Physical Anthropology & Prehistory Abraham Gruber,1979 Physical Anthropology and Prehistory An Introduction Abraham Gruber,1990-11-01 Living Prehistory Sharon S. McKern,Thomas W. McKern,1974-01-01

Biological Anthropology and Prehistory Patricia C. Rice,Norah Moloney,2016-12-05 Written specifically for courses that cover biological anthropology and archaeology this superbly illustrated new text offers the most balanced and up to date introduction to our human past Devoting equal time to biological anthropology and prehistory this text exposes students to the many sides of major controversial issues involving students in the scientific thought process by allowing them to draw their own conclusions Amidst discussions of bones and artifacts the text maintains a focus on people demonstrating to students how biological anthropology and archaeology apply to their lives today Featuring the latest research and findings pulled from the original sources this new text is far and away the most up to date text available In addition the superior art program features hundreds of photographs and figures and the multimedia presentation options include documentary film clips and lecture launcher videos Pat Rice a recipient of AAA s Outstanding Teacher Award and past president of the General Anthropology Division of AAA and Norah Moloney an experienced professor and active archaeologist present the material in a clear refreshing and straightforward writing style

World Prehistory Brian M. Fagan,2005 For courses in Introduction to Archaeology World Prehistory Human Antiquity Archaeology and a supplement for courses in Introduction to Anthropology and Physical Anthropology Written by one of the leading archaeological writers in the world in a simple jargon free narrative style this brief well illustrated account of the major developments in the human past makes world prehistory uniquely accessible to complete beginners Up to date and state of the art in content and perspective it covers the entire world not just the Americas or Europe placing major emphasis on both theories and the latest archaeological and multidisciplinary approaches The main focus is on four major developments the origins of humanity the appearance and spread of modern humans before and during the late Ice Age including the first settlement of the Americas the beginnings of food production and the rise of the first civilizations

The Past in Perspective Kenneth L. Feder,2013 Ideal for introduction to archaeology and world prehistory courses The Past in Perspective An Introduction to Human Prehistory Sixth Edition is an engaging and up to date chronological overview of human prehistory Kenneth L Feder introduces students to the big picture the grand sweep of human evolutionary history presenting the human past within the context of fundamental themes of cultural evolution Written in a refreshingly accessible voice this unique narrative personalizes the past and makes it relevant to today s students Using a consistent chapter format Prelude Chronicle Issues and Debates and Case Study Close up Feder helps students master both what we definitely know and what is still debatable about the complex story of the human past

Human Evolution and Prehistory William A. Haviland,1997 This text is intended for the introductory courses that concentrate on physical anthropology and prehistoric archaeology This book offers a comprehensive and balanced presentation on views of the human evolution and prehistory It focuses on selected aspects of physical anthropology and prehistoric archaeology as they relate to the origin of humanity the origin of culture and the development of human biological and cultural diversity INTRODUCTION TO PREHISTORY A SYSTEMATIC APPROACH IRVING HOUSE,1972 Physical Anthropology and Archaeology Carol R. Ember,Melvin Ember,Robert D. Hoppa,2002 This comprehensive and scientific introduction to physical anthropology and archaeology is the only book to give balanced treatment to both biological and cultural evolution and the interaction between them to help students understand what humans are and were like and why they got to be that way An Introduction to Anthropology: Physical anthropology and archaeology Victor Barnouw,1982 History of Physical Anthropology Frank Spencer,1997 The comparative study of humans as biological organisms their evolution and their physiological and anatomical functions and ecology of primates surveys the entire field and summarizes and organizes the basic knowledge fundamental principles and development The History and Geography of Human Genes L L Cavalli-sforza,Paolo Menozzi,Alberto Piazza,2018-06-05 Hailed as a breakthrough in the understanding of human evolution The History and Geography of Human Genes offers the first full scale reconstruction of where human populations originated and the paths by which they spread throughout the world By mapping the worldwide geographic distribution of genes for over 110 traits in over 1800 primarily aboriginal populations the authors charted migrations and devised a clock by which to date evolutionary history This monumental work is now available in a more affordable paperback edition without the myriad illustrations and maps but containing the full text and partial appendices of the authors pathbreaking endeavor University of Michigan Official Publication ,1960 Mapping Mongolia Paula L.W. Sabloff,2011-06-29 With its small population and low GDP Mongolia is frequently deemed unique or tacked onto various area studies programs Inner Asia Central Asia Northeast Asia or Eurasia This volume is a response to the concern that countries such as Mongolia are marginalized when academia and international diplomacy reconfigure area studies borders in the postsocialist era Would marginalized countries such as Mongolia benefit from a reconfiguration of area studies programs or even from another way of thinking about grouping nations This book uses Mongolia as a case study to critique the area studies methodology and test the efficacy of another grouping methodology the scapes method proposed by Arjun Appadurai Could the application of this approach for tracing individuals social networks by theme finance ethnicity ideology media and technology be applied to nation states or peoples Could it then prevent Mongolia from slipping through the cracks of academia and international diplomacy Experts from ecology genetics archaeology history anthropology and international diplomacy contemplate these issues in their chapters on Mongolia through the ages Their work includes over 30 maps to help situate Mongolia in its geologic geographic economic and cultural matrix By comparing maps of different time periods and intellectual orientations readers can consider for themselves the place of Mongolia in the world community and the relative benefits of these and other grouping methodologies Content of this book s DVD ROM may be found online at this location

<http://core.tdar.org/project/376589> The Global Prehistory of Human Migration Immanuel Ness, 2014-08-29 Previously published as the first volume of The Encyclopedia of Global Human Migration this work is devoted exclusively to prehistoric migration covering all periods and places from the first hominin migrations out of Africa through the end of prehistory Presents interdisciplinary coverage of this topic including scholarship from the fields of archaeology anthropology genetics biology linguistics and more Includes contributions from a diverse international team of authors representing 17 countries and a variety of disciplines Divided into two sections covering the Pleistocene and Holocene each section examines human migration through chapters that focus on different regional and disciplinary lenses

The Concept of Race in Natural and Social Science E. Nathaniel Gates, 2014-05-01 Explores the concept of race The term race which originally denoted genealogical or class identity has in the comparatively brief span of 300 years taken on an entirely new meaning In the wake of the Enlightenment it came to be applied to social groups This ideological transformation coupled with a dogmatic insistence that the groups so designated were natural and not socially created gave birth to the modern notion of races as genetically distinct entities The results of this view were the encoding of race and racial hierarchies in law literature and culture How racial categories facilitate social control The articles in the series demonstrate that the classification of humans according to selected physical characteristics was an arbitrary decision that was not based on valid scientific method They also examine the impact of colonialism on the propagation of the concept and note that racial categorization is a powerful social force that is often used to promote the interests of dominant social groups Finally the collection surveys how laws based on race have been enacted around the world to deny power to minority groups A multidisciplinary resource This collection of outstanding articles brings multiple perspectives to bear on race theory and draws on a wider range of periodicals than even the largest library usually holds Even if all the articles were available on campus chances are that a student would have to track them down in several libraries and microfilm collections Providing of course that no journals were reserved for graduate students out for binding or simply missing This convenient set saves students substantial time and effort by making available all the key articles in one reliable source Authoritative commentary The series editor has put together a balanced selection of the most significant works accompanied by expert commentary A general introduction gives important background information and outlines fundamental issues current scholarship and scholarly controversies Introductions to individual volumes put the articles in context and draw attention to germinal ideas and major shifts in the field After reading the material even a beginning student will have an excellent grasp of the basics of the subject

Ban Chiang, a Prehistoric Village Site in Northeast Thailand, Volume 1 Michael Pietrusewsky, Michele Toomay Douglas, 2002 The inaugural volume in the Thai Archaeology Monograph Series describes in detail the human skeletal remains from Ban Chiang in northeast Thailand The skeletal material spans a period from 2100 B C to A D 200 and includes premetal Bronze Age and Iron Age deposits from a series of prehistoric societies The history of Homo sapiens in Asia has long been a topic of interest among scholars investigating human biology This study which is based on one of the larger comprehensively analyzed skeletal series ever excavated in the region makes fundamental contributions to understanding human settlement in eastern Asia The volume includes detailed summaries of metric and nonmetric variation recorded in teeth skulls and the rest of the skeleton and evidence of disease of the Ban Chiang people These data are used to examine a number of questions Where did the people of Ban Chiang come from Did more intensified agriculture influence the health of the people How do the people of Ban Chiang compare to the inhabitants of other ancient sites in Thailand and to the modern peoples of Thailand and neighboring regions Contrary to other groups experiencing similar transitions elsewhere in the world no clear evidence for a decline in health over time is noted in the Ban Chiang skeletal series suggesting continuity in a broad based subsistence strategy even in the face of intensifying agriculture The skeletal evidence further suggests a rigorous physical lifestyle with little evidence for infectious disease or interpersonal violence Content of this book s CD ROM may be found online at this location <http://core.tdar.org/project/376534> Thai Archaeology Monograph Series Joyce C White Series Editor University Museum Monograph 111 On the Road of the Winds Patrick Vinton Kirch, 2017-11-14 Introduction defining Oceania Discovering the Oceanic past The Pacific islands as a human environment Sahul and the prehistory of old Melanesia Lapita and the Austronesian expansion The prehistory of new Melanesia Micronesia in the sea of little islands Polynesia origins and dispersals Polynesian chiefdoms and archaic states Big structures and large processes in Oceanic prehistory
