Luxury Liner Row:

Along the Hudson William H. Miller,2012-07-15 The glamour age of ocean liner travel was the 1950s Nothing could compete with the ocean liner and huge profits were made by the shipping lines William H Miller tells the story of Luxury Liner Row in this Golden Age Luxury Liner Row-Passenger Ships at New York William H. Miller,1981-01-01 New York's Liners John A. Fostik MBA,2015-05-25 For 175 years passenger ships have crossed the Atlantic linking the Old World with the New World Between 1892 and 1954 more than 12 million immigrants passed through the port of New York National rivalries caused ships to grow in size speed and a comfort that had once been unimaginable The advent of the passenger jet in 1958 changed how people travel New York s harbor is now quieter and there are no longer days with six liners ready to sail to fabled European ports Happily one can still sail to Europe cruise the Caribbean or take a world cruise from Manhattan aboard a new generation of liners like the Queen Mary 2 New York s Liners captures iconic images of the great ships from the 1890s to the present day The Last Atlantic Liners William H. Miller,2011-03-15 The golden age of liners in photographs and artwork Picture History of the Queen Mary and Queen Elizabeth William H., Jr. Miller,2012-07-20 Authoritative profusely illustrated volume describes the ships debuts amenities rivalry and contributions during WWII Also covered their grand royal successors Queen Elizabeth 2 and Queen Mary 2 189 photographs Great Ships in New York Harbor William H., Jr. Miller,2012-10-16 An informative text complemented by 175 vintage photographs makes this vibrant profile of the great port s history as interesting to read as it is to browse It combines fascinating facts and personal recollections SS United States William H. Miller,2022-04-08 The SS United States was a great symbol of post World War II American genius She was the most advanced ocean liner of her time modern innovative and hugely powerful Designed to be a commercial liner but easily convertible to wartime troopship she entered service in July 1952 seventy years ago to rousing triumph and success She captured the prized Blue Riband for transatlantic speed brought glory to America and her owners and enjoyed great success for a full decade But after trans ocean jets arrived her success slowly faded until fully decommissioned by 1969 Over fifty years of idleness revival plans and schemes and neglect and decay followed To this day the United States waits silently at a Philadelphia pier This is the story of a very great and beloved ship her glory days but also her days of struggle and indecision A Man and His Ship Steven Ujifusa,2013-06-04 Examines the life and career of William Francis Gibbs 1886 1967 the Philadelphia native whose lifelong ambition was to build the biggest fastest safest liner ever Doomed Ships William H., Jr. Miller,2012-06-29 Nearly 200 photographs many from private collections highlight tales of some of the vessels whose pleasure cruises ended in catastrophe the Morro Castle Normandie Andrea Doria Europa and many others Preserving South Street Seaport James M Lindgren,2019-08-27 Preserving South Street Seaport tells the fascinating story from the 1960s to the present of the South Street Seaport District of Lower Manhattan Home to the original Fulton Fish Market and then the South Street Seaport Museum it is one of the last neighborhoods of late 18th and early 19th century New York City not to be destroyed by urban development In 1988 South Street Seaport became the city's 1 destination for visitors Featuring over 40 archival and contemporary black and white photographs this is the first history of a remarkable historic district and maritime museum Lindgren skillfully tells the complex story of this unique cobblestoned neighborhood Comprised of deteriorating 4 5 story buildings in what was known as the Fulton Fish Market the neighborhood was earmarked for the erection of the World Trade Center until New Jersey forced its placement one mile westward After Penn Station's demolition had angered many New York citizens preservationists mobilized in 1966 to save this last piece of Manhattan's old port and recreate its fabled 19th century Street of Ships The South Street Seaport and the World Trade Center became the yin and yang of Lower Manhattan's rebirth In an unprecedented move City Hall designated the museum as developer of the twelve block urban renewal district However the Seaport Museum whose membership became the largest of any history museum in the city was never adequately funded and it suffered with the real estate collapse of 1972 The city bankers and state bought the museum's fifty buildings and leased them back at terms that crippled the museum financially That led to the controversial construction of the Rouse Company's New Fulton Market 1983 and Pier 17 mall 1985 Lindgren chronicles these years of struggle as the defenders of the people oriented museum and historic district tried to save the original streets and buildings and the largest fleet of historic ships in the country from the schemes of developers bankers politicians and even museum administrators Though the Seaport Museum's finances were always tenuous the neighborhood and the museum were improving until the tragedy of 9 11 But the prolonged recovery brought on dysfunctional museum managers and indifference if not hostility from City Hall Superstorm Sandy then dealt a crushing blow Today the future of this pioneering museum designated by Congress as America's National Maritime Museum is in doubt as its waterfront district is eyed by powerful commercial developers While Preserving South Street Seaport reveals the pitfalls of privatizing urban renewal developing museum corporate partnerships and introducing a professional regimen over a people's movement it also tells the story of how a seedy decrepit piece of waterfront became a wonderful venue for all New Yorkers and visitors from around the world to enjoy This book will appeal to a wide audience of readers in the history and practice of museums historic preservation urban history and urban development and contemporary New York City This book is supported by a grant from Furthermore a program of the J M Kaplan Fund Picture History of the Andrea Doria William H., Jr.

Miller, 2013-01-24 Scores of rare photographs recall one of the most luxuriously outfitted ships of the 20th century 183 black and white photographs show views of lounges and staterooms shots of the ship in port more Alone in a Crowded Room Constance Bierkan, 2017-09-20 When five year old Lexie Saunders learns she is adopted and is told she is handpicked by Mother from a line up of baby cribs her life is forever changed Instead of feeling special Lexie becomes haunted by Mama the mystery lady who gave birth to her The disappearance of Mama leaves a hole in Lexie's heart keeping her separate and feeling different from others She often experiences acute loneliness even in the midst of a crowd of friends or family Were she to learn the reason for her adoption perhaps she would feel complete However searching for Mama means a possible rejection plus it might devastate the mother who has raised her Lexie Mama and Mother have each suffered greatly one the loss of a mother one the loss of a child and one the loss of fertility Together in the adoption triad they are like the notes of a musical chord inextricably intertwined for better or worse In recognition of her adopted grandparents and aunts unconditional love Lexie will eventually gain the courage to search for answers plaguing her over a lifetime Will they bring closure or open old wounds
