition builds on the very features that made students, teachers, and reviewers so enthusiastic about the first edition. It provides carefully designed activities in purposeful, confident reading for teenaged and adult readers at an intermediate level. Includes full support for thoughtful and contextualized intensive reading, jigsaw reading, discussion materials as advance organizers before each set of four stories, extension activities, and non-fiction readings to follow up. Forty-eight attractive illustrations. Development of intertextual reading skills through repeated opportunities to compare and contrast a number of fiction and non-fiction passages on related personal and cultural themes. Central focus on narrative, a familiar genre through which intermediate readers can most readily approach quite challenging tasks leading toward additional non-fiction readings for expanded critical skills and confidence. Wide range of integrated activities from vocabulary study and sentence building all the way up to interpretation, personal response, and out-of-class application, including a large number of tables, charts, puzzles, and discussion questions. Full, clear instructions on all questions and exercises, and an extensive answer key. Informative introduction with practical advice on how the text works and on how to adapt the materials to the needs of particular groups.
