Creative Ruptions for Emergent Educational Futures Kerry Chappell, Chris Turner, Heather Wren, 2024-06-30 This open access book aims to show how creative ruptions disturbances or commotions can lead to the emergence of ethical care full educational futures Grounded in empirical and theoretical research undertaken from posthuman decolonial new materialist and feminist perspectives this edited volume questions historical and current assumptions as to how education is structured and enacted and provides examples and tools illustrating how to create and work with creative ruptions Under the guidance of an experienced editorial team the authors demonstrate how creative ruptions can respond to various wicked problems through the design and enactment of transformative pedagogies and accompanying research Including consideration of how we can grow our emotional repertoires from anxiety to include hope and courage the book explores how creativity might expand the horizons of personal social and political possibility that take shape within and ultimately determine education and its futures Offering theoretically driven and practically grounded transdisciplinary examples of alternative educational futures this volume is an ideal reading for those interested in the intersecting fields of Possibilities Studies in Education Creativity in Education Educational Futures Pedagogy and related disciplines

Teaching Without Indoctrination: Implications for Values Education Charlene Tan, 2008-01-01 This book presents a comprehensive well structured and enlightening survey of the problem of indoctrination as manifested in scientific moral religious and social fields within the context of an intellectual milieu that prides itself in being liberal and democratic In the craft of intellectual midwifery which she masters Professor Tan has but one prescription constant reflection but not of the solipsistic or sterile kind Rather she advocates fearless questioning within the bounds of a community of learning which is what schools should ideally be wherein we all recognise ourselves to be at once students and teachers Professor Alejo Jos G Sison Rafael Escol Chair of Professional Ethics University of Navarra Pamplona Spain

Rationality Redeemed? Harvey Siegel, 2013-12-19 In Educating Reason Harvey Siegel presented the case regarding rationality and critical thinking as fundamental education ideals In Rationality Redeemed a collection of essays written since that time he develops this view responds to major criticisms raised against it and engages those critics in dialogue In developing his ideas and responding to critics Siegel addresses main currents in contemporary thought including feminism postmodernism and multiculturalism

Competency-based Language Teaching in Higher Education María Luisa Pérez Cañado, 2012-11-28 Spanning the divide between the theory and praxis of competency based teaching in tertiary language education this volume contains invaluable practical guidance for the post secondary sector on how to approach teach and assess competencies in Bologna adapted systems of study It presents the latest results of prominent European research projects programs of pedagogical innovation and thematically linked academic networks Responding to a profound need for a volume addressing the practical aspects of the newly designed language degrees now being rolled out across Europe this essential contribution pools the insights of a prestigious set of scholars practitioners and policy makers from diverse parts of Europe and the US It will inform crucial decisions about instituting and evaluating competencies in a new generation of language studies programmes

Beyond the Comparative John C. Weidman, W. James Jacob, 2012-01-01 We are pleased to introduce this inaugural volume in the PSCIE Series Beyond the Comparative Advancing Theory and Its Application to Practice which expands on the life work of University of Pittsburgh Professor Rolland G Paulston 1929 2006 Recognized as a stalwart in the field of comparative and international education Paulston s most widely recognized contribution is in social cartography He demonstrated that mapping comparative international and development education CIDE is no easy task and depending on the perspective of the mapper there may be multiple cartographies to chart The 35 contributors to this volume representing a range of senior and junior scholars from various CIDE backgrounds and perspectives celebrate the life and work of Paulston by addressing issues perspectives and approaches related to charting the future course of the field The volume reports on new research in several genres as well as conceptual analysis As the title suggests authors were encouraged to go beyond established canons of CIDE The cover art The CIDE Theoretical Compass was conceptualized by the editors and depicts that theory selection and theory generation are an ongoing and important process in comparative international and development education CIDE The image was designed by artist Natalie Jacob which positions the CIDE Theoretical Compass over Rolland G Paulston s 1993 concentric circle map

Teachable Moments and the Science of Education Greg Seals, 2018-08-06 This book develops a general theory of autonomous teaching by examining a mysterious educational idea the teachable moment By formulating an understanding of the teachable moment as predicated upon educational energy this book takes up John Dewey s view of teaching to articulate a law like scientifically oriented pedagogical theory By offering a testable hypothesis about effective teaching through an innovative reading of Dewey s law this book also provides insights into changes in school practice and schooling policy consonant with an understanding of teaching as a science

Technology and Education Sharon Y. Tettegah, Richard C. Hunter, 2006-01-11 Provides a presentation of policies and practices of technology in K12 schools This book lays out the foundation of what schools should be concerned about involving various aspects of technology and its impact on school administration and teaching It introduces technology policy and philosophical discussions on the use of technology in schools

Argumentation in Science Education Sibel Erduran, María Pilar Jiménez-Aleixandre, 2007-12-06 Our conversations about arguments began in Nashville in the Spring of 1996 in Richard Duschl s doctoral seminar that we were both attending Marilar Jim nez Aleixandre as a visiting scholar at Vanderbilt University Jim nez Aleixandre and Duschl were designing authentic problems in genetics for the University of Santiago de Compostela based RODA project aimed at engaging high school students in argumentation Erduran and Duschl had been working on Project SEPIA extending their work in Pittsburgh schools to the design of curricula that support epistemological aspects of scientific inquiry including argumentation In that spring we attended a NARST s sion in St Louis where Gregory Kelly Steven Druker and Catherine Chen presented a paper about argumentation As a consequence a symposium about argumentation was organised possibly the first of its kind at the 1997 NARST meeting in Chicago including papers from Kelly and colleagues and from Jim nez Aleixandre Bugallo and Duschl The symposium was attended among others by Rosalind Driver who had just submitted an application for funding of an argumentation project based at King s College London a project Erduran would incidentally work on after Driver s untimely death From this time frame in the 1990s to the present day argumentation studies in science education have increased at a rapid pace from stray papers for which we were unable to find an appropriate strand in a conference to a wealth of research base exploring ever more sophisticated issues

Cultural Diversity, Liberal Pluralism and Schools Neil

Burtonwood,2006-09-27 With debates on the relationship between cultural diversity and the role of schools raging on both sides of the Atlantic the time is apt for a philosophical work that shines new light on the issues involved and that brings a fresh perspective to a political and emotive discussion Here Burtonwood brings the writing of British philosopher Isaiah Berlin to bear on the subject of multiculturalism in schools the first time that his work has been applied to matters of education Tackling the often contradictory issues surrounding liberal pluralism this book poses serious questions for the education system in the US and in the UK

Education's Epistemology Harvey Siegel,2017

Education s Epistemology extends and defends Siegel s reasons conception of critical thinking developing it in both philosophical and educational directions Of particular note is its emphasis on epistemic quality and epistemic rationality and its concerted defense of universal educational and philosophical ideals in the face of multicultural postmodern and other challenges

Moral

Education and the Ethics of Self-Cultivation Michael A. Peters,Tina Besley,Huajun Zhang,2021-07-30 Educational philosophies of self cultivation as the cultural foundation and philosophical ethos for education have strong and historically effective traditions stretching back to antiquity in the classical cradle civilizations of China and East Asia India and Pakistan Greece and Anatolia focused on the cultural traditions in Confucianism Taoism and Buddhism in the East and Hellenistic philosophy in the West This volume in East West dialogues in philosophy of education examines both Confucian and Western classical traditions revealing that although each provides its own distinct figure of the virtuous person they are remarkably similar in their conception and emphasis on moral self cultivation as a practical answer to how humans become virtuous The collection also examines self cultivation in Japanese traditions and also the nature of Michel Foucault s work in relation to ethical and aesthetic ideals of Hellenistic self cultivation

Computing and Educational Studies Eugene F. Provenzo,

Jr.,2014-05-01 This special issue calls for a greater awareness of computing as a critical area of study for those interested in educational studies Its purpose is to open up a wider dialogue about computing and education than has previously existed in the field The questions raised provide the basis for a lively discussion and analysis of the role of educational studies in interpreting the role of computing in our culture and educational system This issue also provides a model for exploring other topics of similar significance and importance to the field in future issues of the journal

Becoming of Two Minds about

Liberalism Dwight R. Boyd, 2015-12-22 Integrating scholarly essays and personal reflections Becoming of Two Minds chronicles a unique philosophical odyssey a developmental journey of coming to recognize the inadequacy of liberalism in the face of some egregious social problems such as racism while also appreciating its strengths A Personal Prologue describing the main intellectual influences on the author locates the origins of the journey and functions as a backdrop for its interpretation Fifteen chronologically organized essays divided into three parts identify significant positions of contrast between the two minds establishing the direction of the journey and indications of change Essays in Part I reflect early allegiance to liberalism and explore its core ideas as they should be interpreted to guide moral education Those in Part II express disaffection with that allegiance taking a distinctly critical stance toward liberalism Part III then consists of essays that represent attempts to come to terms with the becoming of two minds exemplified in the tension between the ideas about liberalism expressed in Parts I and II A Personal Preface also introduces each of the fifteen essays These Prefaces address questions such as why the problem of the essay was chosen why it was approached in a particular way and what place the essay assumes in the direction the author's journey takes

Emmanuel Levinas and His Interlocutors Hanoch Ben-Pazi, 2025-09-30 The philosophy of Emmanuel Levinas introduces a groundbreaking shift in ethical discourse by prioritizing the uniqueness of the Other Levinas redefines morality by emphasizing the existential precedence of the Other over the self challenging the self-centered nature of modern individualism This book offers a fresh perspective on Levinas thought contextualizing his philosophy through his intellectual influences dialogues with contemporaries and imagined conversations with thinkers from both Eastern and Western traditions It provides a profound exploration of the interplay between Jewish thought and universal philosophy bridging particularistic commitments and global ethical perspectives Accessible yet deeply scholarly the book brings Levinas philosophy into broader social religious political and interpretative contexts making it an essential read for intellectual audiences

Teaching with Emotion Michalinos Zembylas, 2006-04-01 The purpose of this book is to provide new theoretical methodological and empirical directions in research on teacher emotion An attempt is made to encourage a missing conversation in the area of emotions in teaching by invoking a discussion of ideas that explore how discursive political and cultural aspects define the experience of teacher emotion I begin to build an analysis upon which the role of emotion emotional rules and emotional labor in curriculum and teaching might be investigated This book includes both conceptual chapters and chapters based on empirical work and in particular a three year ethnographic study with an early childhood teacher in the context of science teaching that together illustrate new approaches and perspectives in researching and theorizing about emotion in teaching Essentially then there are two overlapping aims in this book First to critically examine some of the contemporary ways in which emotions have been conceptualized and understood in teaching and second to explore the role of emotion in teaching through different methodologies and theorizations

Philosophy in Schools Sara Goering, Nicholas J. Shudak, Thomas E.

Wartenberg,2013-03-05 All of us ponder the big and enduring human questions Who am I Am I free What should I do What is good Is there justice Is life meaningful but this kind of philosophical interrogation is rarely carefully explored or even taken seriously in most primary and secondary school settings However introducing philosophy to young people well before they get to college can help to develop and deepen critical and creative thinking foster social and behavioral skills and increase philosophical awareness Philosophy in Schools An Introduction Philosophers and Teachers is an invaluable resource for students and practitioners who wish to learn about the philosophy for children movement and how to work its principles into their own classroom activities The volume provides a wealth of practical information including how to train educators to incorporate philosophy into their daily lessons best practices and activity ideas for every grade level and assessment strategies With contributions from some of the best practitioners of philosophy for children Philosophy in Schools is a must have resource for students of philosophy and education alike Education and Practice Joseph Dunne,Pádraig

Hogan,2004-08-06 This volume explores the distinctiveness of teaching and learning as a human undertaking and the nature and scope of the philosophy of education An investigation of the distinctiveness of teaching and learning as a human undertaking Provides fresh thinking on the nature and scope of the philosophy of education Draws on the original insights of an international group of experts in philosophy and education Includes an interview on education with Alasdair MacIntyre together with searching investigations of his views by other contributors International Handbook of Research on

Environmental Education Robert B. Stevenson,Michael Brody,Justin Dillon,Arjen E.J. Wals,2013-05-02 The environment and contested notions of sustainability are increasingly topics of public interest political debate and legislation across the world Environmental education journals now publish research from a wide variety of methodological traditions that show linkages between the environment health development and education The growth in scholarship makes this an opportune time to review and synthesize the knowledge base of the environmental education EE field The purpose of this 51 chapter handbook is not only to illuminate the most important concepts findings and theories that have been developed by EE research but also to critically examine the historical progression of the field its current debates and controversies what is still missing from the EE research agenda and where that agenda might be headed Published for the American Educational Research Association AERA Resources in Education ,2000 The Socratic Classroom Sarah Davey

Chesters,2012-09-13 This book provides a framework for a collaborative inquiry based approach to teaching and learning suitable not only for formal educational settings such as the school classroom but for all educational settings For teachers educationalists philosophers and philosophers of education The Socratic Classroom presents a theoretical as well as practical exploration of how philosophy may be adopted in education The Socratic Classroom captures a variety of philosophical approaches to classroom practice that could be broadly described as Socratic in form There is an exploration of three distinct approaches that make significant contributions to classroom practice Matthew Lipman s Community of Inquiry Leonard

Nelson's Socratic Dialogue and David Bohm's Dialogue All three models influence what is termed in this book as Socratic pedagogy Socratic pedagogy is multi dimensional and is underpinned by generative evaluative and connective thinking These terms describe the dispositions inherent in thinking through philosophical inquiry This book highlights how philosophy as inquiry can contribute to educational theory and practice while also demonstrating how it can be an effective way to approach teaching and learning Audience This publication is suited to educators teacher educators philosophers of education and philosophers in general It has a theoretical and practical focus making it truly interdisciplinary
