Al-Ghazali, Averroes and the Interpretation of the Qur'an Avital Wohlman, 2009-12-04 This book examines the contrasting interpretations of Islam and the Qur'an by Averroes and Al Ghazali as a way of helping us untangle current impasses affecting each Abrahamic faith This has traditionally been portrayed as a battle between philosophy and theology but the book shows that Averroes was rather more religious and Al Ghazali more philosophical than they are usually portrayed The book traces the interaction between two Muslim thinkers showing how each is convinced of the existence of a Book in which God is revealed to rational beings to whom He has given commandments as well as of the excellence of Islamic society Yet they differ regarding the proper way to interpret the sacred

Book From this point of view their discussion does not address the contrast between philosophy and religion or that between reason and revelation that is so characteristic of the Middle Ages but rather explores differences at the heart of philosophical discussion in our day is there a level of discourse which will facilitate mutual comprehension among persons allowing them to engage in debate This interpretation of sacred texts illustrates the ways religious practice can shape believers readings of their sacred texts and how philosophical interpretations can be modified by religious practice Moreover since this sort of inquiry characterizes each Abrahamic tradition this study can be expected to enhance interfaith conversation and explore religious ways to enhance tolerance between other believers

The Poetics of Ancient and Classical Arabic Literature

Esad Durakovic,2015-04-24 Through analysing ancient and classical Arabic literature including the Qur'an from within the Arabic literary tradition this book provides an original interpretation of poetics and of other important aspects of Arab culture Ancient Arabic literature is a realm of poetry prose literary forms emerged rather late and even then remained in the shadow of poetic creative efforts Traditionally this literature has been viewed through a philologist's lens and has often been represented as materialistic in the sense that its poetry lacked imagination As a result Arabic poetry was often evaluated negatively in relation to other poetic traditions The Poetics of Ancient and Classical Arabic Literature argues that old Arabic literature is remarkably coherent in poetical terms and has its own individuality and that claims of its materialism arise from a failure to grasp the poetic principles of the Arabic tradition Analysing the Qur'an which is known for confronting the poetry of the time this book reveals that post-Qur'anic literature came to be defined against it Thus the constitution and interpretation of Arabic literature imposed itself as a particular exegesis of the sacred Text Disputing traditional interpretations by arguing that Arabic literature can only be assessed from within and not through comparison with other literary traditions this book is of interest to students and scholars of Islamic Studies Arabic Studies and Literary Studies

A Cultural History of Tragedy in the Middle Ages Jody Enders,Theresa Coletti,John T. Sebastian,Carol Symes,2021-05-20 For the first time a group of distinguished authors come together to provide an authoritative exploration of the cultural history of tragedy in the Middle Ages Reports of the so-called death of medieval tragedy they argue have been greatly exaggerated and for the Middle Ages the stakes couldn't be higher Eight essays offer a blueprint for future study as they take up the extensive but much neglected medieval engagement with tragic genres modes and performances from the vantage points of gender politics theology history social theory anthropology philosophy economics and media studies The result A recuperated medieval tragedy that is as much a branch of literature as it is of theology politics law or ethics and which at long last rejoins the millennium-long conversation about one of the world's most enduring art forms Each chapter takes a different theme as its focus forms and media sites of performance and circulation communities of production and consumption philosophy and social theory religion ritual and myth politics of city and nation society and family and gender and sexuality

Thinking Through Revelation Robert J. Dobie,2019-01-09 Navigating the seemingly competing claims of human reason and divine revelation to truth is without a doubt one of the central problems of medieval philosophy Medieval thinkers argued a whole gamut of positions on the proper relation of religious faith to human reason Thinking Through Revelation attempts to ask deeper questions what possibilities for philosophical thought did divine revelation open up for medieval thinkers How did the contents of the sacred scriptures of Judaism Christianity and Islam put into question established philosophical assumptions But most fundamentally how did not merely the content of the sacred books but the very mode in which revelation itself is understood to come to us as a book sent down from on high as a covenant between God and his people or as incarnate person create or foreclose possibilities for the resolution of the philosophical problems that the Abrahamic revelations themselves raised Averroes and Averroism in Medieval Jewish Thought ,2024-03-25

The Andalusian Muslim philosopher Averroes 1126 1198 is known for his authoritative commentaries on Aristotle and for his challenging ideas about the relationship between philosophy and religion and the place of religion in society Among Jewish authors he found many admirers and just as many harsh critics This volume brings together for the first time essays investigating Averroes s complex reception in different philosophical topics and among several Jewish authors with special attention to its relation to the reception of Maimonides Pablo Dreizik Professor of Philosophy at the University in Buenos Aires has featured this volume in a radio presentation on Radio Sefarad which represents the voice of the Federation of Jewish Communities of Spain The presentation is available here for all interested Radio Sefarad Metaphor and Imagination in Medieval Jewish Thought Dianna Lynn Roberts-Zauderer,2019-12-12 This book reveals how Moses ibn Ezra Judah Halevi Moses Maimonides and Shem Tov ibn Falaquera understood metaphor and imagination and their role in the way human beings describe God It demonstrates how these medieval Jewish thinkers engaged with Arabic Aristotelian psychology specifically with regard to imagination and its role in cognition Dianna Lynn Roberts Zauderer reconstructs the process by which metaphoric language is taken up by the imagination and the role of imagination in rational thought If imagination is a necessary component of thinking how is Maimonides idea of pure intellectual thought possible An examination of select passages in the Guide in both Judeo Arabic and translation shows how Maimonides attitude towards imagination develops and how translations contribute to a bifurcation of reason and imagination that does not acknowledge the nuances of the original text Finally the author shows how Falaquera s poetics forges a new direction for thinking about imagination The Palgrave Handbook of Screenwriting Studies Rosamund Davies,Paolo Russo,Claus Tieber,2023-07-27 This book provides an overview of the growing field of screenwriting research and is essential reading for both those new to the field and established screenwriting scholars It covers topics and concepts central to the study of screenwriting and the screenplay in relation to film television web series animation games and other interactive media and includes a range of approaches from theoretical perspectives to in depth case studies 44 scholars from around the globe demonstrate the range and depths of this new and expanding area of study As the chapters of this Handbook demonstrate shifting the focus from the finished film to the process of screenwriting and the text of the screenplay facilitates valuable new insights This Handbook is the first of its kind an indispensable compendium for both academics and practitioners

Free Will and Predestination in Islamic Thought Maria De Cillis, 2013-12-17 The subject of human free will versus divine predestination is one of the most contentious topics in classical Islamic thought By focusing on a theme of central importance to any philosophy of religion and to Islam in particular this book offers a critical study of the intellectual contributions offered to this discourse by three key medieval Islamic thinkers Avicenna al Ghazali and Ibn Arab Through investigation of primary sources Free Will and Predestination in Islamic Thought establishes the historical political and intellectual circumstances which prompted Avicenna al Ghazali and Ibn Arab's attempts at harmonization By analysing the theoretical and linguistic techniques which were employed to convey these endeavours this book demonstrates that the three individuals were committed to compromise between philosophical theological and mystical outlooks Arguing that the three scholars' treatments of the so-called qadwa l qadar decree and destiny and ikhtiyar free will issues were innovative influential and fundamentally more complex than hitherto recognized this book contributes to a fuller understanding of Islamic intellectual history and culture and will be useful to researchers interested in Islamic Studies Religion and Islamic Mysticism

Women and Leadership in Islamic Law David Solomon Jalajel, 2016-11-10 Islamic law has traditionally prohibited women from being prayer leaders and heads of state A small number of Muslims today are beginning to challenge this stance but they face considerable opposition from the broader Muslim community Women and Leadership in Islamic Law examines the assumption within much existing feminist scholarship that the patriarchal nature of pre-Islamic and early Muslim Near Eastern Society is the primary reason for the development of Islamic legal rulings prohibiting women from leadership positions It claims that the evolution of Islamic law was a complex process shaped by numerous cultural historical political and social factors as well as scriptural sources whose importance cannot be dismissed Therefore the book critically examines a broad survey of legal works from the four canonical Sunni schools of law to determine the factors that influenced the development of the legal rulings prohibiting women from assuming various leadership roles The passages that elaborate rulings about women's leadership are presented in translation as an appendix to the research and are then subjected to a variety of critical analyses to identify the reasons influences and assumptions underlying those rulings This is the first time works of all four schools of law have been subjected to this kind of analysis for the express purpose of determining the extent to which gender attitudes have influenced and determined the rulings This book will therefore be a vital resource for students and scholars of Islamic Studies Religious Studies and Gender Studies

Moral Rationalism and Shari'a Ali-Reza Bhojani, 2015-03-24 Moral Rationalism and Shar a is the first attempt at outlining the scope for a theological reading of Shar a based on a critical examination of why Adliyya theological ethics have not significantly impacted Sh readings of Shar a Within Sh works of Shar a legal theory us l al fiqh there is a theoretical space for reason as an independent source of normativity alongside the Qur n and the Prophetic tradition The position holds that humans are capable of understanding moral values independently of revelation Describing themselves as Adliyya literally the people of Justice this allows the Sh a who describe themselves as Adiliyya literally the People of Justice to attribute a substantive rational conception of justice to God both in terms of His actions and His regulative instructions Despite the Sh adoption of this moral rationalism independent judgments of rational morality play little or no role in the actual inference of Shar a norms within mainstream contemporary Sh thought Through a close examination of the notion of independent rationality as a source in modern Sh us l al fiqh the obstacles preventing this moral rationalism from impacting the understanding of Shar a are shown to be purely epistemic In line with the emic insider approach adopted these epistemic obstacles are revisited identifying the scope for allowing a reading of Shar a that is consistent with the fundamental moral rationalism of Sh thought It is argued that judgments of rational morality even when not definitively certain cannot be ignored in the face of the apparent meaning of texts that are themselves also not certain An Adliyya reading of Shar a demands that the strength of independent rational evidence be reconciled against the strength of any other apparently conflicting evidence such that independent judgments of rational morality act as a condition for the validity of precepts attributed to a just and moral God

Skepticism in Classical Islam Paul L. Heck, 2013-11-20 The first major treatment of skepticism in Islam this book explores the critical role of skeptical thinking in the development of theology in Islam It examines the way key thinkers in classical Islam faced perplexing questions about the nature of God and his relation to the world all the while walking a fine line between belief in God s message as revealed in the Qur an and the power of the mind to discover truths on its own Skepticism in Classical Islam reveals how doubt was actually an integral part of scholarly life at this time Skepticism is by no means synonymous with atheism It is rather the admission that one cannot convincingly demonstrate a truth claim with certainty and Islam s scholars like their counterparts elsewhere acknowledged such impasses only to be inspired to find new ways to resolve the conundrums they faced Whilst their conundrums were unique their admission of the limits of knowledge shares much with other scholarly traditions Seeking to put Islam on the map of the broader study of the history of scepticism this book will be of interest to scholars and students of Religion History and Philosophy

Ibn al-Haytham's Theory of Conics, Geometrical Constructions and Practical Geometry Roshdi Rashed, 2013-06-26 Theory of Conics Geometrical Constructions and Practical Geometry A History of Arabic Sciences and

Mathematics Volume 3 provides a unique primary source on the history and philosophy of mathematics and science from the mediaeval Arab world The present text is complemented by two preceding volumes of A History of Arabic Sciences and Mathematics which focused on founding figures and commentators in the ninth and tenth centuries and the historical and epistemological development of infinitesimal mathematics as it became clearly articulated in the oeuvre of Ibn al Haytham This volume examines the increasing tendency after the ninth century to explain mathematical problems inherited from Greek times using the theory of conics Roshdi Rashed argues that Ibn al Haytham completes the transformation of this area of activity into a part of geometry concerned with geometrical constructions dealing not only with the metrical properties of conic sections but with ways of drawing them and properties of their position and shape Including extensive commentary from one of world s foremost authorities on the subject this book contributes a more informed and balanced understanding of the internal currents of the history of mathematics and the exact sciences in Islam and of its adaptive interpretation and assimilation in the European context This fundamental text will appeal to historians of ideas epistemologists and mathematicians at the most advanced levels of research Inspired Knowledge in Islamic Thought Alexander

Treiger,2011-08-22 This book argues that the Muslim theologian Abu Hamid al Ghazali was a popularizer of philosophy more than its critic and that his theory of mystical cognition is based on the theory of prophecy of the philosopher Avicenna

Orientalism Revisited Ian Netton,2012-12-12 The publication of Edward Said s Orientalism in 1978 marks the inception of orientalism as a discourse Since then Orientalism has remained highly polemical and has become a widely employed epistemological tool Three decades on this volume sets out to survey analyse and revisit the state of the Orientalist debate both past and present The leitmotiv of this book is its emphasis on an intimate connection between art land and voyage Orientalist art of all kinds frequently derives from a consideration of the land which is encountered on a voyage or pilgrimage a relationship which until now has received little attention Through adopting a thematic and prosopographical approach and attempting to locate the fundamentals of the debate in the historical and cultural contexts in which they arose this book brings together a diversity of opinions analyses and arguments Arabic and Hebrew Love Poems in Al-Andalus Shari Lowin,2013-11-20 Arabic and Hebrew Love Poems in al Andalus investigates a largely overlooked subset of Muslim and Jewish love poetry in medieval Spain hetero and homo erotic love poems written by Muslim and Jewish religious scholars in which the lover and his sensual experience of the beloved are compared to scriptural characters and storylines This book examines the ways in which the scriptural referents fit in with or differ from the traditional Andalusian poetic conventions The study then proceeds to compare the scriptural stories and characters as presented in the poems with their scriptural and exegetical sources This new intertextual analysis reveals that the Jewish and Muslim scholar poets utilized their sacred literature in their poems of desire as more than poetic ornamentation in employing Qur nic heroes in their secular verses the Muslim poets presented a justification of profane love and sanctification of erotic human passions In the Hebrew lust poems which utilize biblical heroes we can detect subtle subversive and surprisingly placed interpretations of biblical accounts Moving beyond the concern with literary history to challenge the traditional boundaries between secular and religious poetry this book provides a new multidisciplinary approach to existing materials and will be of interest to students scholars and researchers of Islamic and Jewish Studies as well as to those with an interest in Hebrew and Arabic poetry of Islamic Spain
