Photojournalism The Womans Perspective:

Women and Photography in Apartheid South Africa Marie Meyerding, 2025-04-29 Tracing the lives and works of five women in four case studies author Marie Meyerding examines the representation of women in the field of photography in South Africa in the second half of the twentieth century All of them are critically understudied with no existing scholarship dedicated exclusively to their photographic contributions Focusing on the representation of women on two different levels as agents behind the camera and as subjects in photographs it showcases women photographers portraying their female contemporaries and analyses to what extent they adhered to or subverted common forms of gender representation In recuperating their forgotten archives the book argues that none of these women are marginal figures but rather that each of them played a leading role in the field of photography in their own time The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history history of photography gender studies intersectionality and African studies

The Multimedia Encyclopedia of Women in Today's World Mary Zeiss Stange, Carol K. Oyster, Jane E. Sloan, 2013-01-09 This e only volume expands and updates the original 4 volume Encyclopedia of Women in Today's World 2011 offering a wide range of new entries and new multimedia content The entries reflect such developments as the Arab Spring that brought women's issues in the Islamic world into sharp relief the domination of female athletes among medal winners at the London 2012 Olympics nine more women joining the ranks of democratically elected heads of state and much more The 475 articles in this e only update accompanied by photos and video clips supplement the themes established in the original edition providing a vibrant collection of entries dealing with contemporary women's issues around the world
