Comics Beyond the Page in Latin America James Scorer, 2020-02-17 Comics Beyond the Page in Latin America is a cutting edge study of the expanding worlds of Latin American comics Despite lack of funding and institutional support not since the mid twentieth century have comics in the region been so dynamic so diverse and so engaged with pressing social and cultural issues Comics are being used as essential tools in debates about for example digital cultures gender identities and political disenfranchisement

The Evolution of the Image Marco Bohr, Basia Sliwinska, 2018-03-13 This volume addresses the evolution of the visual in digital communities offering a multidisciplinary discussion of the ways in which images are circulated in digital communities the meanings that are attached to them and the implications they have for notions of identity memory gender cultural belonging and political action Contributors focus on the political efficacy of the image in digital communities as well as the representation of the digital self in order to offer a fresh perspective on the role of digital images in the creation and promotion of new forms of resistance agency and identity within visual cultures A Gust of Photo-Philia Alexandra Moschovi, 2020-12-15 The first transnational history of photography's accommodation in the art museum Photography was long regarded as a middle brow art by the art institution Yet at the turn of the millennium it became the hot global art of our time In this book part institutional history part account of shifting photographic theories and practices Alexandra Moschovi tells the story of photography's accommodation in and as contemporary art in the art museum Archival research of key exhibitions and the contrasting collecting policies of MoMA Tate the Guggenheim the V A and the Centre Pompidou offer new insights into how art as photography and photography as art have been collected and exhibited since the 1930s Moschovi argues that this accommodation not only changed photography's status in art culture and society but also played a significant role in the rebranding of the art museum as a cultural and social site Twins and Recursion in Digital, Literary and Visual Cultures Edward King, 2022-04-07 The tale of twins being reunited after a long separation is a trope that has been endlessly repeated and reworked across different cultures and throughout history with each moment adapting the twin plot to address its current cultural tensions In this study Edward King demonstrates how twins are a means of exploring the social implications of hyper connectivity and the compromising relationship between humans and digital information their environment and their genetics As King demonstrates twins tell us about the changing forms of connectivity and power in contemporary culture and what new conceptions of the human they present us with Taking account of a broad range of literary cultural and scientific practices Entwined Being probes discussions surrounding twins such as The way in which they appear in behavioral genetics as a way of identifying inherited predispositions to social media How their faces interrupt biometric interfaces such as facial recognition software and undermine advances in neo liberal surveillance systems How they represent the uncanny and the weird in the horror genre and how this questions ideologies of communications media and the connectivity it enables Their association with telepathy and cybernetics in science fiction Their construction as models for entangled being in ecological thought Drawing upon the literary and filmic works of Ken Follet Edgar Allan Poe H P Lovecraft Bruce Chatwin Shelley Jackson Brian de Palma Peter Greenway and David Cronenberg as well as science fiction literature and the television series Orphan Black King illuminates how twins are employed across a range of disciplines to envision a critical re conception of the human in times of digital integration and ecological crisis A Companion to Photography Stephen Bull, 2020-03-16 The study of photography has never been more important A look at today's digital world reveals that a greater number of photographs are being taken each day than at any other moment in history Countless photographs are disseminated instantly online and more and more photographic images are earning prominent positions and garnering record prices in the rarefied realm of top art galleries Reflecting this dramatic increase in all things photographic A Companion to Photography presents a comprehensive collection of original essays that explore a variety of key areas of current debate around the state of photography in the twenty first century Essays are grouped and organized in themed sections including photographic interpretation markets popular photography documents and fine art and provide comprehensive coverage of the subject Representing a diversity of approaches essays are written by both established and emerging photographers and scholars as well as various experts in their respective areas A Companion to Photography offers scholars and professional photographers alike an essential and up to date resource that brings the study of contemporary photography into clear focus Archival Materialities in a Digital Age Eirini Goudarouli, Andrew Prescott, 2025-02-27

Materiality looms large in the world of archives in storage conservation and shape or materials of the records How does this materiality change in the digital age The way digital techniques and materialities transform our engagement with archives is highlighted and explored throughout Archival Materialities in a Digital Age New Media Leah A. Lievrouw, Sonia M. Livingstone, 2009 AI Aesthetics Jan-Noël Thon, Lukas R.A. Wilde, 2025-09-09 This volume investigates the intersection of generative AI and media aesthetics from an interdisciplinary perspective Combining in depth theoretical reflection with a diverse selection of case studies its authors explore the aesthetic forms of AI generated medial objects as well as the cultural imaginaries that the latter draw upon Bringing together a group of scholars from various geographic and disciplinary backgrounds the chapters move within and across different conceptualizations of AI aesthetics that can be located in between an aesthetics as artistics that is primarily concerned with aesthetic judgments related to skill and connoisseurship and an aesthetics as aisthetics that identifies all kinds of embodied perception as its object The book thus reflects on both the theoretical and the methodological implications of AI aesthetics while also demonstrating that this is still very much an emerging research field and that no dominant conceptualization of AI aesthetics has yet emerged Considering its decidedly international and interdisciplinary scope AI Aesthetics AI Generated Images between Artistics and Aisthetics will appeal to scholars and students within media studies cultural studies literary studies philosophy art history visual culture studies digital humanities and critical AI studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Photo Archives and the Place of Photography Geraldine A. Johnson, Deborah Schultz, 2025-02-07 This collection of chapters investigates the effects of mobility and place on a range of photographic archives and explores their potential for cross disciplinary dialogue The book explores photographic images used in the study of art as well as the implications of placing European images of non European cultures in an archive album library or museum It also addresses questions of digital space which renders images more visually accessible but further complicates issues relating to location The contributors consider these issues through case studies based on a variety of archives institutions and disciplines Just as photographs are conceived as unstable objects so conventional borders between disciplines and locations are challenged and opened up with chapters drawing on a range of disciplinary theories and practices The focus of the individual chapters is global as seen in contributions not only on Euro American topics but also on Orientalizing approaches to photographing the Ancient Near East photographic archives of Bedouin subjects and digital photographic archives in an Iranian context This book will be of interest to scholars of art history visual and cultural studies anthropology and archaeology as well as those working on the history and theory of photography and histories and theories of the archive
