Matrons And Marginal Women In Medieval Society:

Matrons and Marginal Women in Medieval Society Robert Edwards, Vickie L. Ziegler, 1995 Exploration of differences between women good women who were absorbed into society and those whose social role condemned them to its fringes

Women and Gender in Medieval Europe Margaret Schaus, 2006 Publisher description Women and Wealth in Late Medieval Europe T. Earenfight, 2010-03-15 The twelve essays in Women and Wealth in Late Medieval Europe re-examine the vexing issue of women money wealth and power from distinctive perspectives literature history architectural history using new archival sources The contributors examine how money and changing attitudes toward wealth affected power relations between women and men of all ranks especially the patriarchal social forces that constrained the range of women's economic choices Employing theories on gender culture and power this volume reveals wealth as both the motive force in gender relations and a precise indicator of other more subtle forms of power and influence mediated by gender Women In Dark

Age And Early Medieval Europe c.500-1200 Helen Jewell, 2006-10-04 The period 1200-1550 opened in a time of population expansion but went on to suffer the demographically cataclysmic effects of the plague beginning with the Black Death of 1347-51 The period dawned with a confident papacy and the Albigensian crusade against heretics and ended with the Catholic church torn apart by the Protestant Reformation Huge challenges were affecting society in various ways but they did not always affect men and women in the same ways Helen M Jewell provides a lively survey of western European women's activities and experiences during this timeframe The core chapters investigate The function of women in the countryside and towns The role of women in the ruling and landholding classes Women within the context of religion This practical centre of the book is embedded in an analysis of the gender theories inherited from the earlier Middle Ages which continued to underpin laws which restricted women's activity an education system which offered them inferior institutional provision and a church which denied them ministry Three individuals who vastly exceeded these expectations crashing through the glass ceilings of their day are brought together in a fascinating final chapter Combining a historiographical survey of trends over the last thirty years with more recent scholarship this is an indispensable introduction for anyone with an interest in women's history from the late Medieval period through to the Reformation The Pastoral Care of Women in Late Medieval England

Beth Allison Barr, 2008 A close examination of religious texts illuminates the way in which parish priests dealt with their female parishioners in the middle ages Urban Culture in Medieval Wales Helen Fulton, 2012-05-15 This collection of twelve essays describes aspects of town life in medieval Wales from the way people lived and worked to how they spent their leisure time Drawing on evidence from historical records archaeology and literature twelve leading scholars outline the diversity of town life and urban identity in medieval Wales While urban histories of Wales have charted the economic growth of towns in post-Norman Wales much less has been written about the nature of urban culture in Wales This book fills in some of the gaps about how people lived in towns and the kinds of cultural experience which helped to construct a Welsh urban identity

The Boundaries of the Human in Medieval English Literature

Dorothy Yamamoto, 2000 This study analyzes the fear of beastly transformation that recurs throughout Medieval literature Yamamoto explores how humans envisioned animals with human characteristics in bestiaries and literatures that involve aspects of the hunt and heraldry Minor texts as well as major works like Chaucer's Knight's Tale are investigated Additionally she explores both examples of humans changing into animal form and those that hover enigmatically between species as wild men and women Investigating this topic she looks to Alexander romances the poetry of Gower and other sources Women, dowries and agency Dana Wessell Lightfoot, 2016-05-16 This book examines labouring status women in late medieval Valencia as they negotiated the fundamentally defining experience of their lives marriage Through the use of notarial records and civil court cases it argues that the socio economic and immigrant status of these women greatly enhanced their ability to exercise agency not only in choosing a spouse and gathering dotal assets but also in controlling this property after they wed Although the prevailing legal code in Valencia appeared to give wives little authority over these assets court records demonstrate that they were still able to negotiate a measure of control In these actions labouring status wives exercised agency by protecting their marital goods from harm using legal statutes to their own advantage In looking at the experiences of labouring status women this monograph shifts the debate regarding women's access to and control of property in the medieval period Exploring a group previously unexamined by scholars it argues that our understanding of women's marital strategies changes challenging the central role of blood and marital kin in these negotiations Medieval Monstrosity and the Female Body Sarah Alison Miller, 2010-07-02 Miller argues that one incarnation of monstrosity in the Middle Ages the female body exists in special relation to medieval conceptualizations of the monstrous Because female corporeality is pervasive proximate and necessary it illustrates the supreme allure and danger of the monster thereby highlighting the powers and problems of teratology The Centre as Margin: Eccentric Perspectives on Art Maria de Lurdes Craveiro, Carla Alexandra Gonçalves, 2019-10-01 The Centre as Margin: Eccentric Perspectives on Art is a multi authored volume of collected essays that answer the challenge of thinking Art History and the Arts in a broader sense from a liminal point of view Its main goal is thus to discuss the margin from the centre drawing on its concomitance within study themes and subjects ontological and epistemological positions or research methodologies themselves Marginality eccentricity liminality and superfluity are all part of a dynamic relationship between centre and margin s that will be approached and discussed from the point of view of disciplines as different and as close as art history philosophy literature and design from medieval to contemporary art Resulting from recent research developed from the privileged viewpoint offered by the margin this volume brings together the contributions of young researchers along with the work of career scholars Likewise it does not obey a traditional or a rigid diachronic structure being rather organized in three major parts that organically articulate the different essays Within each of these parts in which the book is divided papers are sometimes organized according to their timeframes providing the reader with an encompassing though not encyclopedic overview of the common ground over which the various artistic disciplines build their methodological theoretical and thematic centers and margins The intended eccentricity of this volume and the original essays herein presented should provide researchers scholars students artists curators and the general reader interested in art with a refreshing approach to its various scientific strands
