Theory Irene Rima Makaryk,1993-01-01 The last half of the twentieth century has seen the emergence of literary theory as a new discipline As with any body of scholarship various schools of thought exist and sometimes conflict within it I R Makaryk has compiled a welcome guide to the field Accessible and jargon free the Encyclopedia of Contemporary Literary Theory provides lucid concise explanations of myriad approaches to literature that have arisen over the past forty years Some 170 scholars from around the world have contributed their expertise to this volume Their work is organized into three parts In Part I forty evaluative essays examine the historical and cultural context out of which new schools of and approaches to literature arose The essays also discuss the uses and limitations of the various schools and the key issues they address Part II focuses on individual theorists It provides a more detailed picture of the network of scholars not always easily pigeonholed into the categories of Part I This second section analyses the individual achievements as well as the influence of specific scholars and places them in a larger critical context Part III deals with the vocabulary of literary theory It identifies significant complex terms places them in context and explains their origins and use Accessibility is a key feature of the work By avoiding jargon providing mini bibliographies and cross referencing throughout Makaryk has provided an indispensable tool for literary theorists and historians and for all scholars and students of contemporary criticism and culture Phoenix.

[1]. The posthumous papers of D. H. Lawrence David Herbert Lawrence,1967 On Painting Gilles Deleuze,2025-08-12

Available for the first time in English the complete and annotated transcripts of Deleuze s 1981 seminars on painting From 1970 until 1987 Gilles Deleuze held a weekly seminar at the Experimental University of Vincennes and starting in 1980 at Saint Denis In the spring of 1981 he began a series of eight seminars on painting and its intersections with philosophy The recorded sessions newly transcribed and translated into English are now available in their entirety for the first time Extensively annotated by philosopher David Lapoujade On Painting illuminates Deleuze s thinking on artistic creation significantly extending the lines of thought in his book Francis Bacon Through paintings and writing by Rembrandt Delacroix Turner C zanne Van Gogh Klee Pollock and Bacon Deleuze explores the creative process from chaos to the pictorial fact The introduction and use of color feature prominently as Deleuze elaborates on artistic and philosophical concepts such as the diagram modulation code and the digital and the analogical Through this scrutiny he raises a series of profound and stimulating questions for his students How does a painter ward off grayness and attain color What is a line without contour Why paint at all Written and thought in a rhizomatic manner that is thoroughly Deleuzian strange powerful and novel On Painting traverses both the conception of art history and the possibility of color as a philosophical concept Retail e book files for this title are screen reader friendly with images accompanied by short alt text and or extended descriptions

Modernism, Labour and Selfhood in British Literature and Culture, 1890-1930 Morag Shiach,2004-02-26 Shiach examines the ways in which labour was experienced and represented between 1890 and 1930 There is a critical tradition in literary and historical studies that sees the impact of modernity on human labour in terms of intensification and alienation Shiach however explores a series of efforts to articulate the relations between labour and selfhood within modernism Through readings of Sylvia Pankhurst and D H Lawrence Shiach shows how labour underpins the political and textual innovations of the period This study will be of interest to literary and cultural scholars alike British Fiction and Cross-Cultural Encounters C. Snyder,2016-09-23 This book reveals that British modernists read widely in anthropology and ethnography sometimes conducted their own fieldwork and thematized the challenges of cultural encounters in their fiction letters and essays
