Ma Ma Hu Hu An Introduction To Chinese Writing:

Ma Ma Hu Hu Peggy Goldstein, 1995-01-01 Explains how Chinese writing developed and demonstrates how to write over seventy five Chinese characters using detailed instructions and examples

A Cultural History of the Chinese Language Sharron Gu, 2011-12-22 Chinese one of the oldest active languages evolved over 5 000 years As such it makes for a fascinating case study in the development of language This cultural history of Chinese demonstrates that the language grew and responded to its music and visual expression in a manner very similar to contemporary English and other Western languages Within Chinese cultural history lie the answers to numerous questions that have haunted scholars for decades How does language relate to worldview What would happen to law after its language loses absolute binding power How do music visual and theatrical images influence literature By presenting Chinese not as a system of signs but as the history of a community this study shows how language has expanded the scope of Chinese imagination and offers a glimpse into the future of younger languages throughout the world

The Routledge Encyclopedia of the Chinese Language Chan Sin-Wai, 2016-04-14 The Routledge Encyclopedia of the Chinese Language is an invaluable resource for language learners and linguists of Chinese worldwide those interested readers of Chinese literature and cultures and scholars in Chinese studies Featuring the research on the changing landscape of the Chinese language by a number of eminent academics in the field this volume will meet the academic linguistic and pedagogical needs of anyone interested in the Chinese language from Sinologists to Chinese linguists as well as teachers and learners of Chinese as a second language The encyclopedia explores a range of topics from research on oracle bone and bronze inscriptions to Chinese language acquisition to the language of the mass media This reference offers a guide to shifts over time in thinking about the Chinese language as well as providing an overview of contemporary themes debates and research interests The editors and contributors are assisted by an editorial board comprised of the best and most experienced sinologists world wide The reference includes an introduction written by the editor which places the assembled texts in their historical and intellectual context The Encyclopedia of the Chinese Language is destined to be valued by scholars and students as a vital research resource

Romancing Human Rights Tamara C. Ho, 2015-01-31 When the world thinks of Burma it is often in relation to Nobel laureate and icon Aung San Suu Kyi But beyond her is another world one that complicates the overdetermination of Burma as a pariah state and myths about the high status of Southeast Asian women Highlighting and critiquing this fraught terrain Tamara C Ho s Romancing Human Rights maps Burmese women as real and imagined figures across the twentieth century and into the twenty first century More than a recitation of on the ground facts Ho s groundbreaking scholarship the first monograph to examine Anglophone literature and dynamics of gender and race in relation to Burma brings a critical lens to contemporary literature film and politics through the use of an innovative feminist queer methodology She crosses intellectual boundaries to illustrate how literary and gender analysis can contribute to discourses surrounding and informing human rights and in the process offers a new voice in the debates about representation racialization migration and spirituality Romancing Human Rights demonstrates how Burmese women break out of prisons both real and discursive by writing themselves into being Ho assembles an eclectic archive that includes George Orwell Aung San Suu Kyi critically acclaimed authors Ma Ma Lay and Wendy Law Yone and activist Zoya Phan Her close readings of literature and politicized performances by women in Burma the Burmese diaspora and the United States illuminate their contributions as authors cultural mediators and practitioner citizens Using flexible polyglot rhetorical tactics and embodied performances these authors creatively articulate alter native epistemologies regionally situated knowledges and decolonizing viewpoints that interrogate and destabilize competing transnational hegemonies such as U S moral imperialism and Asian militarized dictatorship Weaving together the fictional and non fictional Ho s gendered analysis makes Romancing Human Rights a unique cultural studies project that bridges postcolonial studies area studies and critical race ethnic studies a must read for those with an interest in fields of literature Asian and Asian American studies history politics religion and women s and gender studies
