Lyndey Milans Fabulous Food:

The Getting of Garlic John Newton, 2018-10-01 The white colonisers of Australia suffered from Alliumphobia a fear of garlic Local cooks didn't touch the stuff and it took centuries for that fear to lift This food history of Australia shows we held onto British assumptions about produce and cooking for a long time and these fed our views on racial hierarchies and our place in the world Before Garlic we had meat and potatoes After Garlic what we ate got much more interesting But has a national cuisine emerged What is Australian food culture Renowned food writer John Newton visits haute cuisine or fine dining restaurants the cafes and mid range restaurants and heads home to the dinner tables as he samples what everyday people have cooked and eaten over centuries His observations and recipes old and new show what has changed and what hasn't changed as much as we might think even though our chefs are hailed as some of the best in the world Never Put All Your Eggs in One Bastard Peta Mathias, 2016-10-31 Funny passionate outrageous and honest this is a memoir about travel house renovations food music men and change I've escaped more houses than I've said Hail Marys Peta Mathias has been making major moves since leaving home to train as a nurse before living in Canada London and later France where she set up her own restaurant Although she returned to New Zealand writing food books and making television series she continued to yoyo back to Europe and started culinary tours to Spain Italy Morocco India Vietnam and the recurring attraction France In this memoir of sorts Peta looks back at the patterns of her life while she embarks on the next big stage in it selling her beloved cottage in Auckland to buy a dilapidated old house in Uzès in the south of France and transforming the old wreck into a stylish home and cooking school This new domesticity is set against her nomadic instincts and past history of running away from all conventional expectations of settling down Spiced with recipes the thrills and tribulations of reinventing yourself and her trademark humour this book is really about never putting all your eggs in one bastard
