lives and writings of lower caste public figure Jotiba Phule moderate nationalist M G Ranade and Hindu nationalist V D Savarkar Through a close reading of original writings speeches and biographical material it is demonstrated that these three individuals were engaged with a modern historical and rationalist approach However the same material is also used to argue that Phule and Ranade viewed religion as living contemporaneous and capable of informing both their personal and political lives Savarkar the explicitly Hindu leader on the contrary held Hindu practices and traditions in contempt confining them to historical analysis while denying any role for religion as spirituality or morality in contemporary political life While providing some historical context this volume highlights the philosophical political ideas and actions of the three individuals discussed It integrates aspects of their lives as central to understanding their politics      Sequels Janet G.
