M Fethullah Gulen Essays Perspectives Opinions:

M. Fethullah Gulen Light Incorporated, The, 2002-01-01      M. Fethullah Gulen: Essays - Perspectives - Opinions Tughra Books, 2004-01-01 An intellectual with a distinctive spiritual charisma a prolific writer and poet M Fethullah G len has been an extremely effective and popular scholar of Islam for the last 3 decades This work presents G len through a short biography a selection of various articles his views on modern education and its importance and how he has been presented in the media It is by no means a comprehensive presentation of his life and influence upon millions of people rather it is meant to serve as an introduction to those who desire a better understanding of G len s message and what it has accomplished over the years      M.F. Gülen Fethullah Gülen, 2002 Presents Gulen through a short biography a selection of various articles his views on modern education and its importance and how he has been presented in the media This book aims to serve as an introduction to those who desire a better understanding of Gulen s message and what it has accomplished over the years

A Muslim Sage Among Peers John D. Barton, 2017-10-01 This volume puts Fethullah Gulen and the Hizmet movement in dialogue with Christian theologians philosophers and organizations concerning areas of shared interest The Christian voices represented in these constructed dialogues are diverse contemporary and historical Catholic and Protestant theological and pragmatic While all of the essays explore overlaps and similarities between Gulen and these dialogue partners they also bring to the surface differences and critical assessments The result is a multi faceted conversation that invites us all into deeper levels of historical and theological imagination self reflection and collaborative service      Islamophobia and

Radicalization John L. Esposito, Derya Iner, 2018-10-13 While the themes of radicalization and Islamophobia have been broadly addressed by academia to date there has been little investigation of the crosspollination between the two Is Islamophobia a significant catalyst or influence on radicalization and recruitment How do radicalization and Islamophobia interact operate feed one another and ultimately pull societies toward polar extremes in domestic and foreign policy The wide ranging and global contributions collected here explore these questions through perspectives grounded in sociology political theory psychology and religion The volume provides an urgently needed and timely examination of the root causes of both radicalization and Islamophobia the cultural construction and consumption of radical and Islamophobic discourses the local and global contexts that fertilize these extreme stances and finally the everyday Muslim in the shadow of these opposing but equally vociferous forces      Embracing the World Ori Z. Soltes, 2013-08-07 This book is not a comprehensive study of Rumi and G len but it seeks to explore the places where the thought of the one is echoed in the thinking of the other either overtly or indirectly and to note ways in which the opposite is true that G len diverges from Rumi The book is also seeking to suggest some of the larger contexts in which the thinking of both resides Given the wide ranging aspects of their respective writings it should not be surprising if minimally we can find important foundation stones in both philosophy and theology in the edifices that they each construct      Minority Religions in Europe and the Middle East George D.

Chryssides,2018-08-06 Minority religions not only New Religious Movements are explored in this innovative book including the predicament of ancient religions such as Zoroastrianism old new religions such as Baha i and traditional religions that are minorities elsewhere The book is divided into two parts the gathering of data on religious minorities mapping and the ways in which governments and interest groups respond to them monitoring The international group examine which new religions exist in particular countries what their uptake is and how allegiance can be ascertained They explore a range of issues faced by minority religions encompassing official state recognition and registration unequal treatment in comparison with a dominant religion how changes in government can affect how they fare the extent to which members are free to practise their faith how they sometimes seek to influence politics and how they can be affected by harassment and persecution Bringing together debates concerning the social and political issues facing new religions in Europe and the Middle East this collection extends its focus to Middle Eastern minority faiths enabling exposition of spiritual movements such as the G len Movement Paganism in Israel and the Zoroastrians in Tehran

The Gülen Hizmet Movement Tamer Balci,Christopher L. Miller,2013-01-03 This volume covers the origins historical development and ideas of one of the largest and most influential Islamic movements in the world the G len Hizmet Movement GHM Founded during the Cold War under the inspiration of M Fethullah G len the GHM expanded to over 130 countries by the first decade of the twenty first century The movement s circumspect activism sheltered it from illiberal secular practices in Turkey and has guided it through the anxious post Cold War process of globalization This edited volume covers various characteristics of the movement from G len s unconventional oratory to his educational philosophy In addition the book covers G len s ideas on Islam and democracy and the GHM s indirect political engagement compared to the direct engagement of the Muslim Brotherhood Other chapters in the book cover the role of women in the movement the GHM s creation of an alternative public sphere for pious Muslims and the tension this creation instills in light of Secularism Theory which is analyzed comparatively with American religious pluralism The last two chapters question the effectiveness of interfaith dialogue activities promoted by the movement s adherents A concluding section seeks to synthesize this interdisciplinary scholarship in order to assess the GHM s overall gestalt as a social movement

The Hizmet Movement and Peacebuilding Mohammed Abu-Nimer,Timothy Seidel,2018-08-31

The Hizmet Movement and Peacebuilding assesses the peacebuilding implications and societal impact of the Hizmet Movement characterized as a pacifist and inclusive expression of Islam With a range of both supporters and critics the studies of the Hizmet Movement presented in these cases provide a counter to negative stereotypes with examples of positive educational institutions rooted in Islamic values The book includes contributions from scholars and practitioners around the world that critically explore the intersection of the movement and peacebuilding in countries such as Northern Iraq Nigeria Ethiopia Kazakhstan Kyrgyzstan Sri Lanka and the Philippines

The House of Service David Tittensor,2014 David Tittensor offers a groundbreaking new perspective on the G len movement a Turkish Muslim educational activist network that emerged in the 1960s and has grown into a global empire with an estimated worth of 25 billion. Named after its leader Fethullah Gülen, the movement has established more than 1 000 secular educational institutions in over 140 countries aiming to provide holistic education that incorporates both spirituality and the secular sciences. Despite the movement's success, little is known about how its schools are run or how Islam is operationalized. Drawing on thirteen months of ethnographic fieldwork in Turkey, Tittensor explores the movement's ideology and how it is practiced in the schools. His interviews with both teachers and graduates from Africa, Indonesia, Central Asia, and Turkey show that the movement is a missionary organization but of a singular kind; its goal is not simply widespread religious conversion but a quest to recoup those Muslims who have apparently lost their way and to show non-Muslims that Muslims can embrace modernity and integrate into the wider community. Tittensor also examines the movement's operational side and shows how the schools represent an example of Mohammad Yunus's social business model, a business with a social cause at its heart. The House of Service is an insightful exploration of one of the world's largest transnational Muslim associations and will be invaluable for those seeking to understand how Islam will be perceived and practiced in the future. Conversations on Fethullah Gülen and the Hizmet Movement Peter Barnes, Gregory Baum, 2015-12-16 This book entitled Conversations on Fethullah Gülen and the Hizmet Movement: Dreaming for a Better World is intended to represent an open perspective on the influence of the Hizmet Movement including Fethullah Gülen in particular on the theme of dreaming for a better world based on a variety of Christian and Muslim world views. This theme is approached from three specific perspectives: education and an emphasis on interfaith and intercultural dialogue; a comparison of various spiritualities; and a consideration of the shared dreams of the two religions. The essays in this volume are adapted from talks presented by eleven authors from Canada and the United States at the Gülen Symposium at Carleton University in October 2009. The panel discussion that followed the individual presentations enhanced the overall theme of dreaming for a better world. The symposium as a whole represented the positive potential that there is for the organization of forums of sharing that focus on this theme and on the three sub-themes. African Contextual Realities Rodney L. Reed, 2018-08-14 Everyone who has eyes to see acknowledges the growing importance of the African church to the future of global Christianity. But what does it mean for the church to take root in Africa? How should the message of the gospel and the practice of Christianity be contextualized for Africa? African Contextual Realities addresses many of the questions surrounding contextualization from a practical point of view and is the fruit of the 6th Annual Conference of the Africa Society of Evangelical Theology held in Nairobi in 2016. The book explores such questions as: In what ways should the mission of God be universally recognizable in every cultural context? In our efforts to contextualize, how do we avoid compromising the very gospel we are to proclaim? How can the African church wean itself away from dependency on the Western church? How does Christianity speak into some of the cultural and social issues arising out of contemporary African settings, issues like widow cleansing, Christian-Muslim relations, and peace building? All those who are interested to learn more about the contextualization of African Christianity will find this volume to be an important resource

Understanding Religious Pluralism Peter C. Phan, Jonathan Ray, 2014-08-01 Our contemporary world is fast becoming religiously diverse in a variety of ways Thanks to globalization and migration to mention only two current worldwide trends people of diverse and sometimes mutually hostile faiths are now sharing neighborhoods and encountering one another's religious traditions on a daily basis For scholars in religious studies and theology the issue to be examined is whether religious diversity is merely the result of historical development and social interaction or whether it is inherent in the object of belief part of the very structure of faith and our attempts to understand and express it The essays in this volume range from explorations of the impact of religious diversity on religious studies to examples of interfaith encounter and dialogue and current debates on Christian theology of religion These essays examine not only the theoretical issues posed by religious pluralism to the study of religion and Christian theology but also concrete cases in which religious pluralism has been a bone of contention Together they open up new vistas for further conversation on the nature and development of religious pluralism

Muslim and Christian Understanding W. El-Ansary, D. Linnan, 2010-11-26 This book explores A Common Word Between Us and You a high level ongoing Christian Muslim dialogue process The Common Word process was commenced by leading Islamic scholars and intellectuals as outreach in response to the Pope's much criticized Regensburg address of 2007

Crescent and Dove Qamar-ul Huda, 2010 Crescent and Dove looks at the relationship between contemporary Islam and peacemaking by tackling the diverse interpretations concepts and problems in the field of Islamic peacemaking It addresses both theory and practice by delving into the intellectual heritage of Islam to discuss historical examples of addressing conflict in Islam and exploring the practical challenges of contemporary peacemaking in Arab countries Turkey Iran Pakistan and Indonesia

Islam and Peacebuilding Ishan Yilmaz, 2013-02-27 The exploration of the contributions is made with regards to the title in hand by the thought and practice of the global movement associated with the Turkish Muslim scholar Fethullah Gulen The importance and distinctiveness of teaching of Gulen and the practice of the movement is that it is rooted in a confident Turkish Islamic heritage while being fully engaged with modernity It offers the possibility of a contextualised renewal of Islam for Muslims in the modern world while being fully rooted in the teachings of the Qu'ran and the Sunnah of the Prophet It advocates the freedom of religion while making an Islamic contribution to the wider society based on a commitment to service of others

Flying with Two Wings Virginia Garrard-Burnett, Yetkin Yildirim, 2011-07-12 Many people are of the opinion that our world faces a crisis a clash of civilizations from which we are unlikely to recover However Turkish born educator scholar and advocate for peace Fethullah Gulen believes that through education tolerance and dialogue peace can be achieved Gulen has spoken of what he calls peace islands in an analogy describing his non violent cooperative ideas about conflict resolution The perceived clash of civilizations may come in waves of violence and anger throughout the world but once these waves reach these peace islands they will retreat with the tide leaving the islands unscathed G len ideals provide the blueprint for these islands This collection as a whole attempts what each individual paper proposes a dialogue rooted in tolerance that accounts for the unique histories and assumptions of each member involved Proper interfaith dialogue requires first an encounter between two or more individuals then a willingness rooted in tolerance of each individual to engage with the other This definition of interfaith dialogue is central to G len s writings and indeed to the focus of this collection of papers Each author relates to G len s ideas in a unique way offering a diversity of perspectives that gives true dialogue its vibrant energy

Fethullah Gulen Jon Pahl,2019-04-22 In this first critical biography of Fethullah Gulen in English historian Jon Pahl takes us on a journey where we discover wisdom and controversy from 1940 s Turkey to the U S in the twenty first century Pahl tells the story of a pious Muslim boy from a tiny and remote Turkish village who on the one hand has inspired a global movement of millions of individuals dedicated to literacy social enterprise and interreligious dialogue but who on the other hand has been monitored by Turkish police seen as a threat by autocrats and recently declared number one enemy by the current Turkish dictator With lively prose and extensive research Pahl traces Fethullah Gulen s life and thought in its contexts states clearly his own positions and then lets readers draw their own conclusions from the evidence about this undeniably significant historical figure

The Gulen Hizmet Movement and Its Transnational Activities Sophia Pandya,Nancy Gallagher,2012 This volume of essays on the Gulen or Hizmet service movement a Turkish Sufi Muslim and humanitarian civil society group looks at the recent activities of its followers to practice their form of Islam and carry out collective interfaith projects at the international level It adds to the newly burgeoning discourse by focusing on the ways in which participants challenge ideological and sectarian boundaries Included are essays which discuss how the movement is organized structured and institutionalized in many parts of the world explore Turkey s global influence evaluate criticisms of the movement and suggest directions for further research While most previous scholarly attention has focused on the theological and philosophical ideas of Fethullah Gulen the movement s inspirational figure less attention has been paid to the ways in which participants have interpreted and carried out Gulen s messages in the contemporary world

Advancing Multicultural Dialogues in Education Richard Race,2017-10-27 This edited collection advances the call for continued multicultural dialogues within education Dialogue and education are the two most essential tools that can help tackle some of the biggest problems we are facing across the globe including fanaticism chauvinistic nationalism religious fundamentalism and racism The contributors to this book explore the necessity of sustained dialogue within the wider social and political sciences alongside in national and international politics where more multicultural voices need to be heard in order to make progress The book builds on existing evidence and literature to advocate in favour of this movement and highlights how important and significant multiculturalism and multicultural education remains It will be essential reading for students and academics working in the fields of education and sociology particularly those with an interest in social justice and multiculturalism
