Philosophy in America ,      Meditations on the Human Condition in an Imperial Age Irina V. Boca,2012-10-12

The concept of empire contains features that are both irreducibly spectral and terrifyingly real With much of both aspects prevailing at subliminal levels it is nearly impossible for the casual observer to think through the maze of contradictions and constitutive forces inherent in the imperial system In her latest work of nonfiction Meditations on the Human Condition in an Imperial Age author and political philosopher Irina V Boca uses her expertise and research to help readers analyze the presence of empire as an indelible contemporary political force This intricate work unravels the Gordian knot of imperial politics and allows the reader to consider overlapping concepts from multiple perspectives finally making it possible for the general audience to get all the facts From post Hegelian philosophy to political science and popular culture the author has identified the intricately woven forces of imperial politics and invites readers to reconsider any easy location of power and any clear cut path to resistance or liberation      Proceedings and Addresses of the American Philosophical

Understanding African American Rhetoric Ronald L. Jackson II,Elaine B. Richardson,2014-05-22 This is an extraordinarily well balanced collection of essays focused on varied expressions of African American Rhetoric it also is a critical antidote to a preoccupation with Western Rhetoric as the arbiter of what counts for effective rhetoric Rather than impose Western terminology on African and African American rhetoric the essays in this volume seek to illumine rhetoric from within its own cultural expression thereby creating an understanding grounded in the culture s values The consequence is a richly detailed and well researched set of essays The contribution of African American rhetoric can no longer be rendered invisible through neglect of its tradition The essays in this volume neither seek to displace Western Rhetoric nor function as an uncritical paen to Afrocentricity and Africology This volume is both timely and essential timely in advancing a better understanding of the richly textured history that is expressed through African American discourse and essential as a counterpoint to the hegemonic influence of Greek and Roman rhetoric as the origin of rhetorical theory and practice Written in the spirit of a critical rhetoric this collection eschews traditional focus on public address and instead offers a rich array of texts in musical and other forms that address publics

Islam as Education Aaron J. Ghiloni,2019-08-01 Motivated by the intellectual historian Shahab Ahmed s observation that the history of Islamic paideia has yet to be written Islam as Education explores multiple forms that the search for knowledge and the transmission of wisdom have taken in Islam focusing on the classical period 800 1500 CE Ghiloni draws on a wide range of Islamic primary source material ranging from sacred texts and parables to neglected pedagogical literature and paintings He depicts three Islamic religious practices pilgrimage prophecy and jihad as modes of pedagogy embodied ways of defining defusing and defending sacred knowledge Islam as Education s educational heuristic not only aids in understanding Islam but also provides guidance for intercultural and interreligious relations Ghiloni argues that Islam s grand knowledge tradition serves as a bridge between Muslims and non Muslims and compares it with the educational theory of John Dewey the celebrated American pragmatist Based on this discussion a final chapter develops practical tools for learning from cultural and religious difference

Archaeological Semiotics Robert W. Preucel, 2010-04-26 This interdisciplinary book examines archaeology s engagement with semiotics from its early structuralist beginnings to its more recent Peircian encounters It represents the first sustained engagement with Peircian semiotics in archaeology as well as the first discussion of how pragmatic anthropology articulates with anthropological archaeology Its central thesis is that archaeology is a distinctive kind of semiotic enterprise one devoted to giving meaning to the past in the present through the study of materiality It compliments standard studies of linguistics and reformulates contemporary theories of material culture Providing an introduction to Saussure and a review of his legacy across structural symbolic and cognitive anthropology Preucel goes on to present the Peircian alternative and highlights its influence on pragmatic anthropology Of special interest are the discussions of the interrelations of structuralism and processual archaeology poststructuralism and postprocessual archaeologies and cognitive science and cognitive archaeology The author offers two original case studies demonstrating how material culture pragmatically mediates social relations one focusing on the aftermath of the Pueblo Revolt from 1680 1694 and the other on the New England utopian community of Brook Farm from 1842 1846 Throughout his analysis Preucel emphasizes the close links between archaeology and other social sciences But he also contends that archaeology by virtue of the powerful ideological character of the past can open up new spaces for discourse and dialogue about meaning and in the process make a valuable contribution to contemporary semiotics
