the Human Soul Jeffrey C. Waddington, 2015-07-24 This book endeavors to examine and critically assess the theological anthropology of Jonathan Edwards with a view to considering how this anthropology coheres with his apologetic methodology Specifically the question has been raised whether Edwards doctrine of man is consistent with the picture painted of Jonathan Edwards by John Gerstner that he was the epitome of the classical apologist It is argued that Edwards practiced an eclectic apologetic sans apologetic self awareness In other words Edwards was a child of his training and time Models of the History of Philosophy Gregorio Piaia, Giuseppe Micheli, Giovanni Santinello, 2022-03-08 This is the fourth volume of Models of the History of Philosophy a collaborative work on the history of the history of philosophy dating from the Renaissance to the end of the nineteenth century The volume covers the so called Hegelian age in which the approach to the past of philosophy is placed at the foundation of doing philosophy up to identifying with the same philosophy A philosophy which is however understood in a different way as dialectical development as hermeneutics as organic development as eclectic option as a philosophy of experience as a progressive search for truth through the repetition of errors The material is divided into four large linguistic and cultural areas the German French Italian and British It offers the detailed analysis of 10 particularly significant works of the way of conceiving and reconstructing the general history of philosophy from its origins to the contemporary age This systematic exposure is preceded and accompanied by lengthy introductions on the historical background and references to numerous other works bordering on philosophical historiography Toward a History of Jewish Thought Zachary Alan Starr, 2020-03-09 The work is a history of Jewish beliefs regarding the concept of the soul the idea of resurrection and the nature of the afterlife The work describes these beliefs accounts for the origin of these beliefs discusses the ways in which these beliefs have evolved and explains why the many changes in belief have occurred Views about the soul resurrection and the afterlife are related to other Jewish views and to broad movements in Jewish thought and Jewish intellectual history is placed within the context of the history of Western thought in general That history begins with the biblical period and extends to the present time The Afterlife of the Platonic Soul Maha Elkaisy-Friemuth, John Myles Dillon, 2009 Plato s doctrine of the soul its immaterial nature its parts or faculties and its fate after death and before birth came to have an enormous influence on the great religious traditions that sprang up in late antiquity beginning with Judaism in the person of Philo of Alexandria and continuing with Christianity from St Paul on through the Alexandrian and Cappadocian Fathers to Byzantium and finally with Islamic thinkers from Al kindi on This volume while not aspiring to completeness attempts to provide insights into how members of each of these traditions adapted Platonist doctrines to their own particular needs with varying degrees of creativity The Critique of Power Axel Honneth, 1993-10-04 In this rich interpretation of the history of critical theory Axel Hormeth clarifies critical theory s central problems and emphasizes the social factors that should provide it with a normative and practical orientation Axel Honneth s Critique of Power is a rich interpretation of the history of critical theory which clarifies its central problems and emphasizes the social factors that should provide that theory with a normative and practical orientation Honneth focuses on the dialog between French and German social theory that was beginning at the time of Michel Foucault's death It traces the common roots of the work of Foucault and Jürgen Habermas to a basic text of the last generation of critical theorists Max Horkheimer and Theodor Adorno's Dialectic of Enlightenment and draws from this connection the outline of a program that might unite and surpass their seemingly irreconcilable methods of critiquing power structures In doing so Honneth provides a constructive and nonpolemical framework for comparisons between the two theorists And he presents a novel interpretation of Foucault's analysis of social systems Honneth traces the internal contradictions in critical theory through an analysis of Horkheimer's early programmatic writings the Dialectic of Enlightenment and Adorno's later social theoretical writings He shows how Habermas and Foucault in their distinctive ways reinserted the social world into critical theory but argues that neither operation has been wholly successful His cogent analysis redirects critical social theory in ways that can draw on the strengths and avoid the weaknesses of the two approaches

The Christian Faith Ernst Troeltsch, 1991-01-01 The first English translation of Troeltsch's Glaubenslehre The first attempt to do systematic theology from a deep Christian commitment with full awareness of Christianity's social and historical relativity

Jewish Philosophical Politics in Germany, 1789-1848 Sven-Erik Rose, 2014-08-05 In this book Rose illuminates the extraordinary creativity of Jewish intellectuals as they reevaluated Judaism with the tools of a German philosophical tradition fast emerging as central to modern intellectual life While previous work emphasizes the subversive dimensions of German Jewish thought or the inner antisemitism of the German philosophical tradition Rose shows convincingly the tremendous resources German philosophy offered contemporary Jews for thinking about the place of Jews in the wider polity Offering a fundamental reevaluation of seminal figures and key texts Rose emphasizes the productive encounter between Jewish intellectuals and German philosophy He brings to light both the complexity and the ambivalence of reflecting on Jewish identity and politics from within a German tradition that invested tremendous faith in the political efficacy of philosophical thought itself
