

Title: Macbeth's Prophecies

When are we going to meet again?

When the fighting's over and the winners and losers are sorted out.

Until he slashed Macdonald in half, chopped off his head, put it on a stick and stuck it on top of our battlements.

This is the man that saved me from my enemy so I wasn't captured.

The Norwegian lord decided to send more troops into battles.

Whether they wanted to swim in blood or build a mountain of skulls, I don't know.

Didn't that scare Macbeth and Banquo?

Where will we meet?
On the heath.

But I feel faint and sick. My wounds need a doctor's care.

Good is bad and bad is good.
Fly on through a sick, dark world.
