Retranslating the Bible and the Qur'an Pieter Boulogne, Marijke H. de Lang, Joseph Verheyden, Despite the lively scholarly discourse on retranslation and its manifest value for uncovering dynamics of cultural change interpretation and reception the retranslation of religious texts has received only fragmented attention in recent years By spanning both historical and current aspects and by treating the Bible and the Qur'an together this book breaks new ground and paves the way for future research on the myriad discursive and religious aspects of retranslation This carefully curated collection of articles compellingly argues that the retranslation of canonical religious texts is a multi faceted phenomenon With cases ranging in time from the early Reformation to the present and traversing linguistic contexts from Russia to Sweden Slovenia to Saudi Arabia the essays capture diverse dimensions of retranslation work The collection demonstrates that retranslations of such texts manifest in different forms depending on the religious political and societal circumstances the targeted audiences and the status of existing translations Their reception too may vary greatly depending on those same circumstances Authored by specialists in the different fields of retranslation of the Bible and the Qur'an each contribution illustrates this complexity and offers a fresh perspective and insight that help lay the groundwork for future research in this area of study

Unknowing and the Everyday Seema Golestaneh, 2022-12-26 In Unknowing and the Everyday Seema Golestaneh examines how Sufi mystical experience in Iran shapes contemporary life Central to this process is ma rifat or unknowing the idea that as it is ultimately impossible to fully understand the divine humanity must operate from an engaged awareness that it knows nothing Golestaneh shows that rather than considering ma rifat an obstacle to intellectual engagement Sufis embrace that there will always be that which they do not know From this position they affirm both the limits of human knowledge and the mysteries of the profane world Through ethnographic case studies Golestaneh traces the affective and sensory dimensions of ma rifat in contexts such as the creation of collective Sufi spaces the interpretation of Persian poetry formulations of selfhood and non selfhood and the navigation of the socio material realm By outlining the relationship between ma rifat and religious aesthetic and social life in Iran Golestaneh demonstrates that for Sufis the outer bounds of human thought are the beginning rather than the limit International Journal of Applied Linguistics & English Literature Editor,2012-07-12 International Journal of Applied Linguistics and English Literature IJALEL is a peer reviewed journal established in Australia Authors are encouraged to submit complete unpublished and original works which are not under review in any other journal The scopes of the journal include but not limited to the following topic areas Applied Linguistics Linguistics and English Literature The journal is published in both printed and online versions The online version is free access and downloadable Vol 1 No 2 Islam compiled form Wikipedia entries and published by Dr Googelberg, Etiquette & Manners: Eating 1,
