Lyotard and the 'figural' in Performance, Art and Writing Kiff Bamford,2012-06-14 This original study offers a timely reconsideration of the work of French philosopher Jean Fran ois Lyotard in relation to art performance and writing How can we write about art whilst acknowledging the transformation that inevitably accompanies translations of both media and temporality That is the question that persistently dogs Lyotard's own writings on art and to which this book responds through reference to artists from the recently formed canon of performance art history including the myths of seminal figures Marina Abramovic and Vito Acconci and the controlled documentation of Gina Pane's actions Through the unstable untranslatable element that Lyotard calls the figural his thought is brought to bear on attempts to write a history of performance art and to question the paradoxically prescriptive demand for rules to govern re performance Kiff Bamford contextualises Lyotard's writings and approach with reference to both his contemporaries including Deleuze and Kristeva and the contemporary art about which they wrote whilst arguing for the pertinence of Lyotard's provocations today The Raymond Williams Reader John Higgins,2001-01-19 This carefully structured reader presents a survey of the whole body of Williams existing work providing existing readers with a new perspective on his writings and new readers with the opportunity to explore his ideas in depth The Passive Eye Branka Arsi?,2003 The Passive Eye is a revolutionary and historically rich account of Berkeley's theory of vision In this formidable work the author considers the theory of the embodied subject and its passions in light of a highly dynamic conception of infinity Arsic shows the profound affinities between Berkeley and Spinoza and offers a highly textual reading of Berkeley on the concept of an exhausted subjectivity The author begins by following the Renaissance universe of vision particularly the paradoxical elusive nature of mirrors then shows how this conception of vision was translated into the optical devices and in what way the various ways of deception could be conceived Reading Berkeley against the backdrop of competing theories in relation to Leibniz Spinoza Newton Malebranche Hume Locke Molyneux and others this book gives a meticulous historic reconstruction of Berkeley's theory This excellent scholarly work presents Berkeley's theory in a new and radical light The book presented in three parts begins by presenting the conceptions of vision prior to Berkeley's intervention In the second part the author moves through a careful study of Descartes theory of vision to arrive at Berkeley The third part addresses the author's version of Berkeley in which the eye and the image become inseparable due to the collapse of the universe of representation The problem of vision becomes not that of representation but of presentation Through an erudite historic reading of Berkeley's theory and astute comparative assessments the author uncovers Berkeley's place as a contemporary theoretician corresponding with such thinkers as Deleuze Lacan Foucault and Derrida

Art's Way

Out John Baldacchino,2012-03-26 In taking the critique of inclusion and entry as a first step Art's Way Out's discussion of art politics and learning aims to delineate what an exit pedagogy would look like where culture is neither seen as a benign form of inclusion nor as a hegemonic veil by which we are all subscribed to the system via popularized forms of artistic and cultural immediacy An exit pedagogy as prefigured in what could be called art's way out through the implements of negative recognition qua impasse would not only avoid the all too facile symmetrical dualism between conservative and progressive liberal and critical pedagogies but also seek the continuous referral of such symmetries by setting them aside and look for a way out of the confined edifices of education and culture per se An exit pedagogy seeks its way out by reasserting representation in the comedic the jocular and more effectively in the arts power of pausing as that most effective way by which aesthetics comes to effect in its autonomist and radical essence In this fluent limpid and scholarly work Baldacchino examines inter alia the problem of empathy in relation to art as an event or series of events drawing upon a wide and rich range of sources to inform what in effect is his manifesto With a profound understanding of its philosophical basis Baldacchino unfolds his argument in an internally consistent and elegantly structured way This is not a book to be dipped into to do so would miss the development of Baldacchino's philosophical position like an art work itself Art's Way Out has

coherent structure and a complex interrelation between form and content reflecting an artist's concern for getting things right Richard Hickman Cambridge University Although art has a limitless capacity to take on myriad responsibilities according to Baldacchino we also need to consider a way out because only then will we understand how art goes beyond the boundaries of possibility As he explains our way into reason also comes from an ability to move outside the limits that reasons sets This is the exit pedagogy that he advocates And here exit does not mean to leave but rather to reach beyond to extend and explore outside the borders we impose on learning teaching schooling and most forms of cultural agency The need to embrace the capacity of art to cycle beyond the contingencies we impose on it also helps to clarify the limits of inclusive arguments for deploying art education for various individual institutional and socio political ends art as self expression art as interdisciplinary method art as culture industry art as political culture art as social justice and so on This image invokes for me part of the legacy of Maxine Greene that Baldacchino revealed in his earlier text Education Beyond Education 2009 when he explored her thesis of the social imagination which is best achieved when teaching becomes reaching What Art's Way Out gives us is an exit strategy from the deadening tendency to ignore the enduring capacity of art to give life to learning teaching and the very culture of our being Graeme Sullivan Penn State University This is the sixth book authored by John Baldacchino the other most recent books being Education Beyond Education Self and the Imaginary in Maxine Greene's Philosophy 2009 and Makings of the Sea Journey Doubt and Nostalgia 2010 Currently Associate Dean at the School of Art Design University College Falmouth in England he was full time member of faculty at Columbia University's Teachers College in New York Gray's School of Art in Scotland and Warwick University in England Front cover image Monument to Marx we should have spoken more 2009 by Mike Ting
