Marian Devotion in Thirteenth-century French Lyric Daniel E. O'Sullivan,2005-01-01 Texts centred on the mother of Jesus abound in religious traditions the world over but thirteenth century Old French lyric stands apart both because of the enormous size of the Marian cult in thirteenth century France and the lack of critical attention the genre has garnered from scholars As hybrid texts Old French Marian songs combine motifs from several genres and registers to articulate a devotional message In this comprehensive and illuminating study Daniel E O Sullivan examines the movement between secular and religious traditions in medieval culture that Old French religious song embodies He demonstrates that Marian lyric was far more than a simple mindless imitation of secular love song On the contrary Marian lyric participated in a dynamic interplay with the secular tradition that different composers shaped and reshaped in light of particular doctrinal and aesthetic concerns It is a corpus that reveals itself to be far more malleable and supple than past readers have admitted With an extensive index of musical and textual editions of dozens of songs Marian Devotion in Thirteenth Century French Lyric brings a heretofore neglected genre to light

Arabic-Andalusian Poetry and the Rise of the European Love-Lyric 'Abdulwāhid Lu'lu'a, 2013 The idea of this book goes back to the author's college days in the Department of Foreign Languages in Baghdad where he learned that English poetry developed under the influence of foreign types of poetry including classical medieval and Renaissance He began to wonder whether Arabic poetry had a role in that development especially in the love lyric its main aspect He researched during a sabbatical year in 1971 1972 in Cambridge UK and collected more material during summer vacations and conferences in Europe By 2010 he had enough material to write this book and a probable second edition The book covers European poetry in the late Middle Ages and early Renaissance especially the rise of the first poetry in non Latin and on non ecclesiastical subjects as seen in the love lyrics of the troubadours The 12th century troubadour love lyric shows a clear influence of Arabic Andalusian poetry especially the new and non European attitude to love and women This new poetry spread to Sicily Italy and was popularized by Dante and his disciples A further development reached England in the 16th century best represented by Shakespeare
