On Race and Philosophy Lucius Outlaw, 2016-01-08 On Race and Philosophy is a collection of essays written and published across the last twenty years which focus on matters of race philosophy and social and political life in the West in particular in the US These important writings trace the author's continuing efforts not only to confront racism especially within philosophy but more importantly to work out viable conceptions of raciality and ethnicity that are empirically sound while avoiding chauvinism and invidious ethnocentrism The hope is that such conceptions will assist efforts to fashion a nation state in which racial and ethnic cultures and identities are recognized and nurtured contributions to a more just and stable democracy

Debating Race, Ethnicity, and Latino Identity Iván Jaksic, 2015-07-07 The philosopher Jorge J E Gracia engages fifteen prominent scholars on race ethnicity nationality and Hispanic Latino identity in the United States Their discussion joins two distinct traditions the philosophy of race begun by African Americans in the nineteenth century and the search for an understanding of identity initiated by Latin American philosophers in the sixteenth century Participants include Linda M Alcoff K Anthony Appiah

Richard J Bernstein Lawrence Blum Robert Gooding Williams Eduardo Mendieta and Lucius T Outlaw Jr and their dialogue reflects the analytic Aristotelian Continental literary Marxist and pragmatic schools of thought These intellectuals start with the philosophy of Hispanics Latinos in the United States and then move to the philosophy of African Americans and Anglo Americans in the United States and the philosophy of Latin Americans in Latin America Gracia and his interlocutors debate the nature of race and ethnicity and their relation to nationality linguistic rights matters of identity and Affirmative Action binding the concepts of race and ethnicity together in ways that open new paths of inquiry Gracia's Familial Historical View of ethnic and Hispanic Latino identity operates at the center of each of these discussions providing vivid access to the philosopher's provocative arguments while adding unique depth to issues that each of us struggles to understand African Philosophies Séverine Kodjo-Grandvaux, 2025-08-19 For many students of philosophy in the West philosophy is understood as a discipline stemming from Ancient Greece embracing the great thinkers of medieval and early modern Europe and continuing through to the present day To the extent that other philosophical traditions are taken into account these tend to be selected philosophical traditions of Asia Rarely is African philosophy considered in this context even though Africa and the West are deeply interconnected through long histories of colonialism and slavery In this important book Séverine Kodjo Grandvaux argues that a serious engagement with African philosophy is long overdue She shows that there is a rich tradition of philosophical thought in Africa that addresses issues ranging from the legacies of colonialism to the nature of time the state responsibility identity dignity and personhood An engagement with African philosophy also offers a fresh perspective on Western philosophy prompting us to interrogate ourselves and our own history Conceptualizing African philosophy becomes a way of conceptualizing the world and of understanding how to know ourselves through the gaze of another African Philosophies is not so much a survey of philosophy in Africa but rather an account of how the question of African philosophy emerged in the second half of the 20th century and of what we can learn from a serious engagement with African philosophy today It will be of great interest to students and scholars in philosophy in colonial and postcolonial studies and throughout the humanities
