Philosophy And Geography Iii Philosophies Of Place:

Philosophy and Geography III Andrew Light, Jonathan M. Smith, 1998 Places are today subject to contrary tendencies They lose some functions which may scale up to fewer more centralized places or down to numerous more dispersed places and they gain other functions which are scaling up and down from other places This prompts premature prophecies of the abolition of space and the obsolescence of place At the same time a growing literature testifies to the persistence of place as an incorrigible aspect of human experience identity and morality Place is a common ground for thought and action a community of experienced particulars that avoids solipsism and universalism It draws us into the philosophy of the ordinary into familiarity as a form of knowledge into the wisdom of proximity Each of these essays offers a philosophy of place and reminds us that such philosophies ultimately decide how we make use and understand places whether as accidents instruments or fields of care

The Oxford Handbook of Philosophy in Music Education Wayne D. Bowman, Ana Lucía Frega, 2012-05-25 In The Oxford Handbook of Philosophy in Music Education editors Wayne D Bowman and Ana Lucia Frega have drawn together a variety of philosophical perspectives from the profession s most exciting scholars from all over the world Rather than relegating philosophical inquiry to moot questions and abstract situations the contributors to this volume address everyday concerns faced by music educators everywhere Emphasizing clarity fairness rigour and utility above all The Oxford Handbook of Philosophy in Music Education will challenge music educators all over the world to make their own decisions and ultimately contribute to the conversation themselves

Geography in America at the Dawn of the 21st Century Gary L. Gaile, Cort J. Willmott, 2005 Geography in America at the Dawn of the 21st Century surveys American geographers current research in their specialty areas and tracks trends and innovations in the many subfields of geography As such it is both a state of the discipline assessment and a topical reference It includes an introduction by the editors and 47 chapters each on a specific specialty The authors of each chapter were chosen by their specialty group of the American Association of Geographers AAG Based on a process of review and revision the chapters in this volume have become truly representative of the recent scholarship of American geographers While it focuses on work since 1990 it additionally includes related prior work and work by non American geographers The initial Geography in America was published in 1989 and has become a benchmark reference of American geographical research during the 1980s This latest volume is completely new and features a preface written by the eminent geographer Gilbert White

Ecocriticism in Taiwan Chia-ju Chang, Scott Slovic, 2016-06-01 Ecocriticism is a mode of interdisciplinary critical inquiry into the relationship between cultural production society and the environment The field advocates for the more than human realm as well as for underprivileged human and non human groups and their perspectives Taiwan is one of the earliest centers for promoting ecocriticism outside the West and has continued to play a central role in shaping ecocriticism in East Asia This is the first English anthology dedicated to the vibrant development of ecocriticism in Taiwan It provides a window to Taiwan s important contributions to international

ecocriticism especially an emerging vernacular trend in the field emphasizing the significance of local perspectives and styles including non western vocabularies aesthetics cosmologies and political ideologies Taiwan s unique history geographic location geology and subtropical climate generate locale specific vernacular thinking about island ecology and environmental history as well as global environmental issues such as climate change dioxin pollution species extinction energy decisions pollution and environmental injustice In hindsight Taiwan s industrial modernization no longer appears as a success narrative among Asia s Four Little Dragons but as a cautionary tale revealing the brute force entrepreneurial exploitation of the land and the people In this light this volume can be seen as a critical response to Taiwan s postcolonial capitalist industrial modernity as manifested in the scholars readings of Taiwan s mountain and river ocean animal and aboriginal non fictional narratives environmental documentaries and art installations This volume is endowed with a mixture of ecocosmopolitan and indigenous sensitivities Though dominated by the Han Chinese ethnic group and its Confucian ideology Taiwan is a place of complicated ethnic identities and affiliations The succession of changing colonial and political regimes made even more complex by the island s sixteen aboriginal groups and several diasporic subcultures South Asian immigrants Western expatriates and diverse immigrants from the Chinese mainland has led to an ongoing quest for political and cultural identity This complexity urges Taiwan based ecoscholars to pay attention to the diasporic comparative and intercultural dimensions of local specificity either based on their own diasporic experience or the cosmopolitan features of the Taiwanese texts they scrutinize This cosmopolitan vernacular dynamic is a key contribution Taiwan has to offer current ecocritical scholarship

The Body of Jesus Patrick Schreiner, 2016-07-14 Little attention is usually given to the space or place of the kingdom Yet Matthew employs the distinctive phrase kingdom of heaven and also portrays Jesus as Immanuel God with us In this volume Patrick Schreiner argues that by expanding one s view of space one can see that Jesus purpose is to reorder the space of the earth in Matthew as the heavenly king Jesus pierces the barrier between the two realms in his incarnation and the spaces of heaven and earth begin to collide in his ministry Therefore in Matthew Jesus does not just promise a temporal or ethereal kingdom but one that is located one that has a sense of rootedness Jesus is granted authority over this space and inspires people to follow him in this construction project The spatial kingdom begins in his body and he extends it to his church by promising his presence

Interpreting Religion at Museums and Historic Sites Gretchen Buggeln, Barbara Franco, 2018-08-22 Interpreting Religion at Museums and Historic Sites encourages readers to consider the history of religion as integral to American culture and provides a practical guide for any museum to include interpretation of religious traditions in its programs and exhibits Combining both theoretical essays and practical case studies from a wide cross section of the field the book explores how museums are finding new ways to connect with audiences about this important aspect of American history This book explores the practical and interpretive problems that museums encounter when they include religion in their interpretation How do we make sure visitors don t think the museum is taking the side of any particular religious group or proselytizing or crossing church state boundaries How do we spin out a rich story with the available artifact base What are the opportunities and perils of telling particular religious stories in a multicultural context These and other questions are addressed in a series of interpretive essays and case studies that capture the experimental and innovative religion programming that is beginning to find a place in American history museums An introduction by Gretchen Buggeln places the subject of religion and museums in the intellectual context of national and international scholarship Case studies cover a range of topics and venues that include outdoor museums historic houses and exhibits interpretive issues of secular and sacred contexts and interpretive techniques like dialogue music and first person accounts A concluding essay suggests a publicly oriented historiography of religion for American museums and historic sites Democracy Where and

Where Not , Psychological Sense of Community Adrian T. Fisher, Christopher C. Sonn, Brian J. Bishop, 2012-12-06 In this book the authors have explored a series of different types of communities moving from the basic idea of those based at a specific location all the way to virtual communities of the internet The ways in which the communities operate positively and negatively what people get out of them and what they have to put into them and the notion of being members of more than one community at the one time are considered Sense of community is a topic that captures the attention of people from all types of backgrounds So contributors from fields such as community psychology clinical areas community development and urban planning have added their insights and knowledge A key feature of this book is the research focus that emphasizes the theory driven analyses and the diversity of contexts in which sense of community is applied This book will make a significant contribution to our understanding of life in communities and to people s sense of community It will be of great interest to those concerned with understanding various forms of community and how communities can be mobilized to achieve wellbeing Tree Cultures Paul Cloke, Owain Jones, 2020-07-12

The relationship between nature and culture has become a popular focus in social science but there have been few grounded accounts of trees Providing shelter fuel food and tools trees have played a vital role in human life from the earliest times but their role in symbolic expression has been largely overlooked For example trees are often used to express nationalistic feelings Germans drew heavily on tree and forest imagery in nation building and the idea of hearts of oak has been central to concepts of English identity Classic scenes of ghoulish trees coming to life and forests closing in on unsuspecting passers by commonly feature in the media In other instances trees are used to represent paradisaical landscapes and symbolize the ideologies of conservation and concern for nature Offering new theoretical ideas this book looks at trees as agents that co constitute places and cultures in relationship with human agency What happens when trees connect with human labour technology retail and consumption systems What are the ethical dimensions of these connections The authors discuss how trees can affect and even define notions of place and the ways that particular places are recognized culturally Working trees companion trees wild trees and collected or conserved trees are considered in relation to the dynamic politics of conservation and development that affect the values given to trees in the contemporary world Building on the growing field of landscape study this book offers rich insights into the symbolic and practical roles of trees It will be vital reading for anyone interested in the anthropology of landscape forestry conservation and development and for those concerned with the social science of nature Routledge Handbook of the Tourist Experience Richard Sharpley, 2021-11-17 Routledge Handbook of the Tourist Experience offers a comprehensive synthesis of contemporary research on the tourist experience It draws together multidisciplinary perspectives from leading tourism scholars to explore emergent tourist behaviours and motivations This handbook provides up to date critical discussions of established and emergent themes and issues related to the tourist experience from a primarily socio cultural perspective It opens with a detailed introduction which lays down the framework used to examine the dynamic parameters of the tourist experience Organised into five thematic sections chapters seek to build and enhance knowledge and understanding of the significance and meaning of diverse elements of the tourist experience Section 1 conceptualises and understands the tourist experience through an exploration of conventional themes such as tourism as authentic and spiritual experience as well as emerging themes such as tourism as an embodied experience Section 2 investigates the new developing tourist demands and motivations and a growing interest in the travel career Section 3 considers the significance motives practices and experiences of different types of tourists and their roles such as the tourist as photographer Section 4 discusses the relevance of place to the tourist experience by exploring the relationship between tourism and place The last section Section 5 scrutinises the role of the tourist in creating their experiences through themes such as transformations in the tourist role from passive receiver of experiences to co creator of experiences and external mediators in creating tourist experiences This handbook is the first to fill a notable gap in the tourism literature and collate within a single volume critical insights into the diverse elements of the tourist experience today It will be of key interest to academics and students across the fields of tourism hospitality management geography marketing and consumer behaviour Experiments in Practice Astrid Schwarz, 2015-10-06 Traditionally experimentation has been understood as an activity performed within the laboratory but in the twenty first century this view is being challenged Schwarz uses ecological and environmental case studies to show how scientific experiments can transcend the laboratory The Sacred in the City Liliana Gómez, Walter Van Herck, 2012-02-09 This book reflects the way in which the city interacts with the sacred in all its many guises with religion and the human search for meaning in life As the process of urbanization of society is accelerating thus giving an increasing importance to cities and the metropolis it is relevant to investigate the social or cultural cohesion that these urban agglomerations manifest Religion is keenly observed as witnessing a growth crucially impacting cultural and political dynamics as well as determining the emergence of new sacred symbols and their inscription in urban spaces worldwide The sacred has become an important category of a new interpretation of social and cultural transformation processes From a unique broader perspective the volume focuses on the relationship between the city and the sacred Taking a

multidisciplinary approach combining the expertise of philosophers historians architects social geographers sociologists and anthropologists it draws a nuanced picture of the different layers of religion of the sacred and its diverse forms within the city with examples from Europe South America and the Caribbean and Africa Ecological Governance Olivia Woolley,2014-11-06 A comprehensive legal analysis of how governance of human activities in developed states should be restructured to improve ecological protection Situated Fathering William Marsiglio,Kevin Roy,Greer Litton Fox,2005-07-28 Situated Fathering proposes a new theoretical framework for studying how various contingencies of physical space in conjunction with social symbolic issues affect men s identities as fathers and their involvement with children Written largely for family scholars and students by an interdisciplinary team of leading scholars this distinct volume of original research explores fathers in a wide range of physical and social spaces Contributors outline directions for theoretically guided research in specific often gendered fathering sites European Journal of Tourism Research ,2016-07-01 The European Journal of Tourism Research is an interdisciplinary scientific journal in the field of tourism published by Varna University of Management Bulgaria Its aim is to provide a platform for discussion of theoretical and empirical problems in tourism Publications from all fields connected with tourism such as management marketing sociology psychology geography political sciences mathematics statistics anthropology culture information technologies and others are invited The journal is open to all researchers Young researchers and authors from Central and Eastern Europe are encouraged to submit their contributions Regular Articles in the European Journal of Tourism Research should normally be between 4 000 and 20 000 words Major research articles of between 10 000 and 20 000 are highly welcome Longer or shorter papers will also be considered The journal publishes also Research Notes of 1 500 2 000 words Submitted papers must combine theoretical concepts with practical applications or empirical testing The European Journal of Tourism Research includes also the following sections Book Reviews announcements for Conferences and Seminars abstracts of successfully defended Doctoral Dissertations in Tourism case studies of Tourism Best Practices The European Journal of Tourism Research is published in three Volumes per year The full text of the European Journal of Tourism Research is available in the following databases EBSCO Hospitality and Tourism CompleteCABI Leisure Recreation and TourismProQuest Research Library Individual articles can be rented via journal s page at DeepDyve The journal is indexed in Scopus and Thomson Reuters Emerging Sources Citation Index The editorial team welcomes your submissions to the European Journal of Tourism Research Urban Transformations Nicholas Wise,Julie Clark,2017-06-14 Economic restructuring and demographic change have in recent years placed much strain on urban areas with the effects falling disproportionately on neighbourhoods that were previously underpinned by industry and manufacturing This has presented policy makers and city planners with a binary choice to resist change and stagnate or to change and attempt to keep up with the pace of global demand This edited book tells the story of how urban transformation impacts on people s lives and everyday interactions to question where and to whom benefit accrues from these changes Urban Transformations offers insight into both risk and reward as local communities and public authorities creatively address the challenge of building vital and sustainable urban environments The authors in this edited collection argue that understanding the specifics of community space and place is crucial to delivering insights into how where when why and for whom urban areas might successfully transform The chapters investigate urban change using a range of approaches and case studies from the four corners of the Earth from the United States to Iran from the United Kingdom to Canada The varying scales at which governance or regeneration initiatives operate the nature and composition of urban communities and the local or global interests of different private sector actors all raise questions for urban policy and practice It is important to not only consider the drivers of regeneration but its beneficiaries need to be identified This edited volume addresses and elaborates on critical issues facing urban transformation and renewal as a basis for future discussion on strategies for successful urban transformation
