Philosophy Of Human Learning:

The Philosophy of Human Learning Christopher Winch,2002-01-04 The Philosophy of Human Learning addresses current concerns with the nature of human learning from a distinctive philosophical perspective Using insights derived from the work of Wittgenstein it mounts a vigorous attack on influential contemporary accounts of learning both in the romantic Rousseauian tradition and in the scientific cognotivist tradition These two schools Professor Winch argues are more closely related than is commonly realised Human Learning Peter Jarvis,Stella Parker,2006-03-31 Click on the link below to access this e book Please note that you may require an Athens account Organizational Resilience D. Christopher Kayes,2015 In the age of knowledge organizations survive and thrive only when they learn All too often when organizations are confronted with novel or changing situations the process of learning breaks down and the result is catastrophic In Organizational Resilience How Learning Sustains Organizations in Crisis Disaster and Breakdown D Christopher Kayes explains why all organizational leaders should be concerned about learning and the dire consequences that may ensue if they are not Kayes draws on the foundational ideas of philosopher John Dewey then connects this philosophy to contemporary studies on learning management and organizations Through a wide range of examples from the realms of government finance engineering healthcare and commercial air travel he describes how learning can help organizations weather crises and outlines specific ways that leaders can learn from their experience The first comprehensive review of how learning sustains organizations in challenging times Organizational Resilience is essential reading for crisis managers disaster recovery team leaders continuity of operations planning professionals emergency management professionals and leaders at all levels who want their organizations to thrive Values, Philosophies, and Beliefs in TESOL: Making a Statement Graham Crookes,2009-02-16 This insightful book chronicles the many influences and developments that have helped shape the language teaching profession today Everyday Knowledge, Education and Sustainable Futures Margaret Robertson,Po Keung Eric Tsang,2016-06-01 Everyday knowledge offers opportunities for better understanding of significant issues of our times Reflecting these themes this book places emphasis on community wisdom The underpinning argument is that our instinctive urge for survival may not be enough if we do not share our collective knowledge and learn more about the everyday habits beliefs and actions of communities spread across the region Contributions from researchers active within local communities help build knowledge capacity and support for collaborative research Theories, Policy, and Practice of Lifelong Learning in East Asia Weiyuan Zhang,2013-09-13 As the centre of the world economy is moving to Asia lifelong learning in Asia is attracting a great deal of attention in the educational field worldwide Asia not only provides the largest education market but also plays an increasingly important role in educational globalization However until now only very limited literature has been available in English This book addresses that gap and introduces global readers to the latest developments of theories policies and practical issues concerning lifelong learning in East Asia Case studies on lifelong learning in East Asia including mainland China Japan Korea Hong Kong Taiwan and Macau are provided in this book Lifelong learning in East Asia has been strongly influenced by Confucian culture as well as Western capitalism This book analyses Confucian culture and the negotiation of Chinese and Western learning cultures in lifelong learning This book will enable educators to understand the recent developments in lifelong learning in selected Confucian heritage countries and regions and promote effective international collaboration in lifelong learning worldwide This book was published as a special issue of the International Journal of Lifelong Education

A Christian Directory (Vol. 1-4) Richard Baxter, 2023-12-25 Richard Baxter's A Christian Directory is a monumental work of 17th century Puritan literature that seeks to provide a comprehensive guide for Christian living Spanning four volumes it encompasses a breadth of topics including moral theology practical righteousness and the roles of grace and faith in daily life Baxter's literary style is characterized by clarity didactic fervor and an earnestness that resonates deeply with readers seeking spiritual guidance Set against the backdrop of a tumultuous period in English religious history this work reflects the tensions of its time aiming to address both the spiritual and pragmatic needs of believers Baxter a prominent Puritan pastor and theologian was profoundly shaped by the religious conflicts of his era including the English Civil War and subsequent Restoration His pastoral experiences and struggles with ecclesiastical authority deeply informed his writings leading him to address the everyday challenges faced by Christians in a secular world His profound commitment to the spiritual welfare of his congregation catalyzed the need for such a detailed directory A Christian Directory is essential for anyone seeking a foundational text on Christian ethics and practice Its practical wisdom and theological depth make it invaluable for both scholars and general readers interested in the evolution of Christian thought and the intricacies of living a life devoted to faith

Meaning-Centered Education Olga Kovbasyuk, Patrick Blessinger, 2013-04-12 In a time of globally changing environments and economic challenges many institutions of higher education are attempting to reform by promoting standardization approaches Meaning Centered Education explores the counter tide for an alternative vision of education where students and instructors engage in open meaning making processes and self organizing educational practices In one contributed volume Meaning Centered Education provides a comprehensive introduction to current scholarship and pedagogical practice on meaning centered education International contributors explore how modern educational scholars and practitioners all around the world are implementing a comprehensive framework that supports meaning making in a classroom This edited collection is a valuable resource for higher education faculty and scholars interested in renewing the deep purposes of higher education

Contemporary Natural Philosophy and Philosophies - Part 2 Marcin J. Schroeder, Gordana Dodig-Crnkovic, 2020-11-19 Modern technology has eliminated barriers posed by geographic distances between people around the globe making the world more interdependent However in spite of global collaboration within research domains fragmentation among research fields persists and even escalates Disintegrated knowledge has become subservient to the competition in the technological and economic race leading in the direction chosen not by reason and intellect but rather by the preferences of politics and markets To restore the authority of knowledge in guiding humanity we have to reconnect its scattered isolated parts and offer an evolving and diverse but shared vision of objective reality connecting the sciences and other knowledge domains and informed by and in communication with ethical and esthetic thinking and being This collection of articles responds to the second call from the journal Philosophies to build a new networked world of knowledge with domain specialists from different disciplines interacting and connecting with the rest of the knowledge producing and knowledge consuming communities in an inclusive extended natural philosophic human centric manner In this process of reconnection scientific and philosophical investigations enrich each other with sciences informing philosophies about the best current knowledge of the world both natural and human made while philosophies scrutinize the ontological epistemological and methodological foundations of sciences
