Tales in Context Rella Kushelevsky, 2017-11-13 A folkloric research project on Sefer ha ma asim In the thirteenth century an anonymous scribe compiled sixty nine tales that became Sefer ha ma asim the earliest compilation of Hebrew tales known to us in Western Europe The author writes that the stories encompass descriptions of herbs that cure leprosy a fairy princess with golden tresses using magic charms to heal her lover's wounds and restore him to life a fire breathing dragon a two headed creature and a giant's daughter for whom the rind of a watermelon containing twelve spies is no more than a speck of dust In Tales in Context Sefer ha ma asim in Medieval Northern France Rella Kushelevsky enlightens the stories meanings and reflects the circumstances and environment for Jewish lives in medieval France Although a selection of tales was previously published this is the first publication of a Hebrew English annotated edition in its entirety revealing fresh insight The first part of Kushelevsky's work Cultural Literary and Comparative Perspectives presents the thesis that Sefer ha ma asim is a product of its time and place and should therefore be studied within its literary and cultural surroundings Jewish and vernacular in northern France An investigation of the scribe s techniques in reworking his Jewish and non Jewish sources into a medieval discourse supports this claim The second part of the manuscript consists of the tales themselves in Hebrew and English translation including brief comparative comments or citations The third part An Analytical and Comparative Overview offers an analysis of each tale as an individual unit contextualized within its medieval framework and against the background of its parallels Elisheva Baumgarten s epilogue adds social and historical background to Sefer ha ma asim and discusses new ways in which it and other story compilations may be used by historians for an inquiry into the everyday life of medieval Jews The tales in Sefer ha ma asim will be of special value to scholars of folklore and medieval European history and literature as well as those looking to enrich their studies and shelves Remembering Lives Lorraine Hedtke, John Winslade, 2016-12-05 Grief is frequently thought of as an ordeal we must simply survive This book offers a fresh approach to the negotiation of death and grief It is founded in principles of constructive conversation that focus on remembering lives in contrast to processes of forgetting or dismembering those who have died Remembering is about a comforting life enhancing and sustaining approach to death that does not dwell on the pain of loss and is much more than wistful reminiscing It is about the deliberate construction of stories that continue to include the dead in the membership of our lives The Weird Tale S. Legal Stories Gregory Steirer,2024-07-01 Tracing the emergence of what the media industries today call transmedia story worlds and narrative franchises Legal Stories provides a dual history of copyright law and narrative based media development between the Copyright Act of 1909 and the Copyright Act of 1976 Drawing on archival material including legal case files and employing the principles of actor network theory Gregory Steirer demonstrates how the meaning and form of narrative based property in the twentieth century was integral to the letter and practice of intellectual property law during this time Steirer s expansive view of intellectual property law encompasses not only statutes and judicial opinions but also the everyday practices and productions of authors editors fans and other legal laypersons The result is a history of the law as improvisatory and accident prone taking place as often outside the courtroom as inside and shaped as much by laypersons as lawyers Through the examination of influential legal disputes involving early properties such as Dashiell Hammett s Sam Spade H P Lovecraft s Cthulhu Mythos and Robert E Howard s Conan the Barbarian Steirer provides a ground s eye view of how copyright law has operated and evolved in practice
