Philosophy Its Significance In Contempor:

Main Currents in Contemporary German, British, and American Philosophy W. Stegmüller, 2012-12-06 Dieter Henrich and Contemporary Philosophy Dieter Freundlieb, 2017-09-29 Dieter Henrich is one of the most respected and frequently cited philosophers in Germany today His extensive and highly innovative studies of German Idealism and his systematic analyses of subjectivity have significantly impacted on advanced German philosophical and theological debates Dieter Henrich and Contemporary Philosophy presents a comprehensive analysis of Henrich's work on subjectivity evaluating it in the context of contemporary debates in both continental and analytic traditions Familiarising the non German reader with an important development in contemporary German philosophy this book explains the significance of subjectivity for any philosophy that attempts to offer existential orientation and contrasts competing conceptions in analytic philosophy and in the social philosophy of Juergen Habermas Presenting Henrich's philosophy of subjectivity as a credible alternative to analytic philosophy of mind and a radical challenge to Heideggerian Habermasian neo pragmatist and postmodern positions Freundlieb argues that a philosophy of the kind developed by Henrich can regain the cultural significance philosophical thinking once possessed Dieter Freundlieb is Senior Lecturer in the School of Humanities Griffith University Australia Art and Its Significance Stephen David Ross, 1994-01-27 This anthology has been significantly expanded for this edition to include a wider range of contemporary issues The most important addition is a new section on multicultural theory including important and controversial selections ranging from discussions of art in other cultures to discussions of the appropriation of nonWestern art in Western cultures The material from Kant's Critique of Judgment has been expanded to include his writing on aesthetical ideas and the sublime The selections from Derrida have been updated and considerably expanded for this edition primarily from The Truth in Painting One of Derrida's most interesting provocations has also been added his letter to Peter Eisenman on architecture In addition the section on feminist theory now includes a chapter from Irigaray's Speculum of the Other Woman The anthology includes the most important writings on the theory of art in the Western tradition including selections from Plato Aristotle Hume Kant Hegel and Nietzsche the most important philosophical writings of the last hundred years on the theory of art including selections from Collingwood Langer Goodman Heidegger and Merleau Ponty contemporary Continental writings on art and interpretation including selections from Gadamer Ricoeur Derrida Lyotard and Foucault also writings on the psychology of art by Freud and Jung from the Frankfurt School by Benjamin Adorno and Marcuse in feminist theory multiculturalism and postmodernism The anthology also includes twentieth century writings by artists including discussions of futurism suprematism and conceptual art Stephen David Ross is Professor of Philosophy and Comparative Literature State University of New York at Binghamton Contemporary Jewish Philosophies William E. Kaufman, 1992 Here is a systematic critique of the theological and philosophical views of the major Jewish thinkers of the 20th century The pattern of the book is one of challenge and response with the purpose of activating

the mind of the reader to the vital issues of Jewish theology in our own time New forms of Jewish philosophic inquiry in response to the Holocaust the American Jewish experience and the establishment of the state of Israel makes necessary a clear and comprehensive framework in which contemporary Jewish thought may be studied Kaufman traces the effects of this new stage of philosophical thinking through the writings of such luminaries as Franz Rosenzweig Martin Buber Leo Baeck and Mordecai Kaplan as well as seeking the sources of the thought of such contemporary figures as Emil Fackenheim Jacob Agus Arthur Cohen Eugene Borowitz Richard Rubenstein and Abraham Joshua Heschel in the traditional roots of covenant salvation and transcendence

Introduction to Modern Philosophy Cyril Edwin Mitchinson Joad, 1924 Select bibliography pages 111 112

Dictionary of Modern American Philosophers John R. Shook, 2005-01-01 The Dictionary of Modern American Philosophers includes both academic and non academic philosophers and a large number of female and minority thinkers whose work has been neglected It includes those intellectuals involved in the development of psychology pedagogy sociology anthropology education theology political science and several other fields before these disciplines came to be considered distinct from philosophy in the late nineteenth century Each entry contains a short biography of the writer an exposition and analysis of his or her doctrines and ideas a bibliography of writings and suggestions for further reading While all the major post Civil War philosophers are present the most valuable feature of this dictionary is its coverage of a huge range of less well known writers including hundreds of presently obscure thinkers In many cases the Dictionary of Modern American Philosophers offers the first scholarly treatment of the life and work of certain writers This book will be an indispensable reference work for scholars working on almost any aspect of modern American thought

Contemporary Philosophical Naturalism and Its Implications Bana Bashour, Hans D. Muller, 2013-10-15 One of the most pervasive and persistent questions in philosophy is the relationship between the natural sciences and traditional philosophical categories such as metaphysics epistemology and the mind Contemporary Philosophical Naturalism and Its Implications is a unique and valuable contribution to the literature on this issue It brings together a remarkable collection of highly regarded experts in the field along with some young theorists providing a fresh perspective This book is noteworthy for bringing together committed philosophical naturalists with one notable and provocative exception thus diverging from the growing trend towards anti naturalism The book consists of four sections the first deals with the metaphysical implications of naturalism in which two contributors present radically different perspectives The second attempts to reconcile reasons and forward looking goals with blind Darwinian natural selection The third tackles various problems in epistemology ranging from meaning to natural kinds to concept learning The final section includes three papers each addressing a specific feature of the human mind its uniqueness its representational capacity and its morality In this way the book explores the important implications of the post Darwinian scientific world view

Natural Philosophy and Philosophies - Part 2 Marcin J. Schroeder, Gordana Dodig-Crnkovic, 2020-11-19 Modern technology has eliminated barriers posed by geographic distances between people around the globe making the world more interdependent. However, in spite of global collaboration within research domains, fragmentation among research fields persists and even escalates. Disintegrated knowledge has become subservient to the competition in the technological and economic race, leading in the direction chosen not by reason and intellect but rather by the preferences of politics and markets. To restore the authority of knowledge in guiding humanity, we have to reconnect its scattered isolated parts and offer an evolving and diverse but shared vision of objective reality connecting the sciences and other knowledge domains and informed by and in communication with ethical and esthetic thinking and being. This collection of articles responds to the second call from the journal Philosophies to build a new networked world of knowledge with domain specialists from different disciplines interacting and connecting with the rest of the knowledge producing and knowledge consuming communities in an inclusive extended natural philosophic human centric manner. In this process of reconnection, scientific and philosophical investigations enrich each other with sciences informing philosophies about the best current knowledge of the world, both natural and human made, while philosophies scrutinize the ontological, epistemological and methodological foundations of sciences.

Crisis and Critique: Philosophical Analysis and Current Events Anne Siegetsleitner, Andreas Oberprantacher, Marie-Luisa Frick, Ulrich Metschl, 2021-06-08 Contemporary deep reaching changes, whether in financial or real economy in Europe's political conditions in the context of scientific theories in the field of global environmental security or gender relations, are also a challenge to philosophy. The volume comprises cutting edge scholarly articles from renowned philosophers with various geographical backgrounds and from different philosophical strands. Next to investigating general questions as to the relation of philosophy and critique, what is philosophical critique and which philosophical concepts of critique are of importance today? Where do we need it most? Where are its limits? The articles focus on issues like theories of democracy and modes of election, the roles of emotions in the political realm, challenges from a widespread discontent in society to politics and science, changes to social identities and different theoretical approaches to social identity formation. The book is indispensable for all who are interested in what contemporary philosophy has to say on crucial issues of our time.

Badiou and the Political Condition Marios Constantinou, 2014-02-12 The essays in this volume, including a new piece by Badiou himself, reflect the formative traditions that shape the background of his political thought. They intervene critically and evaluate the present state of Badiou's work while also breaking new ground.
