Philosophy Of Religion A Universalist Perspective

Jeff Astley, Leslie J. Francis

Philosophy Of Religion A Universalist Perspective:

Philosophy of Religion Marvin C. Sterling, 1993 Philosophy of Religion seeks to clarify and evaluate the key concepts of religion as well as those which are uniquely characteristic of particular religious traditions The Philosophy of Religion Linda Zagzebski, 2007-03-12 An accessible and engaging introduction to the philosophy of religion Written with verve and clarity by a leading philosopher and contributor to the field Places key issues and debates in the philosophy of religion in their historical contexts highlighting the conditions that led to the development of the field Addresses the core topics among them the the existence of God the problem of evil death and the afterlife and the problem of religious diversity Rich with argument yet never obtrusive Forms part of the Fundamentals of Philosophy series in which renowned scholars explore the fundamental issues and core problems in the major sub disciplines of philosophy The Essentials of Universalism

Nicholas Hagger, 2024-10-29 In A Baroque Vision Nicholas Hagger chose key passages from his verse that convey the thread of his Baroque vision In its companion volume The Essentials of Universalism he chooses key passages from his prose works that convey the thread of his Universalism which grew out of his Baroque perspective Hagger s literary mystical religious philosophical historical cultural and political Universalist writings are innovatory In 60 books he has set out a new approach to literature and identified its fundamental theme as a quest for the One an infinite Reality perceived as Light that alternates with condemnation of social follies and vices presented many mystics illuminations seen the Light as the common essence of all religions created a new philosophy of Universalism that restates the unity of the universe and challenges modern philosophy charted the history of the rise and fall of civilisations reconciled the divisions within world culture and proposed a democratic World State with limited supranational power to abolish war and bring in a Golden Age of peace and prosperity The Essentials of Universalism is a stunning anthology of his writings that covers all aspects of his thinking and range Chosen by the author himself the excerpts include the most important passages in the Hagger canon and are representative of his vast output Since the book was completed Hagger has brought out The Algorithm of Creation the first ever statement of a Theory of Everything and a further development of his Universalism This anthology makes clear the main thrust of his life s work and is required reading for all interested in seeing how his many innovations connect Difference in

Philosophy of Religion Philip Goodchild, 2024-11-01 This title was first published in 2003 Can difference be subordinated to identity simplicity or diversity Or does it make a difference to the entire way in which we think This book challenges the dominant agenda in the discipline of philosophy of religion by exploring issues of difference that have hitherto been obscured It draws together some of the most innovative work in philosophical thinking about religion by some of the most creative and radical new thinkers in the field Moving beyond debates between believers and skeptics the contributors draw on critical theory to address differences in rationality gender tradition culture and politics showing how it is possible to think differently Assumptions about rational neutrality belief tradition experience and identity that undergird the rational exploration of classical theism are deconstructed. Instead it becomes important to explore a critical ethical reasoning religious performance internal religious tensions location in culture and a relation to exteriority as the groundwork for a future philosophy of religion. The challenging new directions for inquiry presented in this volume offer philosophers of religion theologians and critical and cultural theorists fresh insights into ways of addressing problems of religious difference. Why Religion? Towards a Critical Philosophy of Law, Peace and God Dawid Bunikowski, Alberto Puppo, 2020-02-11. This book examines the relation between religion and jurisprudence God and peace respectively. It argues that in order to elucidate the possible role religion can play in the contemporary world it is useful to analyse religion by associating it with other concepts. Why peace? Because peace is probably the greatest promise made by religions and the greatest concern in the contemporary world. Why jurisprudence? Because quoting Kelsen's famous book Peace through Law peace is usually understood as something achievable by international legal instruments. But what if we replace Peace through Law with Peace through Religion? Does law as an instrument for achieving peace incorporate a religious dimension? Is law ultimately a religious and normative construction oriented to peace to the protection of humanity in order to keep humans from the violence of nature? Is the hope for peace rational or just a question of faith? Is religion itself a question of faith or a rational choice? Is the relatively recent legal concept of responsibility to protect a secular expression of the oldest duty of humankind? The book follows the structure of interdisciplinary research in which the international legal scholar the moral philosopher the philosopher of religion the theologian and the political scientist contribute to the construction of the necessary bridges. Moreover it gives voice to different monotheistic traditions and more importantly it analyses religion in the various dimensions in which it determines the authors' cultures as a set of rituals as a source of moral norms as a universal project for peace and as a political discourse.

The Evangelical Universalist Gregory MacDonald, Robin A. Parry, 2012-05-11. Can an orthodox Christian committed to the historic faith of the church and the authority of the Bible be a universalist? Is it possible to believe that salvation is found only by grace through faith in Christ and yet to maintain that in the end all people will be saved? Can one believe passionately in mission if one does not think that anyone will be lost forever? Could universalism be consistent with the teachings of the Bible? Gregory MacDonald argues that the answer is yes to all of these questions. Weaving together philosophical theological and biblical considerations MacDonald seeks to show that being a committed universalist is consistent with the central teachings of the biblical texts and of historic Christian theology. This second edition contains a new preface providing the backstory of the book two extensive new appendices a study guide and a Scripture index. Orientalism and Religion Richard King, 2013-04-03. Orientalism and Religion offers us a timely discussion of the implications of contemporary post colonial theory for the study of religion. Richard King examines the way in which notions such as mysticism religion Hinduism and Buddhism are taken for granted. He shows us how religion needs to be reinterpreted along the lines of cultural studies. Drawing on a variety of post structuralist and post colonial thinkers such as Foucault Gadamer Said and Spivak King provides us with a challenging series of reflections on the nature of Religious Studies and Indology Félix Ravaisson Victor Emma-Adamah, Simone Kotva, Clare Carlisle, 2025-01-23 Félix Ravaisson Fragments on Philosophy and Religion comprises translations from Ravaisson's notes on the history and philosophy of religion dating from 1850 to 1900 They address the history of religions ancient Greek thought Christian theology and the philosophy of revelation Bringing these texts to an English audience for the first time the editors place the fragments in the context of Ravaisson's philosophy as a whole These unpublished fragments show Ravaisson's lifelong grappling with fundamental questions of theology They demonstrate that the research into mystery religions mysticism and the Christian liturgy to which he devoted the end of his long career was not a rupture with the philosophy of his early years In these texts Ravaisson elaborated his philosophy of revelation sacrifice and love and continued the story he had begun with his study of Aristotle Ernst Bloch and His Contemporaries Ivan Boldyrev, 2014-02-27 Ernst Bloch and His Contemporaries is a much needed concise yet comprehensive overview of Ernst Bloch's early and later thought It fills an important gap in research on the history of German thought in the 20th century by reconstructing the contexts of Bloch's philosophy while focusing on his contemporaries Georg Lukács Walter Benjamin and Theodor Adorno Ernst Bloch's influential ideas include his theory of utopian consciousness his resolute inclination to merge aesthetics and politics rehabilitation of hope and atheistic conception of Christianity Although Bloch's major early texts Spirit of Utopia and Traces have recently been translated into English and there has been renewed interest in Bloch over the last 15 years he is still relatively unknown compared to other left German Jewish intellectuals Ivan Boldyrev places Bloch's often enigmatic prose within contexts more familiar to English speaking readers and outlines the most important messages in Bloch's legacy still relevant today to European intellectual discourse in particular aesthetics and philosophy of history

The Role of Comparative Philosophy in Bosnia and Herzegovina Nevad Kahteran, 2021-09-20 This collection of essays highlights that despite its history of conflict Bosnia and Herzegovina has a real enthusiasm for comparative philosophy It illustrates the role of this type of philosophy in Bosnian culture and links it with developments in other parts of the world and other cultures Part One consists of essays that have appeared in slightly revised versions in a number of journals and books that focus on relevant resources introducing this field in our region and especially Bosnia and Herzegovina while Part Two consists of interviews with prominent scholars outside of this country The book examines the challenges confronting the teaching of comparative philosophy within the university level philosophy curriculum in Bosnia and Herzegovina and the surrounding countries in the Balkans a part of the world where multicultural societies are the norm Facing the twenty first century these confluences and cross currents are increasingly gaining importance especially in this region with a comparativism of ethnocentrism and multiculturalism becoming a way of challenging stereotypes Consolationism and Comparative African Philosophy Ada Agada, 2021-11-18 In a major challenge to African philosophy this book demonstrates the importance of the universalisation question for every committed African philosopher Rooted in Africa's colonial legacy

the universalisation question challenges the African thinker to show how authentically African philosophical concepts and phenomena can be universally applicable in a globalising world In this highly original book the author inserts the philosophy of consolationism into African philosophical discourse constructing a unique philosophical system that is at once African and universally relevant The book engages major African and Western philosophers of diverse ideological leanings in a compelling dialogue that announces the future of world philosophy as one of interculturality in which a common philosophical horizon is forged out of the cultural diversities of the world for the edification of humanity in a continually changing world This book will be an important read for researchers in the fields of African Studies intercultural philosophy philosophy of mind and existentialism

An Inquiry Into the Philosophical Foundations of the Human Sciences

Alfred Claassen, 2007 Textbook

Collected Prefaces

Nicholas Hagger, 2022-04-29 Nicholas Hagger's 55 books include innovatory works on literature history philosophy and international politics In his first published literary work he revived the Preface which had fallen into disuse after Wordsworth and Shelley He went on to write Prefaces sometimes called Prologues Introductions or Introductory Notes for all his subsequent books Collected Prefaces a collection of 55 Prefaces excluding the Preface to this book sets out his thinking and the reader can follow the development of his philosophy of Universalism of which he is the main exponent his literary approach particularly his combination of Romanticism and Classicism which he calls neo Baroque and his metaphysical thinking His Prefaces can be read as essays and as in T S Eliot's Selected Essays there is an interaction between adjacent Prefaces that brings an entirely new perspective to Hagger's works These Prefaces cover an enormous range Nicholas Hagger is a Renaissance man at home in many disciplines His Universalism focuses on humankind's relationship to the whole universe as reflected in seven key disciplines seen as wholes the whole of literature history philosophy and the sciences mysticism religion international politics and statecraft and world culture Behind all the Prefaces is Hagger's fundamental perception of the unity of the universe as the One and of humankind's position in it These Prefaces complement his Selected Letters a companion volume also published by O Books and contain startling insights that illumine and send readers to the works the Prefaces introduce

Intercultural Hermeneutics - Understanding Culture and Religion

Chibueze Udeani, 2021-01-10 New hermeneutical challenges abound within the process of globalisation especially as they pertain to culture and religion Consequently a new form of hermeneutics approached from an intercultural perspective is needed This requires if not a new set of hermeneutical tools then at least a serious profound and critical analysis and constructive adaptation of the already available set of hermeneutical tools Intercultural hermeneutics in the understanding of religion and culture and among cultures and religions is being proposed here as this new form of art or science of understanding Chibueze C Udeani is of Igbo origin and currently professor of missiology and dialogue of religions at Julius Maximilian's university Würzburg Germany

Multicultural Education in Glocal Perspectives

Yun-Kyung Cha, Jagdish Gundara, Seung-Hwan Ham, Moosung Lee, 2016-11-15 This conceptually rich and empirically grounded book draws upon expertise from a panel of emerging and established international scholars to explore the institutionalization and effect of multicultural education on a global scale Previous studies of multicultural education have largely ignored the significance of understanding the combination of multiple sociopolitical influences on multicultural education in both policy and practice Filling this void this book sheds light on the two main reasons for taking a global perspective on multicultural education First children should be provided with meaningful learning opportunities to acquire the knowledge skills and attitudes necessary to live in a culturally and ethno linguistically diverse society where the distinction between the local and the global is becoming blurred Second understanding both the global grammar and the local semantics of multicultural education helps researchers and policy makers grasp the whole picture of multicultural education as an evolving social construct and phenomenon This new book provokes a new round of discussion and research to expand and enrich our inquiry into cultural diversity and educational inclusion

Critical Perspectives on Christian Education Jeff Astley, Leslie J. Francis, 1994

Saint Paul and Philosophy Gert Jan van der Heiden, George Henry van Kooten, Antonio Cimino, 2017-08-07

The much acclaimed present day philosophical turn to the letters of Saint Paul points to a profound consonance between ancient and modern thought Such is the bold claim of this study in which scholars from contemporary continental philosophy new testamentary studies and ancient philosophy discuss with each other the meaning Paul's terms pistis faith In this volume this theme discusses in detail the threefold relation between Paul and 1 continental thought 2 the Graeco Roman world and 3 political theology It is shown that pistis does not only concern a mode of knowing but rather concerns the human ethos or mode of existence as a whole Moreover it is shown that the present day political theological interest in Paul can be seen as an attempt to recuperate Paul's pistis in this comprehensive sense Finally an important discussion concerning the specific ontological implications and background of this reinterpretation of pistis is examined by comparing the ancient ontological commitments to those of the present day philosophers Thus the volume offers an insight in a crucial consonance of ancient and modern thought concerning the question of pistis in Paul while not forgetting to stipulate important differences

Multicultural and Religious Perspectives on Protecting the Environment, the Biosphere, and Biodiversity Joseph Tham, John Lunstroth, Sameer Advani, 2025-09-30

This thought provoking volume unites bioethics experts from seven major world religions Buddhism Christianity Confucianism Daoism Hinduism Islam and Judaism alongside secular thinkers to explore environmental protection through the lens of the UNESCO Declaration on Bioethics and Human Rights It foregrounds the power of diverse perspectives in addressing one of humanity's most pressing challenges the ecological crisis The contributions provide rich and distinct religious and cultural viewpoints as they confront the anthropological ethical and social dimensions of this crisis Showcasing dialogue where traditions and philosophies collide they offer unique insights into global bioethics and human rights that should inspire new ways of thinking and foster meaningful collaboration in the fight for our planet's future The book is valuable reading for researchers scholars and students in bioethics environmental ethics religious studies and beyond Selected Letters Nicholas Hagger, 2021-10-29 Nicholas Hagger's literary philosophical historical and political writings are innovatory. He has set out a new approach to literature that combines Romantic and Classical outlooks in a substantial literary oeuvre of 2 000 poems including over 300 classical odes, two poetic epics, five verse plays, three masques, two travelogues, and 1 200 stories. He has created a new philosophy of Universalism that focuses on the unity of the universe and humankind and the interconnectedness of all disciplines and challenges modern philosophy. He has presented an original historical view of the rise and fall of civilisations and proposed and detailed a limited democratic World State with the power to abolish war and solve all the world's problems. Selected Letters draws together those of his letters written over 60 years that aid the interpretation and elucidation of his works. Many of his correspondents are well known figures within literature, philosophy, history, and international politics, and Hagger is in the footsteps of Alexander Pope in editing his own letters, which are in the tradition of Pope, Wordsworth, Keats, T. E. Lawrence, Ezra Pound, and Ted Hughes, one of his correspondents. They throw light on all aspects of Hagger's vast output and are required reading for all interested in following the growth of his Universalism, his literary development, and his innovatory approach to universal truth. NICHOLAS HAGGER is a poet, man of letters, cultural historian, and philosopher. He has lectured at universities in Iraq, Libya, and Japan, where he was a Professor of English Literature. He has written 54 books. These include an immense literary offering, most recently King Charles the Wise and Visions of England, both also published by O Books, and innovatory works within history, philosophy, and international politics and statecraft. His archive of papers and manuscripts is held as a Special Collection in the Albert Sloman Library at the University of Essex. In 2016 he was awarded the Gusi Peace Prize for Literature, and in 2019 the BRICS silver medal for Vision for Future.

Multi-Religious Perspectives on a Global Ethic Myriam Renaud, William Schweiker, 2020-11-29 Ratified by the Parliament of the World's Religions in 1993 and expanded in 2018, Towards a Global Ethic: An Initial Declaration or the Global Ethic expresses the minimal set of principles shared by people, religious or not. Though it is a secular document, the Global Ethic emerged after months of collaborative interreligious dialogue dedicated to identifying a common ethical framework. This volume tests and contests the claim that the Global Ethic's ethical directives can be found in the world's religious, spiritual, and cultural traditions. The book features essays by scholars of religion who grapple with the practical implications of the Global Ethic's directives when applied to issues like women's rights, displaced peoples, income and wealth inequality, India's caste system, and more. The scholars explore their respective religious traditions' ethical response to one or more of these issues and compare them to the ethical response elaborated by the Global Ethic. The traditions included are Hinduism, Engaged Buddhism, Shi'i Islam, Sunni Islam, Confucianism, Protestantism, Catholicism, Judaism, Indigenous African Religions, and Human Rights. To highlight the complexities within traditions, most essays are followed by a brief response by an expert in the same tradition. Multi-Religious Perspectives on a Global Ethic is of special interest to advanced students and scholars whose work focuses on the religious traditions listed above, on comparative
